NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enabling Sir Oswald Mosley, Baronet, to grant certain lands and hereditaments, in the parish of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster, for the purposes of the Manchester Public Infirmary, Dispensary, Lunatic Hospital and Asylum, and for vesting the property and effects belonging to the said Charity in Trustees, for the benefit thereof;" and also to incorporate the Trustees of the said Charity, and to make other provisions and grant other powers for better enabling them to carry into execution the purposes thereof.—Dated this 4th day of December 1840:

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for widening, deepening, and otherwise improving the river or creek leading from the Ordnance-wharf to Hollow-shore, in the parishes of Faversham, Preston, and Luddenham, and for removing and taking away a certain public bridge over the same river or creek, and also certain sluice gates placed therein; and for making and maintaining a certain navigable cut or canal out of and from the said river or creek, at and from a certain place called Powder Monkey Bay, in the parishes of Faversham and Preston, or one of them, into, through, and out of lands belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and the Right Honourable John George Lord Sondes, and Samuel Norman Cowley, Esq. in the said parishes of Faversham and Preston, and in Luddenham, or some or one of them; and thence to Hollow-shore aforesaid, so as to form a junction with the East Swale; and also for erecting and maintaining one or more bridge or bridges over the said river or creek, and over the said cut or canal, or either of them, with proper and convenient approaches thereto, all which said several parishes and places are in the county of Kent.

And notice is hereby also given, that the several plans and sections, and books of reference thereto, required by the standing orders of Parliament, will be deposited, in pursuance of such standing orders, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, situate at Maidstone, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill will be contained powers to deviate from the intended line or course of the said navigable cut or canal, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line, and to make and maintain towing paths or tramways on either side, or both sides of the said river or creek, and navigable cut or canal, or either of them; and to divert into and from the said river or creek, and navigable cut or canal, and for the purposes aforesaid, or either or any of them, the waters which either directly or derivatively flow or proceed into or from the said river or creek, and navigable cut or canal, or either of them; and also power to purchase and take land for the purposes aforesaid, or either of them, and to increase, alter, or repeal the present rates, tolls, and duties, or to impose new rates, tolls, and duties in respect of the matters aforesaid; and also to search for, raise, take, appropriate, and carry away stone and gravel from the lands hereinbefore mentioned, or any or either of them; and it is intended to take such additional powers as may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes aforesaid.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1840.

Jefferys and Bathurst, Solicitors, Faversham.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and authorities of two several Acts of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, severally intituled as follows; that is to say, "An Act for making and maintaining a dock and other works, in the port of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, with a railway and stone road therefrom;" and "An Act to enable the Newport Dock Company to raise a further sum of money;" and to repeal certain parts of the said Acts of Parliament, and to enable the said Dock Company to raise a further sum or sums of money for the purposes of the said dock, and the works connected therewith, by creating additional shares, or by mortgage of the said dock and works, or otherwise, and to alter, vary, and increase the rates, tolls, and duties by the said first-mentioned Act authorised to be taken by the said Dock Company; and to extend the time limited by the said Acts for completing certain works therein specified, and to confirm and continue all the powers and authorities in the said Acts contained for taking a further quantity of land for the purposes of the said dock and works, with the consent, in writing, of the owner or owners thereof; and to enable the said Dock Company to take and use any further quantity of land for the purposes of the said dock, and the works connected therewith, not exceeding in the whole ten acres, with the consent, in writing, of such owner or owners; and for various other purposes to be specified in the said Bill so intended to be brought in.

Dated the twelfth day of November 1840.

Prothero and Towgood,

Solicitors to the Newport Dock Company.

THOMAS ROBINSON WILLIAMS, formerly of Norfolk-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, but now of West-street, Well-street, Hackney, in the said county, Gentleman, hereby give notice, that I intend to apply to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation, for the further term of seven years (or such other term, not exceeding seven years, as Her Majesty shall please) of my term of sole using and vending my invention of improvements in the making of hats, bonnets, and caps, and in the covering of them with silk and other materials with the assistance of machinery, granted to me, my executors, administrators, and assigns by certain letters patent, bearing date the 11th day of September 1828, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and I, the said Thomas Robinson Williams, do hereby give further notice, that I intend to apply to the Right Honourable the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Honourable Privy Council, on the 15th day of January next (if the Judicial Committee shall meet or be sitting on that day, or otherwise on the first day after the said 15th day of January next upon which the Judicial Committee shall meet or be sitting) for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of my said petition, for such prolongation of the said term, as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons desirous of being heard, in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council-office on or before the said 15th day of January next.—Dated this 7th day of December 1840.

THOMAS ROBINSON WILLIAMS.

WHEREAS Her present Most Excellent Majesty Queen Victoria did, by her royal letters patent, bearing date the 3d day of January 1839, give and grant unto Abel Morrall the sole privilege and authority of making, using, exercising, and vending his invention of certain improvements in the making and manufacturing of needles, and in the machinery or apparatus employed therein, of which invention a specification was duly enrolled on the 27th day of June 1839; and whereas the said Abel Morrall did, by indenture duly executed, made in the same month of January 1839, assign all his interest in the said letters patent to Thomas Moore Bartleet, William Bartleet, and Charles Bartleet, all of Redditch, in the county of Worcester, needle-makers; notice is hereby given, that the said Thomas Moore Bartleet, William Bartleet, and Charles Bartleet, under and in pursuance of the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws touching letters patent for inventions," have petitioned Her Majesty's Solicitor General for leave to enter a disclaimer and memorandum of alterations of part of the title of the said invention, and of part of the specification thereof, for the purpose of limiting and confining the said invention to that part of the said improvement in machinery or apparatus by which the wires, whereon the needles are spitted or strung, are made to turn round in an opposite direction to that in which the needles are at the same time swung round about the said wires; and to disclaim all parts of the said specification, and of the drawings thereto annexed, which do not describe and represent the said last-mentioned part of the said machinery, and the operation and properties and advantages of such part, and to expunge from the said specification, and of the said drawings, every part thereof which is not necessary for the describing the said last-mentioned part of the said machinery.

London and Blackwall Railway.

WHEREAS the London and Blackwall Railway Company, under their Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Minories to Blackwall, with branches, to be called the Commercial Railway," and of another Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the line of the railway between London and Blackwall, called 'the Commercial Railway,' and for amending the Acts relating thereto," are authorised and required to contract for and to sell such superfluous lands as might be purchased by the said Company, or any estate or interest in such lands, first offering to sell the same to the person, or to the several persons, whose lands or premises shall immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, by notice, to be inserted twice in the London Gazette, and twice in two London newspapers; now the said Company do hereby give notice, that they propose immediately to sell and dispose of the superfluous lands mentioned in the schedule hereto, and more particularly described in a plan, which may be seen at the office of the Company, at No. 10,

America-square, in the city of London; and they do, therefore, hereby first offer to sell the same lands to the person, or to the several persons, whose lands or premises immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, for such price or prices as may be agreed upon between such person or persons and the said Company, or (in case of disagreement as to price) as shall be ascertained by a jury, in the manner directed by the said first-mentioned Act; and that unless such person or persons shall be desirous of purchasing such lands so proposed to be sold, and shall signify such his or their desire and intention in that behalf to the said Company, within thirty days after this offer of sale, the said Company will proceed to sell and dispose of such lands to any other person or persons, in such manner as they shall think fit, and as they are or shall be authorised by their said Acts of Parliament, or otherwise, to do. Dated this 5th day of December 1840.

Gye and Hughes' bankruptcy.—Singularly valuable and very important property, known as the Egyptian Hall, Piccadilly, admirably adapted for a first-rate club-house, branch banking house, or any public institution requiring large and extensive premises at the west end of London.

NO to be sold by public auction, by Mr. Leifchild, who has received positive instructions from the assignees, with the concurrence of the mortgagee, at the Auction Mart, on Thursday, December 10, without reserve, the above extremely valuable property, which, from its unparalleled situation in the centre of the fashionable part of the metropolis, contiguous to Old Bond-street, Regent-street, and St. James's-street, is considered eminently adapted for any object requiring suites of lofty, capacious, and elegant rooms, in a public edifice of established popularity, vast extent, and undeniable capabilities. The building contains, on the ground floor, a spacious entrance hall leading to a splendid bazaar room 105 feet in length, and extending behind five houses in front of Piccadilly, tastefully decorated and well lighted with double sky lights, at present used as an exhibition room, for which purpose it is peculiarly calculated and in great requisition, and two capital shops, with five rooms and vault under; on the first floor is the noble Egyptian Hall, of fine proportions, it being 55 feet long, 32 feet wide, and 26 feet high, with circular dome and frontage to Piccadilly, small room adjoining, and two water closets; also an ante-room 46 feet by 12 feet, and 11 feet high, with handsome staircase communicating with the hall, an elegant lecture room capable of accommodating from 600 to 700 persons, being 44 feet by 36 feet, and 22 feet high, beautifully fitted up with circular gallery, supported by six appropriate columns, and a convenient office; the basement, with back entrance and right of way from the street, contains an immense warehouse, with two large kitchens, and sundry other domestic offices. The value of the property has been considerably enhanced by the large sums of money expended in fittings up and decoration, and the numerous improvements that have recently taken place in its immediate vicinity. The whole presents to capitalists an opportunity rarely to be met with. The premises are held on lease for a long term of years, subject to a low ground rent, and are now underlet to respectable tenants, at rents amounting to £1295 per annum.

The property may be viewed any time previous to the sale, with permission of the tenants, by tickets only, which, with full descriptive particulars, conditions of sale, and ground plans of the estate, may be had, 14 days preceding the sale, of Messrs. Hadwicke and Davidson, 14, Cateaton-street, Solicitors to the Assignees; of Thomas Nias, Esq. 5, Cophthall-court, Throgmorton-street, Solicitor to the mortgagee; and at Mr. Leifchild's Office, 62, Moorgate-street, Bank.
