Friday, the 4th day of September, in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1840.

Between John Foote Hattatt, Edward Messum the elder, and Henry Holmes the elder, Plaintiffs; Samuel Neke Wilmot, Defendants. And in the Matter of an Act of Parliament, intituled "An Act for altering and amending the Laws regarding commitments by courts of equity for contempt, and the taking of bills, pro confesso."

UPON the humble petition of the Plaintiffs, this day preferred unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, it was alleged that the petitioners' bill of complaint in this cause was filed on the 6th day of August 1840, and that, on the 14th day of the said month of August, the said bill was amended pursuant to an order, dated the 11th day of the said month of August, that after the said bill was amended, and on the 15th day of the said month of August a writ of subpoena was duly issued against the above named defendant, requiring him to appear to, and answer the said bill, and which writ was made returnable immediately; that the usual place of abode of the said defendant's dwelling-house, situate in Saint Ann's-street, in the city of Salisbury, and on the 20th day of August instant, Henry Reade Hodding, of the city of Salisbury, who is one of the petitioners' Solicitors in this suit, called at the said dwelling-house for the purpose of serving the said writ of subpoena upon the said defendant personally, or by leaving a copy thereof with some person there, and producing the original writ to such person; but the said Henry Reade Hodding was unable to effect such service, by reason that neither the said defendant nor any other person was there present; that immediately prior to the 26th day of May last, the said defendant was resident at his said dwelling-house, in Saint Ann's street, Salisbury aforesaid, and that on or about that day he absconded and left his said dwelling-house, and has not since returned to reside there, but the said house has since been and is now shut up and deserted; that the said defendant has absconded to avoid being served with process at the suit of the petitioners, and though great exertions have been used to ascertain the residence of the said defendant, the same cannot be discovered. It was therefore prayed, and upon reading the Six Clerks' certificate of the petitioners' bill, being filed, the affidavit of the plaintiffs and Frederick Atkins, and the affidavit of Henry Reade Hodding, filed respectively the 1st day of September instant, it is ordered that the said defendant, Samuel Neke Wilmot, do enter his appearance to the plaintiffs' bill in this suit, on or before the 1st day of November next, and hereof notice is to be given forthwith.
