FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1840.

AT the Court at Claremont, the 3d day
of October 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for better defining the powers of "justices within the metropolitan police district," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful to Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute,
within the metropolitan police district, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof; and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that a police magistrate or magistrates shall attend regularly at any police court or courts thereafter to be established, either daily or on such days and times as Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, should order:

Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Greenwich; Saint Nicholas, Deptford; that part of Saint Paul's, Deptford, which is within the county of Kent;
Lewisham and Lea, in the county of Kent;

Rotherhithe; that part of St. Paul's, Deptford, which is within the county of Surrey; and the hamlet of Hatcham, in the county of Surrey; shall henceforth be constituted a police court division;
and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Greenwich, in the county of Kent; and that the parishes of Plumstead, Woolwich, Charlton, Eltham, the liberty of Kid- brooke, and the hamlet of Mottingham, in the county of Kent, shall, from henceforth, be constituted a police court division; and that a police court for such division shall be holden at Woolwich,
in the county of Kent:

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates to be appointed for these divisions shall attend at the said courts on alternate days, at Greenwich and Woolwich, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving;
and likewise except on Mondays and Saturdays, on which last-mentioned days a magistrate shall attend at each of the said courts; and that on all days of attendance the magistrates shall sit from ten of the clock in the morning until three of the clock in the afternoon, and longer, if necessary, for the despatch of business.

And the Most Noble the Marquess of Normanby,
one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State,
is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d day
of January 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty at any time, by the advice of His Privy Council, to order that any parishes, townships, precincts, and places, whether parochial or extra-parochial, in the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Hertford, Essex, and Kent, of which any part shall be situate within twelve miles of Charing-cross, in the city of Westminster, shall, after a certain day, to be named in such Order, be added to, and form part of, the metropolitan police district, and be placed under the charge of a police to be appointed under the said Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in the Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, it was enacted, that any place which is part of the Central Criminal Court district, except the city of London and liberties thereof, and such places as are or may be included in any Act already passed, or to be passed, in the said session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for regulating the police in the city of London;" and also, that any part of any parish, township, precinct, or place, which is not more than fifteen miles distant from Charing-cross, in a straight line, may be added to, and form part of, the metropolitan police district; and whereas it is expedient that the parishes, townships, precincts, and places following, that is to say:

Downing-street, October 15, 1840.

Whitehall, October 12, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Captain James Outram, of the 23d Regiment of Native Infantry in the service of the East India Company, on the Bombay Establishment, and serving with the rank of Major in the East Indies, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia, of the second class, of the Order of the Dooranee empire, which His Majesty Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, King of Affghanistan, hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of His Majesty's approbation of his services in Candahar, Cabool, and at the capture of the fortress of Ghuznee; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 9, 1840.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Watling Ion, of Beverley, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Baptist Chapel, situated at Wallingford, in the parish of Saint Peter, in the county of Berks, in the district of Wallingford, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 7th day of October 1840, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 8th day of October 1840,
George Sherwood, Superintendent Registrar.

Canterbury Pavement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering and enlarging the provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, lanes, and other public passages and places within the walls of the city of Canterbury, and the liberties thereof; and also several streets and other places near or adjoining to the said city, and for removing and preventing incroachments, obstructions, nuisances, and annoyances therein;" and particularly for amending the powers contained in the said Act, for the election of Commissioners, and for the rating of houses, public and other buildings, gardens, tenements, and hereditaments; or for repealing the said Act, and for granting further and other powers in lieu thereof.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for authority in the said Bill, for enlarging, amending, and extending the existing powers of the Commissioners, for paving, cleansing, and lighting the several streets, lanes, passages, and places within the liberties of the said city, or near or adjoining and leading into the same city, being the suburbs of the said city; and for the better rating of the houses, buildings, gardens, tenements, hereditaments, and public buildings, situate, lying, and being in such last-mentioned streets, lanes, passages, and places.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to levy rates, and to alter and reduce the rates authorised to be collected and recovered by virtue of the aforesaid Act.—Dated this fifth day of October 1840.

Curteis and Kingsford, Clerks to the Commissioners of Pavement.

Grocers'-Hall,
October 16, 1840.By Authority of Parliament,
HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Ardwick Improvement.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the streets, lanes, passages, and places, within the township of Ardwick, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster; and for preventing nuisances and annoyances therein, and for regulating the police thereof; and for widening some of the present streets and places within the aforesaid township; and for making and opening new streets, ways, or communications, to, through, in, or near the said streets and places, or some of them; and also for altering, amending, extending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act for lighting, cleansing, watching, and improving the township of Ardwick, in the county of Lancaster; and for regulating the police thereof;" or for repealing the said Act, and for granting further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof. In which Bill powers will be contained for altering the rates authorised by the said Act to be collected, and for levying new or other rates, within the before-mentioned township; and for authorising the purchase of houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as well as all other powers and provisions which may be deemed necessary or expedient, with reference to the several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned.

Dated this ninth day of October, 1840.

Cooke, Beever, and Darwell.

Leamington and Kenilworth Turnpike Road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to make and maintain a turnpike road, from or near Binswood Terrace, in the parish of Leamington Priors, in the county of Warwick, (communicating there with the north side of the said terrace) to, or near to, Kenilworth, in the said county of Warwick, (to communicate there with the turnpike road leading from Warwick to Coventry, in the said county, at or near the inn called the Horse and Jockey, occupied by James Arnold, in the said parish of Kenilworth), partly by widening and improving the present highway, in the line of the said intended road, and partly by making a new road through certain private land and grounds; which said intended turnpike road will pass from, in, or through, or be situate within, the several parishes, townships, or places following, or some or one of them, that is to say; Leamington Priors, Lillington, Milverton, Leek Wootton, and Kenilworth, all in the said county of Warwick.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take powers to deviate from the line of the said intended turnpike road, to an extent not exceeding, in any one case, one hundred yards on either side thereof, as the same will be defined on the plans hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take powers to levy rates, tolls, or duties upon the said intended turnpike road.

And further notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, plans and sections, shewing the lines and levels of the said intended road, and the land through which the same is proposed to be made, and also duplicates of such plans and sections, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office, in Stratford-upon-Avon, in the said county of Warwick.

And that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the honourable the House of Commons, and another copy thereof in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments.

And also that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, respectively, as relates to each of the several and respective parishes, in or through which the said proposed road is intended to be made, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each of those parishes, at the respective residence of such parish clerk.

Thomas Entwistle Swift,
Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and to amend, repeal, enlarge, or alter the powers and provisions of, and to consolidate the several Acts following, that is to say, an Act made and passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for repairing and widening the roads from the north end of Dunsby lane to the South-west corner of Riseholm Hedge, and to Carholm Gate, Dunsey Nook, and to Dunham and Littleborough Ferries, and from the north end of Waddington field, and the bridge over the river Witham, at Bracebridge, to the city of Lincoln, and from the gate at the foot of Canwick-hill to the great-bar gates of the said city, and for enforcing the performance of statute work upon the highways communicating with the said roads to a certain distance from the said roads." An Act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Second, for repairing and widening certain roads leading to and from the city of Lincoln, and for repairing and widening the roads from the termination of the present turnpike road at the foot of Bracebridge-bridge, over the said bridge westward to the extremity to the county of Lincoln, near a place called Potter-hill, and from the termination of the present turnpike-road at the foot of Canwick-hill southward to a Windmill at the top of the said hill." An Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering and enlarging the powers, of two Acts passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the seventeenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening certain roads leading to and from the city of Lincoln, and for repairing and widening the roads from the termination of the present turnpike road at the foot of Bracebridge-bridge, over the said bridge westward to the extremity of the county of Lincoln, near a place called Potter hill, and from the termination of the present turnpike road, at the foot of Canwick-hill southward, to a Windmill at the top of the said hill." And an Act passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending an Act of His late Majesty, and two Acts of His present Majesty, for repairing certain roads leading to and from the city of Lincoln, and other roads therein mentioned;" and which said roads, some or one of them, respectively pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places following, (that is to say), the parishes of Saint Botolph, Saint Peter at Gowts, Saint Mark, Saint Mary-le-Wigford, Saint Benedict, Saint Swithin, Saint Peter at Arches, Saint Martin, Saint Michael, Saint Peter in Eastgate, Saint Margaret, Saint Nicholas, and Saint John, in the city of Lincoln; Waddington; the liberty of the Mere, Branston, Bracebridge, Canwick, Harmston, Coleby, Nocton, Dunston, Methenningham, Blankney, Scopwick, Temple Brewer, Ashby-de-la-Laund, Bloxholme, Branswell, Boothby Graffoe, Skellingthorpe, North Hykeham, South Hykeham, Thorp on the Hill, Haddington, Morton Thurlby, Swinderby, Burton, Haddow, Saxilby, Newton Kettlethorpe, Fenton, Forksey, Brampton and Martin, in the county of Lincoln, and Thorney, in the county of Nottingham.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to extend the road leading from Lincoln to Grantham from the Northcord of Waddington field to Leadenham, in the county of Lincoln; and which said road is intended to pass from, in, through, and unto the several parishes of Waddington, Harmston, Coleby, Boothby, Navenby, Wellingore, Welbourne, and Leadenham, in the county of Lincoln.

And it is also intended to extend the road leading from the city of Lincoln to Branston, in the county of Lincoln, from a place where a windmill formerly stood at the top of Canwick-hill to the first house at the northern entrance into the town of Branston, now in the occupation of William Ashlin; and which said road is intended to pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes of Canwick and Branston, in the county of Lincoln.

And it is intended to make one new road, to commence and branch out of the present turnpike road, at or near the gate at the foot of Canwick-hill, and to continue thence eastward over part of Canwick-common into a public highway or road called Wash- ingborough-lane; and one new road to commence at or near the gate at the foot of Canwick-hill, and to continue thence in a north west direction over part of Canwick-common, and across certain closes called the Banks Closes to a bridge in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Wigford, called Saint Mary's Bridge; and which said new road is intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Botolph, Saint Peter at Gowts, Saint Mark, and Saint Mary-le-Wigford, in the county of Lincoln; and one other new road branching out of the said last mentioned road, and running in a north direction to a bridge in the said parish of Saint Swithin, called the Swing Bridge, and which said last mentioned road is intended to pass from, through, or into the several parishes of Saint Mary-le-Wigford and Saint Swithin, in the said county of Lincoln; and also for diverting such part of the said road leading from the said city of Lincoln to Sleaford as passes over Cross Cliff-hill, in the said parish of Bracebridge.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill an increase or alteration of the existing tolls authorised by the said acts to be collected is intended to be proposed.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, a map or plan and section of the said intended new lines or branches of road, with a book of reference thereto contained the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of lands through which the same are intended to be made, and also a duplicate thereof, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords, in this case made and provided, will be deposited at the offices of the clerks of the peace of the parts of Lindsey and Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, the city of Lincoln, and the county of Nottingham, at their offices at Spilsby, Sleaford, Lincoln, and Newark,; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said map or plan and section as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords in this case made and provided, will be deposited with the respective parish clerks of the said several parishes.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, duplicates of the said map or plan and section, and books of reference thereto, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.—Dated this thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty.
