All those the said bankrupts' two undivided third parts of and in the following property, that is to say, of and in all that capital and well accustomed public-house, known by the sign of the Hare and Hounds, situate in Bank-street, in Bolton-le-Moors aforesaid, and of and in the brewery, lofts, stables, and premises behind the same, and now in the occupation of Mr. Lawrence Settle, as tenant thereof.

And also of and in all that capital messuage or dwelling-house and shop, situate in Bank-street aforesaid, adjoining the last-mentioned premises, and now in the occupation of Mr. William Hayward, Chymist and Druggist.

And also of and in all that messuage or dwelling-house and shop (now occupied as two messuages or dwelling houses and shop), situate in Bank-street aforesaid, in the occupation of Mr. Robert Scholes, Butcher, and his under tenant, Miss Kenyon, Confectioner.

The whole of the above property is held under a lease from Lord Bradford, for the residue of a term of 99 years, when commenced on the 12th day of May 1802, and is subject to the yearly rent of £23 18s. 6d., and to the covenants and exceptions in the said lease mentioned.

For viewing the property, apply to the respective tenants, and for further particulars to Messrs. Rushton and Armitstead, Acres-field, Bolton, Solicitors to the mortgagees; or to Messrs. Taylor and Andrews, Bolton, Solicitors to the assignees.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Powell Charles Blackett, of Green-street, Grosvenor-square, in the county of Middlesex, Lodging-Housekeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 30th day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing a suit in equity against Catherine Territt, of Chilton-hall, in the county of Suffolk, executrix of the last will and testament of Dr. William Territt, deceased, and all other necessary parties to such suit, for the purpose of having the real and personal estate and effects of the said Dr. William Territt, deceased, duly administered, and obtaining payment of a debt of £81 9s. due to the estate of the said bankrupt from the estate of the said Dr. William Territt, deceased, and to submit such debt to arbitration, and to compound the same if they shall think fit so to do; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Hopkinson, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Coach-BUILDER, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 29th day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. Cort, Solicitor, 7, Queen-square, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the payment and allowance, out of the estate of the said bankrupt, of certain expences incurred previous to and after the issuing of the said Fiat, the particulars of which will be then and there produced; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, and other the personal estate of the said bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, or partly by both, or by tender, appraisement, or valuation, at such time and place, price and prices, and upon such terms as to them shall appear reasonable, and to any person or persons who shall be willing to treat for the same, and to give such credits and to take such security, whether personal or otherwise, for the purchase money thereof respectively, as the said assignees in their discretion shall think proper, and, in case of such sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, and at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the said bankrupt's trade or business, for the benefit of, and at the risk of, his estate, for such time as may be necessary for the working up the present unmanufactured stock, or such part thereof as they may think proper, and also to their employing the said bankrupt, or any other person or persons, in conducting the said trade, or in any other way for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, and to their paying and allowing, out of the moneys to be received by the said assignees belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, such wages and compensation, for their trouble therein, as to the said assignees may seem proper and reasonable; and also to the said assignees paying and discharging all such rent, taxes, wages, and other outgoings now due and payable from the said bankrupt's estate, and to become due and payable during such period of time as the said assignees may continue the possession of the said bankrupt's premises for the purposes aforesaid, but so as that the said assignees shall not in anywise be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage which may arise or happen by reason of such continuance, or of their actings or doings therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the proceedings which may be adopted by the said assignees between the period of their appointment and the time of the meeting of the creditors hereby called; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to the said assignees making compensation to such person or persons, for his or their trouble, as to the said assignees may appear proper and reasonable; and also to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or making any application to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for defending, recovering, or concerning any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Barnard Brown and Charles Poppleton, both of Leeds, in the county of York, Flax-Spinners and Copartners in trade, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 29th day of October instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs. Raynar and Bradley, Solicitors, in Leeds, in the county of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by private contract or public auction, the residue of the stock in trade and effects of the said bankrupts, either for ready money or upon credit as the said assignees shall think advisable, and of their taking in payment thereof bills of exchange and acceptances, for the same, without their becoming personally liable or responsible for payment thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting any debt or debts due to the said bankrupts, or either of them; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees settling and agreeing with the receiver appointed by the Court of Chancery, respecting his bill and accounts against the said estate, in a certain suit instituted by the said Charles Poppleton against the said Barnard Brown, prior to the issuing of the Fiat, and, if necessary, to submit to arbitration all matters in difference between the said receiver and the said assignees; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying in full, or otherwise, certain expences incurred, previous to the opening of the said Fiat, in respect of certain meetings of creditors for the purpose of making arrangements for winding up the concerns of the said bankrupts, by composition, assignment, or otherwise, and for preparing several documents to carry the same into effect, and other expences incident to the affairs of the said bankrupts, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, or of either of them, or for the protection thereof; or to the compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said assignees to adopt such measures in the management and winding up of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts as they may deem expedient; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 6th day of October 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by GEORGE SIMMONDS, of Bear-yard, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Carpenter, and Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
