Solihull Union.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Bethesda Chapel, situated at Solihull, in the county of Warwick, in the district of the Solihull union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 7th day of October 1840, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 2d day of November 1840, George Joseph Harding, Superintendent Registrar.

TO all to whom these presents shall come; we the undersigned, the major part of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Chester, assembled at the court of general quarter sessions of the peace, held at Nether Knutsford, in and for the same county, on Monday the nineteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord 1840, send greeting; whereas, by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to authorize the appointment of additional Coroners for the county palatine of Chester," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that from and immediately after the passing of the said Act, it should be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, from time to time, upon the application or representation of the justices of the peace for the said county of Chester, in quarter sessions assembled, or at any adjournment thereof, to issue or cause to be issued Her Majesty's writ, de Coronatore Eligendo, for the election of one or more additional head coroner or coroners for the said county of Chester, as in any such application or representation should be required; and it was by the said Act further enacted, that the justices of the peace for the said county, assembled at the quarter sessions to be holden in the month of October in the now present year, or at some adjournment thereof, or at some special sessions to be appointed by them so assembled as aforesaid, should divide the said county (with the exception of that district or portion of the county which was commonly called or known by the name of Halton Fee), into three or more divisions, and should set out and determine the extent of limits of such divisions, and what parishes, townships, extra parochial places, and other portions of the said county should be included therein respectively, and should fix and determine at what place within each division the court for the election of head coroner for such division should be holden, and should cause an instrument to be prepared under the hands and seals of the justices so assembled as aforesaid, or the major part of them, describing the divisions into which the said county should be divided, and the name by which each such division was to be distinguished, and the parishes, townships, extra parochial places, and other portions of the county intended to be included therein respectively, and the place at which the court for the election of the head coroner for such division was to be held, a copy of which instrument should be published in the London Gazette, and also in two or more newspapers published or usually circulated within the said county, and that the original thereof should be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, to be by him safely kept amongst the public records of the said county; and that the said county should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such divisions as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such divisions should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by the authority and in manner in the said Act mentioned; now we, the major part of the said justices here assembled, having maturely weighed and considered the subject matter of the said recited Act of Parliament, and the several matters and things hereinbefore recited or referred unto, do hereby order, declare, and direct that so much and such part or parts of the several parishes mentioned and set forth in the first schedule to this order annexed as comprise the several townships in the same schedule also set forth, and also the same several townships and the several extra parochial places and other portions of the said county in the same schedule also mentioned and set forth, shall form one division within and for which a head coroner shall be appointed under the provisions of the said recited Act, which said division shall henceforth and for ever hereafter
