W. Grant Allison, } Solicitors.
Tho. Grant, jun. }

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the markets within the town of Blackburn, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and for improving the streets, and other places within the said town;" and also to alter and increase the several existing tolls, rates, or duties now payable under the said Act, and to levy new or additional tolls, rates, or duties, and also to extend the powers and provisions of the said Act so to be altered, amended, and enlarged, and such several tolls, rates, and duties so to be altered and increased and levied to other streets, squares, market places, lanes, roads, and other public passages and places, and to other messuages, houses, buildings, tenements, gardens, garden ground, lands, and premises, within the township of Blackburn, in the said county palatine of Lancaster; or for a bill to repeal the said Act, and to obtain another Act in lieu thereof, with such altered, amended, and enlarged powers and provisions as aforesaid, and such altered and increased and new or additional rates, tolls, and duties, and to extend the same respectively as aforesaid to all streets, squares, market places, lanes, roads, and other public passages and places, messuages, houses, buildings, tenements, gardens, garden ground, lands, and premises in all parts of the said township of Blackburn.

And it is intended by the said Bill and Act, to obtain

(as well the powers aforesaid as also) powers for flagging, paving, and repairing the footways in the said town and township, and for better watching, lighting, cleansing, and improving the streets, squares, market places, lanes, roads, and other public passages, and places in the said town and township of Blackburn, and for preventing nuisances therein, and for making and repairing drains and sewers therein, and better cleansing and draining the said streets, squares, market places, lanes, roads, and other public passages and places in the said town and township, and for cleansing, scouring, deepening, widening, and improving the waterway and course of the brook or stream, called the Blackburn or Blakewater, flowing through or in the said town and township, and repairing the bridges over the said brook, and erecting and repairing other bridges over the same, and for preventing obstructions and nuisances in the said brook; and for the better ordering and establishing the police of the said town and township; and for the erection of gas works and the manufacture of gas for lighting the streets, squares, market places, lanes, roads, and other public passages and places in the said town and township, and also shops, manufactories, houses, and other buildings, tenements, and premises, private and public; and for the better regulation of the markets in the said town and township, and of the persons resorting thereto; and for enlarging the market places and making new market places and erecting market houses, a prison, and lock-up houses; and also for erecting a town hall; and also for widening, opening, and improving the streets and public passages and places in the said town and township; and, for the purposes aforesaid, to purchase any messuages, buildings, lands, and tenements which it may be thought necessary or expedient to purchase, and take down and remove such messuages and buildings, and to pay the expenses of such improvements, and also of the several works, matters, and things aforesaid out of the rates to be levied as aforesaid, or by monies to be raised on the credit of the rates, tolls, or duties to be granted by such intended Act; and also to levy rates on the occupiers and owners of all messuages, houses, buildings, tenements, gardens, garden ground, lands, and premises in the said town and township of Blackburn, for effecting the purposes aforesaid, and for carrying the said intended Act into execution.

And it is also intended by such Bill and Act (or by a separate Bill and Act to be applied for in the same next session) to obtain powers for effecting the sale of a certain tract or parcel of land or ground in the said township of Blackburn, called the Town's Moor, containing about ten acres, in customary measure, of seven yards and a half to the perch, and the workhouse and buildings and erections thereon, which land, by a decree of the Duchy Court of Lancaster, in or about the year 1618, was assigned for the use of the town, and of the poor thereof, and which hath since been enclosed and divided by the inhabitants of the said township; or powers for letting or otherwise disposing of the same for any term or terms of years, or absolutely in fee-simple, subject to and reserving rents to be paid by the lessees, grantees, or purchasers thereof, and powers for applying the produce or proceeds therefrom in aid of the purposes of the said intended Act, or for other general purposes of the said town or township; and for altering the poors' rates of the said township of Blackburn, so far as the same may be affected by such sale, letting, or otherwise disposing of the land and premises aforesaid; and for defraying the expenses attending such sale, letting, or other disposal of the land and premises aforesaid, out of such poors' rates, or out of the rates to be levied as above-mentioned for carrying the said intended Act into execution; and for dividing and enclosing the said land or ground so called the Town's Moor, or authorizing or confirming the division and enclosure thereof as aforesaid.

And it is also intended to make provision in such intended Bill and Act for settling and determining any disputes and differences existing or which may arise between the parties interested in the said lands, and the lords or reputed lords of the manor or reputed manor of Blackburn, and to define, regulate, and fix the claims and rights of such lords, or reputed lords, to the wastes (if any) in such manor or reputed manor, and the appointment of the township constable, and the holding or abolishing the holding of Courts of the said manor or reputed manor.—Dated at Blackburn, the thirtieth day of October, 1840.

Wrexham Road Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and alter and enlarge the powers, of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and enlarging the powers of three Acts of the reign of his late and present Majesty, for amending several roads therein-mentioned, as far as relate to the road from Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, to Pentre-bridge, in the county of Flint; and for making a new branch of road from the said road, at a place called Abbermorddu, to Mold, in the said county of Flint;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and improving the same district of road; which said several roads pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, or places of Wrexham, Broughton, Stansty, and Gwersyllt, in the county of Denbigh, and of Cynman, Caergwile, Rhanberfedd, Leeswood, Broncoed, and Mold, in the county of Flint; and also for making turnpike, widening and improving the highway leading from the present turnpike-gate on the aforesaid road, situate in the township of Broughton, in the parish of Wrexham, and county of Denbigh, called Plas Goch-gate, westward, through the same township of Broughton, by a certain public house, called the Ship Tavern, at a place in the same township, called South Sea, and so on by Wright's smithy, John Roden's house, and Tyn-y-Coed, all in the township of Bersham, in the parish of Wrexham, and county of Denbigh, unto and into the turnpike-road, leading from Wrexham to Ruthin, at a certain place in the said township of Bersham, called Loft Wen; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving a certain other highway or highways, leading from the aforesaid turnpike-gate, in the aforesaid township of Broughton, called Plas Goch-gate, eastward, through part of the said township of Broughton, in the said parish of Wrexham, and through the said township of Stansty, in the parish of Wrexham aforesaid, and of Gwersyllt, in the parish of Gresford, and Acton, in the said parish of Wrexham, in the said county of Denbigh, into and into the Wrexham and Chester turnpike-road, at or near to the end of a lane, nearly opposite to a certain blacksmith's shop, situate in the said township of Acton, in the said parish of Wrexham, called Acton Smithy; and also for making turnpike, widening, and improving a certain other highway or highways, leading from a certain side-gate, situate in the township of Stansty, in the said parish of Wrexham, near the house of Thomas Forgham, and continuing eastward from thence through the same township of Stansty to a certain place, called Rhosddu, in the same township; and also for making turnpike, and improving, and maintaining a certain diversion from the aforesaid road, secondly hereinafter described, commencing at a certain brook or rivulet, which crosses the same road, at the same place, called South Sea, and is the boundary, in that part, between the townships of Broughton aforesaid, and of Brymbo, in the aforesaid parish of Wrexham, in the said county of Denbigh, and proceeding in a northwardly direction through part of the said township of Brymbo, by a weighing-machine belonging to the South Sea Collieries, in the same township, and following a certain private road there, unto the aforesaid brook or rivulet, about sixty yards north-west of a certain cottage, in the occupation of John Jones, and then crossing the same brook or rivulet into the aforesaid township of Broughton, and proceeding through ancient enclosed lands, about three hundred and fifty yards in the same township, and then again crossing another part of the same brook or rivulet into the aforesaid township of Brymbo; and continuing in the same last-mentioned township, through ancient enclosed lands, unto the boundary dividing the aforesaid township of Brymbo and Broughton, at or near a certain farm-house and barn, in the said township of Broughton, in the occupation of John Hall, and proceeding northwardly, partly in the township of Broughton, and partly in the township of Brymbo, unto a certain public highway, leading towards a certain public house, known by the sign of the Red Lion, in the village of Brymbo, and crossing the same highway, in the aforesaid township of Broughton into other ancient enclosed lands, and proceeding to another public highway, in the same last-mentioned township, and crossing that road at or near a certain public house in the same township of Broughton, called the Queen's Head, and continuing along the boundaries, between the last-mentioned townships, to another public highway, leading towards a place called Bryn Malley, and then crossing into the aforesaid township of Brymbo, at or near a certain cottage, in the township of Broughton aforesaid, in the occupation of John Capper, and proceeding partly in the said township of Brymbo, and partly in the said township of Broughton, unto a certain other public highway, leading from a place called the Freeth, to a certain other place, called The Fwd, and crossing that road in the said township of Brymbo, and proceeding by a certain cottage, in the same township of Brymbo, in the occupation of Thomas Mathias, and then following a public highway, in the same township of Brymbo, leading to the Fwd Colliery, near to a certain cottage, in the occupation of Margaret Evans, and there entering in a northwardly direction a certain field, in the same township of Brymbo, in the occupation of Edward Parry, and proceeding through that field unto and into the turnpike-road leading from Rosset-bridge, in the county of Denbigh, to Minera, in the same county, at or near a certain bridge, over the river Cae Geddog, called Pont-y-Plas-Maen; in which said Bill provision is intended to be made for levying tolls on the said roads, and also for altering the existing tolls authorized to be taken in and by the said recited Act.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the thirtieth day of November next, a map or plan, and section, describing the line or situation of the said turnpike-roads intended, and the lands in, through, or over which the same roads are intended, to pass, or to be widened, together with a book of reference, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such land, and also a duplicate thereof, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords, as is required, will be deposited at the offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the said counties of Denbigh and Flint; and also, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of so much of the said map or plan, and section, as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, and a copy of so much of the standing orders of the House of Lords as aforesaid will, be deposited with the parish clerks of the said several parishes.

And notice is hereby further given, that, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next, duplicates of the said map or plan, and section, and book of reference thereto, will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office, in the House of Commons.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of October, 1840.

P. Humberston, Clerk.

Swansea and Loughor Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for making and maintaining a railway, to commence at or near a certain place, called the Pottery Mill, in the parish of Saint John-Juxta-Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, and to terminate by a junction with a branch of the Llandilo and Llanelly Railway, at or near Loughor-bridge, in the borough of Loughor, in the same county; together with several branches from and out of the said first mentioned railway (that is to say), one of such branches to commence at or near a farm house, called Travelle Mawr, and to terminate about half a mile beyond a cottage, called Gorse Vawr, on Mynidd Lliw; another branch to commence at or near a house called Ystrad-Isaf, and to terminate on Mynidd Bach-y-Glo; another branch also to commence near the aforesaid house of Ystrad-Isaf, and to terminate on Mynidd Carn Goch; another branch to commence at or near the Pottery Mill aforesaid, to terminate at or near the Morfa Copper Works, in the said parish of Saint John-Juxta-Swansea; another branch also to commence at or near the Pottery Mill aforesaid, and to terminate by a junction with the Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road, at or near the lower end of the Swansea Canal; also another branch from and out of the Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road, at or near the Corporation public Quay, in the town of Swansea, to communicate with a certain dock or basin, to be made on the Burrows as hereinafter described; which said railway and branches, or some of them, will be made in, and pass from, through, or into the town and franchise of Swansea, the borough of Loughor, and the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial places of Swansea, Saint John-Juxta-Swansea, Llangefelach, Loughor, Llandilo-Talibout, and Lansanlet, or some of them, all in the said county of Glamorgan; with powers to make and maintain all such culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, fences, buildings, depôts, stations, warehouses, roads, inclined planes, engines, machinery, and other works, in the several parishes, townships, or extra parochial places aforesaid, or some of them, as may be deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the said railway, and branches respectively.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill for making and maintaining a dock or basin at or near the Pottery Mill aforesaid, in the said parish of Saint John-Juxta-Swansea, and in the town and franchise of Swansea, within the parish of Swansea, or some of them, in the said county of Glamorgan; also one other dock or basin on a certain place, called the Burrows, in the said town and franchise of Swansea, within the parish of Swansea aforesaid, together with all necessary or convenient locks, quays, wharfs, gates, warehouses, roads, and approaches thereto, in the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial places aforesaid, or some of them.

And in the said Bill powers will be inserted to divert or alter all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, canals, navigations, and railways within the said parishes, townships, or extra parochial places aforesaid, as may be required to be diverted or altered, for the purposes of such works.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands, in or through which the same is proposed to be made, were deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March last, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Glamorgan, at his office, at Cardiff, in the said county; and, on or before the first day of April last, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish, in or through which the said works, or any part of them, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, was deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, on either side of the lines thereof, laid down upon the said plans, to an extent not exceeding ten yards in any town, or on land covered with houses or buildings, and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards: but the said power of deviation is not intended to be applied for, where the property situate within the said distances of ten yards and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plans, or if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained or described in the said book of reference; nor is it intended to exceed, in any case, the limits denoted on the said plans, where a limit to such deviations shall be expressly denoted thereupon, or to extend into the lands of any person whose name shall not be mentioned in the said books of reference.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the said proposed works, and to incorporate a company for carrying the purposes aforesaid into execution.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Bill to alter, vary, amend, or repeal the several powers, provisions, tolls, rates, and duties contained and set forth in an Act, passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway, or tram-road, from the town of Swansea, into the parish of Oystermouth, in the county of Glamorgan;" and also of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal, and a railway or tram-road, from the river Burry, at or near the village of Penclawdd, in the parish of Lanridian into the township or borough of Loughor, and divers branches therefrom, all in the county of Glamorgan;" and to take powers to enable the Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road Company, incorporated by the said first-mentioned Act, and the Penclawdd Canal and Tram-road Company, incorporated by the said last-mentioned Act, to demise, lease, or sell, and absolutely to make over to the company to be incorporated by the proposed Bill, the said respective tram-roads, and canals, or any part thereof respectively, and all the works, matters, and things connected therewith, and all the powers, rights, and property of or possessed by the said Oystermouth Railway or Tram-road Company, and the said Penclawdd Canal and Railway Companies, or any part thereof respectively; and also to enable the company to be incorporated by the proposed Bill, to accept and take such demise or lease, or to accept the transfer and assignment thereof, and to hold, exercise, and enjoy the said powers, rights, and property accordingly, with power to consolidate and amalgamate the said Oystermouth Railway, or Tram-road Company and the said Penclawdd Canal, and Tram-road Company, with the company to be incorporated by the said proposed Bill.

Dated this third day of November, 1840.

Bradford Waterworks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for better supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford, within the several townships of Bradford, Horton, Bowling and Manningham, all in the parish of Bradford, in the west riding of the county of York, and for that purpose to incorporate a Company with powers to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs at or near to Hedge-side farm, in the townships of Allerton and Manningham, or one of them, in the said parish of Bradford, and a new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, within the said townships of Allerton and Manningham, or one of them, in the said parish of Bradford, from and out of the present stream or watercourse called or known as Chellow Dean Beck, which flows down Chellow Dean at a point above the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, thence to pass along or near to the side or sides of the said intended reservoir or reservoirs, and to join and communicate with the said present stream or watercourse below the same intended reservoir or reservoirs. And also to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs, at or near to Whetley-hill, in the said township of Manningham, and to make, lay, and maintain proper cuts, channels, conduits, aqueducts, drains, sluices, weirs, shafts, mains, pipes and other works and conveniences within the several parishes, townships and places of Thornton, Wilsden, Harden, Cullingworth, Cottingley, Bingley, Allerton, Heaton, Manningham, Horton, Rowling, and Bradford, or some of them, in the said west riding of the county of York, for supplying the said reservoirs with water, and for conveying and distributing the same to the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is intended by the said Act to obtain powers for the purposes aforesaid, to take and use the waters of certain springs and streams called Many Wells, arising in Trooper or Many Wells Farm, in the township of Wilsden and parish of Bradford aforesaid, which springs or streams now flow into a certain stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck, or Harden Beck, which supplies with water the several mills, engines, and other works, situated upon or near to the same stream or rivulet, and thence flows to and into the River Aire.

And it is further intended to empower the Company to be incorporated by the said intended Act to make and maintain a compensating reservoir or reservoirs, with all proper works and conveniences, upon or near to the said stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck, or Harden Beck, in the townships of Thornton and Wilsden and parish of Bradford aforesaid, for the purpose of collecting, penning up, and impounding water for the use of the several mills, engines, and other works situated upon or near to the said last-mentioned stream or rivulet, between such reservoir or reservoirs and the river Aire, in lieu of the water to be taken and used for supplying the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid; and also to make and maintain a new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses from and out of the said stream or rivulet called Hewenden Beck or Harden Beck, at a point above the last mentioned intended reservoir or reservoirs, thence to pass along, or near to the side or sides of the same intended reservoir or reservoirs, and to join and communicate with the same Beck below such intended reservoir or reservoirs; which said last mentioned reservoir or reservoirs, and new channel or channels, watercourse or watercourses, works and conveniences, are intended to be made within, or to pass from, through, or into the several townships of Thornton and Wilsden, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is further intended to empower the said intended Company to levy rates, and to charge and take rents or sums of money for the supplying with water the town and neighbourhood of Bradford aforesaid.

And it is further intended by the said intended Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks, incorporated by an Act passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for preserving the works made for supplying the town of Bradford, in the county of York, and part of the township of Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid with water; for the more easy recovery of the rents for the said water, and to enable the proprietors thereof to borrow money for the improving such works;" to sell and dispose of all or part of the waterworks, lands, and premises now belonging to, or vested in them, under such Act, to the Company intended to be incorporated by the said intended Act; and to enable such last-mentioned Company to purchase and take such waterworks, lands, and premises.

And also to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said Act, of the thirtieth year of the reign of King George the Third, and to alter or increase the water rents or rates, and charges thereby authorised to be taken or made; and to vest all powers, rights, and privileges now held or enjoyed by the said Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks, or so to be amended and enlarged as aforesaid in the said intended Company, or otherwise to repeal the said last-mentioned Act, and the power of levying water-rents, or rates and charges thereby authorised, and dissolve the said Company of Proprietors; and to enable the said intended Company to hold and maintain the waterworks, lands, and premises so to be purchased by them as aforesaid, and to supply the town and neighbourhood of Bradford with water therefrom; and to levy and take rates and charges in respect thereof, under the powers of the Act so intended to be applied for.

And it is further intended to enable the Company to be incorporated by the said intended Act, to make and maintain a reservoir or reservoirs in the townships of North Bierley and Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid, near to or upon the line of the present conduit belonging to the said Company of Proprietors of Bradford Waterworks.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the situation and levels of the intended reservoirs, watercourses, and other works connected therewith, and the lands to be taken, or which it is proposed to obtain a power of taking for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office in Wakefield, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each parish in which such reservoirs, watercourses and other works connected therewith are proposed to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, namely, with the parish clerk of Bingley, at his place of abode in Bingley, and with the parish clerk of Bradford, at his place of abode in Bradford.

George Robert Mossman, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a turnpike-road, with all necessary and proper bridges, culverts, drains, sluices, and other works and conveniences, to commence by a junction with the Saint Leonard's and Seddlescomb road, at or near Cripp's Corner, in the parish of Ewhurst, in the county of Sussex, and to terminate at or near Tubb's Lake, in the parish of Hawkhurst, in the county of Kent; which said road is intended to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Ewhurst, Bodiam, and Salehurst, in the said county of Sussex, Sandhurst, and Hawkhurst, in the said county of Kent.

And also that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill, to place under the care and management of the trustees to be thereby appointed the present turnpike-road leading from Highgate, in the said parish of Hawkhurst, to a certain place called Cooper's Corner, in the parish of Salehurst aforesaid, and for that purpose to alter, amend, or repeal so much of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and widening the road from Tlinwell Vent, in the county of Sussex, through Highgate, in the county of Kent, and the parishes of Sandhurst, Newenden, and Northiam, to Taylor's Corner, in the parish of Rye, in the county of Sussex, and from Highgate aforesaid to Cooper's Corner, in the county of Sussex, and also a piece of road communicating with the said road, called Whitebread lane, in the said county," as may be necessary for that purpose; and in the said Bill powers will be contained to levy tolls and rates upon, or in respect of, the said intended turnpike-roads, and to alter the tolls and rates now authorised to be taken upon the said road from Highgate to Cooper's Corner aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Act of the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth; and in the said Bill powers will also be contained for diverting from its present course the present turnpike-road leading from Rye to Vinehall, or for erecting an arch, and passing under the same at or near Cripp's Corner aforesaid, and for altering so far as may be necessary, with reference thereto, the provisions of an Act passed in the second and third year of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and widening the road from the turnpike-road at Vinehall to Cripp's Corner, and from thence to Staple Cross, and from Cripp's Corner to Taylor's Corner, in the county of Sussex, and a piece of road communicating therewith."

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended roads, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex, at his office at Lewes, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish from, in, through, or into which the proposed turnpike-roads are intended to be made and to pass, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode, on or before the 31st day of December next.

Dated this fourth day of November 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter and enlarge the provisions of an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of Small Debts within the parishes of Kingsnorton and Northfield, in the county of Worcester;" and to extend the provisions of the said Act, and the jurisdiction of the court thereby established, to the several parishes and places of Bromsgrove, Stoke-Prior, Tardebigg, Redditch, Alvechurch, Beoley, Belbroughton, Upton-Warren, Hanbury, Feckenham, Coston-Hacket, and Chaddesley-Corbet, in the county of Worcester, and that other part of the said parish of Tardebigg, in the county of Warwick and the parish of Ipsley, also in the county of Warwick.—Dated the sixth day of November 1840.

Buppitt, Monkton, Sidbury, Upottery, Clayhidon, and Churchstanton, in the county of Devon; and in which Bill provision is intended to be made for authorising and empowering the trustees, acting under and by virtue of the said Act, to make, maintain, and keep in repair a new line of road, leading from and out of the present turnpike road leading from Hônilton aforesaid to the city of Exeter, at or near the pillars at Pair Mile, situate in the parish of Talaton aforesaid, to the country hotel in the said parish of Whimble; which said new line of road is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes or places of Talaton and Whimble aforesaid; also to make, maintain, and keep in repair, a new line of road, leading from and out of the said turnpike road at or near the Fenny bridges, in the said parish of Feniton, to the turnpike road leading from Exeter aforesaid to Cullompton, in the said county of Devon, at or near a place called Broadclist-heath, in the said parish of Broadclist; which said last mentioned new line of road is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the said several parishes or places of Feniton, Talaton, Broadclist, and Whimble. And by the said Bill an increase or alteration of the existing tolls rates, or duties is intended to be proposed; and it is also intended to extend the powers of the said Act to the erecting turnpikes or toll-gates, and demanding, levying, and taking tolls at such turnpikes or toll-gates, on or by the sides of such intended new lines of road.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said several new lines of road, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at Exeter, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and also in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and that a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to the several parishes aforesaid, from, in, through, or into which such new lines of road are intended to be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the said thirty-first day of December next. Dated this ninth day of November, 1840.

Lewis Gidley, Clerk to the Trustees acting under the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads leading to and from the city or borough of Wells, in the county of Somerset, and for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and watering the said roads, and the streets, lanes, and public passages within the said city or borough, the liberty of St. Andrew, and suburbs of the the said city or borough, and removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances thereon; so far as the said Act relates to the more effectually repairing and improving the several roads therein mentioned.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power, in the said Bill, to make and maintain a new line or deviation from and out of the turnpike road, leading from the city of Wells to Shepton Mallet, both in the county of Somerset; such line or deviation to commence at or near the foot of a certain hill, called Dinder Hill, in the parish of Dinder, in the said county; and to terminate at or near the Union House, in the parish of Shepton Mallet, in the said county; which new line or deviation passes in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Dinder, Crusecombe, Pilton, and Shepton Mallet, or some of them, all in the said county of Somerset.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to take power by the said Bill to make turnpike, widen, maintain, and keep in repair a certain highway called Baron's Field Lane, leading from the turnpike road, at or near the dwelling-house of Robert Charles Tredway, Esq., in Wells aforesaid, towards and into the turnpike road leading from Wells aforesaid to the city of Bristol, and thence across the said turnpike road to the junction of a certain lane, called Ash Lane, with the old Bristol road, which said road intended to be widened, maintained, and kept in repair, is situate in the liberty of St. Andrew, in Wells, aforesaid, and in the in and out parishes of St. Cuthbert, in Wells aforesaid, or some of them, all in the said county of Somerset; and that power will also be taken in the said Bill to widen and improve the turnpike roads authorised to be repaired and improved under and by virtue of the before recited Act.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be taken in the said Bill, to deviate from the line of the proposed new road or deviation, to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the line laid down on the plans, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, when such line is intended to pass through land covered with houses, and in all other parts of the line, to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of such new line or deviation, highway, and widenings, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Somerset, at his office at Taunton, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the aforesaid parishes, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively, at the respective places of abode of such parish clerks, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, for the inspection of all parties concerned.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to levy tolls, rates, or duties, upon or in respect of the said new lines of road, and to alter the existing tolls, rates, or duties, authorised to be taken on the roads comprised in the said Act hereinbefore mentioned. Dated this fifth day of November, 1840.

Robins and Hobbs, Wells, Solicitors for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to authorise the Commissioners of the Deanhead Reservoir acting in execution of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a reservoir at Deanhead, in the parish of Huddersfield, in the west riding of the county of York, and for other purposes relating thereto," to borrow and raise a larger sum of money than is now authorised by the said Act to be borrowed or raised upon the credit of the rates to be raised and levied by virtue thereof, for the purpose of carrying on and completing the works thereby authorised, and the improvements hereinafter mentioned; and also to authorise the said Deanhead Reservoir Commissioners (with the consent and approbation of a majority in value of the said Commissioners), to increase the rates by the said Act authorised to be made, levied, or assessed, but so that no rate to be so made, levied, or assessed shall exceed, in any one year, the sum of forty shillings for every foot of fall by the said Act made liable to be rated; and also to enable the said Deanhead Reservoir Commissioners to make, construct, complete, and maintain the embankment across the brook called the Blackburne, in the township of Scammonden, in the parish of Huddersfield, of greater strength, or breadth, or thickness, or dimensions, than are marked, delineated, or expressed on the map or plan referred to by the said Act, and to alter the line of the said embankment by curving the same at the southwardly end thereof, so as to carry or make the southwardly terminus thereof about twenty yards to the westward of the terminus marked or delineated on the said map or plan, and to authorise the said commissioners to purchase, or to take and use at a valuation, by jury, the lands and hereditaments specified in the books of reference hereinafter mentioned:

And notice is also hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended works or improvements, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at Wakefield, in the said riding, on or before the thirtieth day of this instant month of November; and that, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the plans and sections of the said intended works or improvements, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the parish of Huddersfield, at his residence in Huddersfield.

And it is also intended by the said Bill and Act to enable the said commissioners, if they shall find it expedient, after the expiration of five years from the time when the said embankment shall have been made and completed, of the height specified on the aforesaid map or plan, to raise the same embankment to such further height not exceeding six feet as they shall think proper, and to borrow or raise further sums of money for effecting the same on the credit of the said rates, but without at any time increasing the same beyond the sum of forty shillings per foot of fall as aforesaid; and it is also intended by the said Bill and Act to alter, explain, and amend the powers and provisions of the said Act of the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and to extend the term thereby limited for completing the works to ten years.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to establish a Court for the recovery of small debts in the parishes or places of West Bromwich, Rowley Regis, Wednesbury and Tip-on, and also the Manor of Bradley, all in the county of Stafford, and to fix and regulate the fees to be taken by the officers of the said court.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEENS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 6, 1840.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on Thursday the 10th of December next, at one o'clock,

The CANTEENS in the under-mentioned BARRACKS will be let, from the 31st December next to the 1st January 1844, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person, but of unexceptionable character, nor any person for more than one Canteen, or who will not undertake bona fide to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect to the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted, and his sureties, must execute an indenture of lease, and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack Masters at the several Barracks.

The Christian and surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same, and it is to be understood that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and conditions may be had at this Office, or on application to the respective Barrack Masters.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Marine Barrack Canteen," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services at Somerset-place.

By the Mutiny Act, Canteens are not liable to have troops billeted on them.

As all persons becoming tenants of Canteens will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, they are hereby cautioned to make themselves fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to their making a proposal.

The rents of the Canteens, as tenements or dwellings, are to be proposed at the sums stated opposite to each in the following list; therefore, the biddings will be upon what is offered for every 10 men per month, exclusive of sergeants, occupying the Barracks, the number being ascertained from the Barrack Master's returns, made up, at twelve o'clock at noon, on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the Barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than 10 will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated; thus, if the Barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed, except such as are strictly according to the form furnished:

Woolwich—Canteen and Shop, £25.
Chatham—Canteen and Shop, £30.
Portsmouth—Marine Canteen and Shop, £20.
Portsmouth—Marine Artillery Canteen, £10.
Plymouth—Canteen and Shop, £10.

CONTRACTS FOR BRAZIER'S AND FOUNDER'S GOODS, AND FOR TIN, BRASS, AND ZINC.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, November 6, 1840.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 26th November instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's Dock-yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, with Brazier's and Founder's Goods, and Tin, Brass, and Zinc.

Patterns of the articles and forms of the tenders may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract for brazier's and founder's goods, and in the sum of £500, for tin, brass, and zinc.

Rock Life Assurance Company.

No. 14, New Bridge-Street, Blackfriars,
November 5, 1840.

THE Half-yearly General Court of the Proprietors of this Company will be holden on Wednesday, the 25th instant, at twelve o'clock precisely, at the New London Hotel, the corner of Bride-lane, New Bridge-street, Blackfriars.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Exchequer, made in a cause of Whitehurst v. Bonest, with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Master's chambers, Tanfield-court, Inner-temple, London, on Thursday the 10th day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon, in one lot;

Certain freehold and copyhold premises, consisting of a messuage or farm-house, with suitable out-offices, and 122 acres, 2 roods, 12 perches of land, situate at Lower Stoudon, in the parish of Shirlington, in the county of Bedford, and in the adjoining parish of Upper Stoudon, in the same county, in the occupation of Mr. William Armstrong, as a yearly tenant, at the annual rent of £210; and also a messuage, divided into two tenements, with gardens and appurtenances, situate near in the occupation of ——— Bonest, Widow, and another.

Particulars of sale may be had of Mr. John Eagles, Solicitor, Amptill; Mr. Ezra Eagles, Solicitor, Bedford; Mr. Austin, Solicitor, Sheffield; at the White Hart Inn, Amptill; the White Hart Inn, Sheffield; the Sun Inn, Hitchin; of Messrs. Jones, Trinder, and Tudway, Solicitors, John-street, Bedford-row, London; Messrs. Chilton and Acland, Solicitors, No. 7, Chancery-lane; and at the Master's chambers.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, wherein the Right Honourable Marianne Viscountess Sidmouth is the plaintiff, and Henry Lord Viscount Sidmouth and others are the defendants, and wherein the said Viscountess Sidmouth is the plaintiff, and John Earl of Eldon and others are the defendants, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who would have been the next of kin of the Right Honourable William Lord Stowell at the time of his death (which happened on the 20th day of January 1836), in case he had died intestate and without issue; and in case any of such next of kin were dead, who were their personal representative or representatives; pursuant, therefore, to the said Decree, any person or persons claiming to be such next of kin of the said William Lord Stowell, and the personal representative or representatives of such next of kin (if any) who are since dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 21st day of December 1840, to come in before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out their kindred or representation, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes, intituled respectively Lombe versus Stoughton, and Lombe v. Jodrell, it was, amongst other things, referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, who was or were the heir or coheirs at law of Sir John Lombe, Baronet (the testator named in the pleadings of the said causes), and also who were or was his copyhold or customary heir or coheirs, according to the custom of the manor or respective manors of which the copyhold or customary estates, devised by his will and codicils in the said pleadings mentioned, were holden at the time of his decease, and whether such heir or coheirs respectively, or any or either, and which of them were or was since dead, and if dead, whether testate or intestate as to any real estate, if any descended from the said testator; and who was or were then the heir or coheirs at law, and also such copyhold or customary heir or coheirs of the said testator, Sir John Lombe, or who was then entitled to any such descended estates, if any, and also who was or were the next of kin of the said testator, Sir John Lombe, living at the time of his death, and if all, or any, or either, and which of such next of kin, if more than one, or such next of kin, if only one, had since died, and who was or were their, his, or her legal personal representative or legal personal representatives; pursuant therefore to the said Decree, any person or persons claiming to be the heir or coheirs at law of the said Sir John Lombe, or his copyhold or customary heir or coheirs as aforesaid, according to the custom of the respective manors, of which the copyhold or customary estates devised by his said will and codicils were as aforesaid holden at the time of his decease (which happened in or about the month of May 1817), and also any person or persons, who in the event of any such heir or coheirs, respectively, having died, may claim to be entitled to any such descended estates, either as being now the heir or coheirs at law of the said testator, or his copyhold or customary heir or coheirs, or otherwise; and also any person or persons claiming to be the next of kin of the said testator, Sir John Lombe, living at the time of his death, or the legal personal representative, or legal personal representatives of any such next of kin who may have since died, are, on or before the 1st day of December 1840, by his, her, or their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, Mr. Wingfield, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and prove his, her, or their heirship, title, kindred, or representation.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Bantfield, of Cheapside, in the city of London, Silversmith, Jeweller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 5th day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees keeping open the shop in which the said bankrupt carried on his business, and continuing the sale thereon of all or any part of the bankrupt's stock in trade, and to their employing the bankrupt, or some other fit and proper person or persons, to superintend such sale; and to their making to such person or persons such remuneration as they may deem proper and reasonable, and paying and reimbursing all expenses which have been or shall be incurred in continuing the business of the said bankrupt, or for the protection or preservation of his property; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, either by public auction or by tender, or otherwise by private contract, and either altogether or in such other manner, and at such price or prices and for payment in cash, or upon such credit and security as the said assignees shall think fit, the lease of the house in which the bankrupt resided, and the stock in trade and goodwill, fixtures, and all other the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for any debts owing to the estate of the said bankrupt, and to their taking any reasonable part of the said debt in discharge of the whole, and to their giving time or taking security for the payment of any such debts as shall appear to them advantageous to the bankrupt's estate; and also to the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, or to the presenting or opposing any petition in the Court of Bankruptcy, or otherwise, which they shall think necessary and proper; and to their submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, adjusting, or settling any of the said debts, actions or suits, claims or demands, or any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's estate, as they shall think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Tomlin, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Drysalter and Broker, trading in partnership with George Tomlin, under the firm of Andrew Tomlin and Company, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 5th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Messrs Atkinson, Birch, and Saunders, Solicitors, No. 3, Norfolk street, in Manchester, in the said county, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignee selling, by private contract, at a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, and in one lot, the whole of the said bankrupt's and his said partner's joint stock in trade, goods, chattels and effects, and also the household goods and furniture and other the said bankrupt's separate estate and effects, or any part thereof, to any person or persons whomsoever, and for ready money or payment at future times, and without taking security for such payment, or the assignee being answerable for any loss which may arise or take place by reason of such sales on credit being made either with or without security being taken; and also to assent to and sanction and confirm, or dissent from, a proposed arrangement for avoiding the expense of a joint Fiat against the said bankrupt and his partner, by the assignee taking an assignment from the said bankrupt's partner of all his estate and interest in the partnership stock, debts, and effects, upon trust, to realize and divide the same amongst the joint creditors of the said bankrupt and his partner, who shall come in and prove their debts under the said Fiat against the said bankrupt, in like manner and might be done in case a joint Fiat had issued against the said bankrupt and his said partner, and to the payment of the costs, charges, and expenses of such arrangement out of the joint estate of the said bankrupt and his partner; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying, out of the joint assets, all liens and charges upon goods and merchandize belonging to the joint estate of the said bankrupt and his partner, and selling such goods and merchandize in manner aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee employing an accountant to examine the books, accounts, and affairs of the said bankrupt and his partner, and to collect, get in, and dispose of the debts and property belonging to the estate, and to the assignee paying such accountant for his time, trouble, and services out of the estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Matthew Atkinson, of Temple Sowerby, in the county of Westmorland, and Jonathan Laidman the elder, of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, Bankers, Dealers and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Saturday the 5th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Crown Hotel, in Penrith aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the payment and allowance of certain wages, outgoings, costs, and expenses incurred previous to and after the issuing of the said fiat, the particulars of which will be then and there produced; and to the ratification and confirmation of the sales which have been effected by the said assignees of portions of the bankrupts' stock and effects; and to the confirmation of the terms of letting made by the said assignees of certain parts of the real property at Temple Sowerby, let by them to the present tenants; and to the said assignees letting the lands at Temple Sowerby, late in the occupation of the said bankrupt, Matthew Atkinson, to such persons, for such rents and term as they shall think fit, or to the said assignees, at their discretion, carrying on the management thereof for the benefit and at the risk of the estate, until such time or times as the same can be sold, and to their employing proper persons therein, and allowing such wages and compensation to them as the said assignees may think reasonable, and to the said assignees paying and discharging all such taxes, wages, and other outgoings, to become due during such occupation, for the purpose aforesaid; and to the said assignees permitting the said bankrupt, Matthew Atkinson, to occupy the mansion-house, out-offices, and garden at Temple Sowerby, for such period, and subject to such agreement, as to rent and repairs, at their discretion; and to the said assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the husbandry utensils, household furniture, and other separate effects of the said bankrupt, Matthew Atkinson, by public auction or private contract, at such times and for such prices as they shall deem fit; and to the said assignees selling all or any part of the real estates and shares of ships, and other personal estate of the said bankrupts, by public auction or private contract, at discretion, and subject to, or by paying off, the mortgage and incumbrances charged upon the same, and at such times, and for such prices, as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to the said assignees entering into an amicable arrangement with the trustees of the marriage settlement of the said bankrupt, Matthew Atkinson, for the settlement of the contingent right of his wife to a jointure out of the bankrupt's real estates at Temple Sowerby; and to the said assignees entering into an arrangement with the trustees of the real estates of Thomas Parkinson, Esquire, deceased, as to the right and interest of the said bankrupt in the said estates; and to the said assignees making an arrangement, to be explained at the meeting, for the compromise of a suit in equity now in progress, upon such terms as they shall think proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on the brewery at Appleby, as a current going brewery, for the benefit of and at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate, for such time as the said assignees shall deem necessary for the purpose of enabling the said assignees to dispose of the utensils and goodwill, and to collect and receive the outstanding debts and effects; and also to their employing any person or persons in conducting the said trade, and paying such wages and compensation as to the said assignees may appear reasonable; and also to said assignees paying and discharging all such rents, taxes, wages, duties, and other outgoings, incurred previously to and after the issuing of the said fiat, and to become due and payable during such time as the said assignees may continue the possession of the said brewery for the purposes aforesaid, but so that the said assignees shall not be liable for any loss during such continuance therein; or to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling and disposing of the whole of the stock in trade and effects in the said brewery by public auction or by private contract, and accepting any offer that may be made for the whole, for such prices as they may think reasonable, and giving time for payment, or taking security for the same, at the risk of the estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the employment of an accountant to the said estate of the said bankrupts, with such compensation as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or making any application to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for defending, recovering, or concerning any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling, or taking security for any debt, claim, matter or thing relating to the said bankrupts' affairs, and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already, or which shall have been adopted and taken by the said assignees, in relation to the said bankrupts' estate and effects, and to authorise them to act in and about the management of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, as to them shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as afore said, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 9th day of November 1840, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
