AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of December 1840.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, on the fifteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty, an Order was made by Her Majesty in Council, which Order was in the following words:

“ WHEREAS, on the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, an Ordinance was made by the Officer then administering the Government of St. Lucia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Government of the said island, which Ordinance was in the following words, viz.

“ An Ordinance to legalize the proceedings and judicial acts of a court presided over by Patrick Francis Gahan, Esq. and to indemnify all persons who have acted under the authority of such court, and the judges thereof.

“ Whereas his Excellency Colonel Thomas Bunbury, lately administering the Civil Government of this said island of St. Lucia, was pleased to grant, under his hand and the seal of the said colony, three several Commissions, to wit, a certain Commission of Provisional Chief Justice of the said island to Patrick Francis Gahan, Esq. the Queen's Counsel, the same bearing date the second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight; and the other Commissions of Provisional First and Second Puisne Judges of the said island to Charles Henry Cox and Duncan Ferguson, Esqrs. the same bearing date the fourth and fifth days respectively of the said month of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight :

“ And whereas, in and by virtue of the said commissions and appointments, the said Patrick Francis Gahan, Charles Henry Cox, and Duncan Ferguson, as such judges as aforesaid, then and afterwards, from time to time, did meet and sit, as such judges as aforesaid, and did hold several courts to hear and determine actions and causes both in civil and criminal matters; and also did award, in such said actions and causes, orders and sentences, of which some have been wholly or in part executed, some are still without execution, and several have been, from time to time, reversed and annulled :

“ And whereas a question having arisen in respect to the regularity of such said commissions and appointments, the same was referred to the Law Officers of the Crown for their opinion :

“ And whereas the said Law Officers of the Crown have declared the said commissions and appointments of the said judges as aforesaid to have been irregular; wherefore the late judicial acts of the said court thus appointed as aforesaid are invalidated :

“ And whereas it is expedient and necessary to obviate the embarrassment which may ensue from the invalidity of such judicial acts of the said court as aforesaid, and to indemnify all persons who have acted under the orders or sentences of the said court, and to give to those orders and sentences of the said court, so far as they may not hitherto have been set aside, the same authority which would have belonged to them if the constitution of the said court had been regular :

“ Now, therefore, be it, and it is hereby, enacted and ordained, by his Excellency Matthias Everard, Esq. C. B. and K. H. Lieutenant-Colonel of the 14th Regiment of Foot, commanding Her Majesty's troops in the island of Saint Lucia and its dependencies, and administering the Civil Government of the said island, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of the said island, in and by virtue of the powers and authority in him and them vested by Her Majesty in that behalf, that all and every rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act made, given, pronounced, or awarded by the whole or by the majority of the said Court presided over by the said Patrick Francis Gahan, Esq. acting as such Provisional Chief Justice as aforesaid, and composed of the said Charles Henry Cox and Duncan Ferguson, Esqrs. acting as such first and second Puisne Judges, respectively as aforesaid, the said Court then styled ‘ the Royal Court of Saint Lucia,’ in or about any civil action or matter; or by the whole or by the majority of the above-mentioned three judges, or any three assessors that may have been empannelled as a jury to form a competent court with the said three judges, in or about any criminal action or matter; or by any one of the said three judges, acting as Judge of the Small Debt Court; or by any one of the said three judges, acting as Judge of the Court of Interior Jurisdiction in criminal matters, commonly called the Police Court; or, lastly, any order, rule, or judicial act or matter, made in chamber or elsewhere, by any of the said three judges, in such their capacity of judges as aforesaid, shall be, and shall be taken, and is, and are hereby declared to be good, valid and legal to all intents and purposes; any defect, irregularity, or illegality in or of any of the commissions of the said three judges, or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

“ Save and except, and be it and it is hereby enacted and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, that any such rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act, or rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts of the said Patrick Francis Gahan, Esquire, acting as such Provisional Chief Justice as aforesaid, and Charles Henry Cox and Duncan Ferguson, Esquires, acting as such first and second Puisne Judges respectively as aforesaid, made, given, pronounced, or awarded by the whole, or by the majority of the said Royal Court, thus presided over and composed or formed as aforesaid, in or about any civil action or matter; or by the whole, or by the majority of the above-mentioned three judges* in or about any criminal action or matter; or by any one of the said three judges acting as judge of the Small Debt Court, or by any one of the said three judges acting as judge of the Court of Interior Jurisdiction in criminal matter, commonly called the Police Court; or lastly, any order, rule, or other judicial act or matter made in chambers or elsewhere, by any of the said three judges in such their capacity of judges as aforesaid, which by any competent authority may have been legally set aside at any time before the passing of this present Ordinance.

“And be it, and it is hereby enacted and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, that all and every person or persons who shall have acted in anywise whatsoever by virtue of, in obedience to, or under the authority of any of the said rules, orders, sentences, or decrees of any of the said courts or judges, shall be and are hereby indemnified and saved harmless therefrom, and such their actings and doings are hereby declared to have been necessary and lawful.

“And be it enacted and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, that this present Ordinance shall take effect, and be in full force and operation from and after the day of the date of the publication thereof.

“And whereas, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to disallow the said Ordinance; it is, therefore, ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the same shall be, and the same is hereby, disallowed accordingly; and it is hereby further ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts made, given, pronounced, or awarded by the said courts so constituted as is mentioned in the said recited Ordinance, and all acts and things done in the said respective courts in the supposed exercise of any of the powers aforesaid, and all acts done in the execution or performance of all such rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts shall have, and be of, as great and the like validity and effect as if such rules, orders, sentences, decrees, acts, matters, and things had been made, pronounced, and done by the persons entitled in law to act as judges in the said respective courts.

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty that certain of such rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts had been, before the date of the said Order of 15th June 1840, by lawful and competent authority, set aside, reversed and declared void, and that certain writs, processes, actions, suits, or other proceedings had been, before the date of the said Order, issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken, and were then depending for or in respect of acts, matters, or things done under the authority of the said rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts so set aside, reversed, and declared void.

And whereas, doubts may be entertained as to the effect and construction of the said Order in Council upon and in respect of any such rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act so set aside, reversed, and declared void; and upon such writs, actions, and other proceedings so issued, commenced, prosecuted, and taken as aforesaid, and now depending, or on which judgment may have been obtained, and satisfaction recovered.

And whereas it is expedient that all such doubts should be removed and set at rest.

It is therefore ordered by Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said recited Order in Council of the 15th day of June 1840, shall not be construed, deemed, or adjudged to give validity to, or to revive, set up, establish, or otherwise have any legal effect whatever upon any rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act, which by lawful and competent authority shall, before the date of the said Order in Council, have been duly set aside, reversed and declared void as aforesaid, but all such reversed rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts, shall stand, be, and remain as if the said Order in Council had not been made. And it is further ordered, that no writ, process, action, suit, or other proceeding whatsoever issued, commenced, prosecuted, or had, or taken prior to the date of the said Order in Council of the 15th day of June, for or in respect of any acts, matters and things done, or alleged to have been done or committed by the order, or direction of the said court, or done or committed under colour of the authority of the said court, or of any rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act of the said court, and no cause of action for or in respect of which any such writ, process, action, suit, or other proceeding shall or may have been issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken, shall be impeached, prejudiced or affected directly or indirectly in any manner howsoever, by force or virtue of the said Order in Council, except so far as hereinafter is expressly and specifically declared and provided. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful and competent for any person or persons, defendant or defendants, party or parties, against whom any such writ, action, suit, or other proceeding whatsoever, has heretofore been issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken, in which satisfaction has not hitherto been obtained or recovered by payment, execution, or otherwise.

And also for any person or persons, defendant or defendants, party or parties against whom any writ, process, action, suit, or other proceeding shall or may hereafter be issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken for or in respect of the acts, matters and things hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, to apply to the court in which the same writ, process, action, suit or proceeding, summary or otherwise, may be issued, commenced, prosecuted, or had and taken and may be depending, to stay all further proceedings therein on payment of the costs incurred by the party or parties who may have issued, commenced, prosecuted, had, or taken such writ, process, actions, suit or other proceeding, and such court shall thereupon stay all further proceedings therein, on payment of costs as aforesaid.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a chapelry district to St. Peter's Chapel, in the parish of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, under the provisions of the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of September 1840, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of, the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of tithes, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" it is, amongst other things, further enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Maidstone, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, contained a population of 15,337 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 2500 persons, there are two chapels in the said parish, one called Trinity Chapel, recently erected by your Majesty's said Commissioners, which affords accommodation to 1840 persons, and the other, called St. Peter's Chapel, which affords accommodation to 676 persons, including 220 free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said last-mentioned chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, called Saint Peter's Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of his reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named "The Saint Peter's District," with boundaries as follows:

"This district is bounded on or towards the west by the parishes of Barming and Aylesford, on or towards the north by the said parish of Aylesford, and on or towards the east and south east, and north east, by the River Medway, which divides it from the remaining part of the parish of Maidstone, and the parish of East Farleigh, as the same is more particularly delineated in the accompanying plan, and thereon tinted green:

"That baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said chapel, and that the fees arising therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of Maidstone, be received by, and belong to, the Minister of the said chapel:

"That the consent of His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Archbishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty's in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

C. C. Greville.
