NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT AT THE KENTISH KNOCK.

Trinity-House, London, July 7, 1840.

THIS Corporation having, in compliance with the request of the Owners and Masters of vessels interested in the navigation of the North Sea, caused a vessel to be prepared for exhibiting a light near the sand called the Kentish Knock, notice is hereby given; that the said vessel will be stationed at the east side of the said sand, a short distance to the eastward of the situation in which the beacon buoy now lies, and that the light on board the same will be exhibited on the evening of the 1st of September next, and thenceforth continued every night from sun set to sun rise.

The light on board this vessel will be exhibited from a single lantern; it will revolve, and will burn at an elevation of 38 feet above the level of the sea.

Note.—The Kentish Knock Beacon Buoy will be taken away when the new light-vessel is stationed, but the small watch buoy will be continued.

By order,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Clarke, of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge, Gunmaker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 5th day of August next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. Hodgson, Solicitor, No. 2, Cherry-street, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying and discharging certain costs, charges, and expenses incurred and sustained, previous to the awarding and issuing forth of the said fiat, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement between the said bankrupt and his creditors relative to a settlement of their debts; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of such part of the stock, in trade, furniture, goods and effects of the said bankrupt as at the time of the meeting shall remain unsold, either by public auction or private contract, or by private or public tender, or otherwise, or partly by public auction and partly by private tender, and either for ready money or on credit, and to his buying in the same, or any part thereof, and reselling the same, either by public auction or private contract, or by private or public tender, and either for ready money or on credit, with like powers again to buy in and re-sell the same in manner aforesaid, as to the said assignee shall seem expedient, and to his taking a bill or bills of exchange, or other security or securities, for the purchase money as he shall deem proper, without being liable to account for or bear any loss which may happen by reason of the selling on credit and taking any such security or securities which may happen by any such resale or resales as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing, at the expense of the said bankrupt's estate, an accountant, or such other person or persons as he shall deem proper, to collect in the debts and take and value the stock and effects of the said bankrupt, and to ratify and confirm the appointment of an accountant, and such other person or persons as aforesaid, which shall have been made by the said assignee prior to the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee making such compensation to such accountant and other person for their time and trouble, in the matters aforesaid, as to the said assignee shall seem just and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the good will and possession of the said house and shop occupied by the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law in equity, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding with the said debtors, or any one or more of them, and with any other debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and receiving part of any debt or debts in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to any such debtor or debtors for payment of his or their debts without security, and for confirming and agreeing to any composition or other arrangement which the said assignee shall, previously to the said meeting, have made with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt, claim, matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs, and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already, or which shall have been, adopted and taken by the said assignee in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, and to authorise him to act in and about the management of the said bankrupt's estate and effects as to him shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Vincent Gibson, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Veterinary Surgeon, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, at the office of Mr. Charles Gibson, No. 4, Saint James's square, Manchester aforesaid, on Wednesday the 5th day of August next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, certain costs, charges, and expenses incurred and sustained previous to the issuing of the said fiat, and subsequent thereto, but previous to the meeting for the choice of assignees under the said fiat, in reference to, and for the benefit or protection of, the bankrupt's estate and effects, at which meeting the particulars and amount of such costs, charges, and expenses will be stated; and also to sanction and confirm all and singular the acts, payments, and proceedings had, taken, and made by the provisional assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt appointed under the said fiat; and also to sanction and confirm the employment of any accountant employed by the said assignees respectively in investigating the affairs of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment to such accountant by the said assignee of such remuneration for his time, trouble, and services, both past and future, as to the said assignee shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding with John Gibson, a debtor to the said bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, giving time, or taking security for the payment of such debt, and submitting in such manner as the said assignee shall think proper, a certain action lately brought, and now depending between, the said assignee and the said John Gibson, and all matters and differences between such assignee and the said John Gibson to arbitration; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Oldham, of Newton-green, in the parish of Mottram in Longendale, in the county of Chester, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 4th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the White Bear Inn, Piccadilly, in Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, in order to assent to or dissent from the payment of certain expenses incurred previously to the bankruptcy for the protection of the property of the bankrupt, and which will be stated at such meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the real and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof respectively, either by public auction or private contract, and at a valuation or otherwise, either altogether or in parcels, and at different times, or for ready money or on credit, and without being answerable for any loss if sold on credit; and in case of any sale by auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignee buying in all or any part of the property aforesaid, and again offering the same for sale, with the like powers and authorities; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or proceedings in bankruptcy, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and compounding any debt or debts, or submitting to arbitration any matter, claim, or dispute relating thereto; and to ratify, confirm, and allow all and whatsoever the said assignee shall have done previous to the said meeting, and generally to authorise and empower him to act for the benefit and protection of the estate, and to wind up the affairs of the same as the said assignee may deem most advantageous to the creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Joseph Brook, of Huddersfield, in the county of York, Cloth-Dresser, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 4th day of August next, at four o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. C. S. Floyd, Solicitor, Princess-street, Huddersfield, in the said county, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing and paying an accountant, or other competent person, for the purpose of investigating, and adjusting the accounts, and ascertaining the true state of the debts and credits of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying such sum or sums of money to the person or persons already, or to be hereafter employed, in taking charge of, and in showing and disposing of the stock in trade of the said bankrupt, and in collecting, and receiving the debts due to, and in winding up the said bankrupt's estate, and undertaking the necessary journeys incident thereto, as the said assignees shall think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, certain expenses incurred in reference to a certain deed of composition made and executed by the said bankrupt previous to his bankruptcy, together with certain other law expenses about the same time incurred, in protecting the estate of the said bankrupt for the benefit of the creditors; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, to any person or persons who may be willing to purchase the same, all or any part or parts of the said bankrupt's stock and implements of trade, goods, fixtures, and all other his estate and effects whatsoever, either wholly or partly by public auction, or wholly or partly by private contract, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors, either upon credit or for ready money, or partly upon credit and partly for ready money, with power to buy in and again in like manner sell the same, without being accountable for any loss which may happen to the estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing such action or actions, suit or suits, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, as they shall be advised, against such persons as will be named at the said meeting, for the recovery of the value of certain property entrusted to or given up to them by the said bankrupt for such purposes, and under such circumstances, as will be named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other action or actions, suit or suits at law, or in equity, or in the Court of Review, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding any debt or debts, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling and agreeing any matter, claim, or dispute now existing, or which at any time hereafter may arise, respecting or in anywise concerning the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, on such terms as the said assignees shall think expedient; and to authorise the said assignees generally to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the affairs, estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as they from time to time shall think necessary, reasonable, just, and beneficial for the estate and creditors of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Oliver Thomas Joseph Stocken, of Walham-green, in the county of Middlesex, Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 5th day of August next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting a certain supplemental suit or suits in equity, against the executors or surviving executor of the said bankrupt's maternal grandfather, and all other necessary parties, for the purpose of reviving a certain original suit instituted by the said bankrupt, against the same parties, for the administration of the estate of the testator, and having the accounts thereof, and all claims thereunder, properly taken and determined; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking all such other proceedings as they may be advised for determining any questions or differences between the said parties respectively, or any of them.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Bernard Angle, of the Castle Tavern, Moorfields, in the city of London, Licenced Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 5th day of August next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or prosecuting a certain suit or suits in equity, against a person or certain persons to be named at such meeting, and all other necessary parties, for the purpose of securing and recovering certain sums of money, part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects in their hands, under circumstances which will be stated at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees taking all such other proceedings as they may be advised, for determining any questions or differences with any parties or party relative to the same sums of money, or the securities for the same, or otherwise howsoever.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 11th day of July 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by EDWIN BROOMHEAD, of Bakewell, in the county of Derby, Plumber and Glazier, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

On the 13th day of July 1840, by BENJAMIN BILLING CROSS, of New Woodstock, in the county of Oxford, Glove-Manufacturer, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 14th day of July 1840, by THOMAS ANDREWS, of Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, Builder, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against William Munroe the younger and Thomas Munroe, of Milk-street, in the city of London, Merchants, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners in trade, trading under the firm of Munroe and Brother, and they being declared bankrupts are hereby required to surrender themselves to Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 21st day July instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, and on the 25th day of August next, at half past eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of their estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupts are required to finish their examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of their certificate. All persons indebted to the said bankrupts, or that have any of their effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to Mr. William Turquand, Copthall-buildings, the Official Assignee, whom the Commissioner has appointed, and to give notice to Messrs.
