Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of December 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of "Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of two several Acts, namely, an Act passed in the seventh year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," and an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and

"Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme relating to the diocese of Lincoln :

"Whereas, under the provisions of the first above-recited Act, we prepared, and on the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, laid before your Majesty in Council, a scheme whereby we recommended and proposed, with the consent of the Most Reverend the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, that, upon a certain event therein mentioned, which event has since occurred, the whole county of Nottingham, then forming the archdeaconry of Nottingham, and part of the province and diocese of York, should be detached and dis severed from the last-mentioned province and diocese, and be annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the province of Canterbury and the said diocese of Lincoln, which scheme was, on the twenty-first day of the same month of August, approved and ratified by an Order of Your Majesty in Council, and the said Order has since been duly registered and gazetted; and whereas, by reason that the deanry and exempt or peculiar jurisdiction of Southwell, and the several parishes or places therein comprised, and the several parishes of Kinolton, South Muskham, Apesthorne, Bole, East Drayton with Askham, Laneham, Misterton, West Stockwith, and North Wheatley, within the said county of Nottingham, were not, or claimed not to be, at the time of making the said Order, subject to the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York or of the Archdeacon of Nottingham, doubts have arisen respecting the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Lincoln, and the Archdeacon of Nottingham, over the said deanry and exempt or peculiar jurisdiction of Southwell, and the parishes and places therein comprised, and over the said other last-mentioned parishes :

"Now, therefore, for the removal of such doubts, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said two Archbishops and of the said Bishop, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the said deanry and exempt or peculiar jurisdiction of Southwell, and all parishes and places therein comprised, and the said parishes of Kinolton, South Muskham, Apesthorne, Bole, East Drayton with Askham, Laneham, Misterton, West Stockwith, and North Wheatley, and all other parishes and places (if any such there be), within the county of Nottingham, possessing, or claiming to possess, exempt or peculiar jurisdiction, or being, or claiming to be, exempt from the ordinary jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York, or the Archdeacon of Nottingham, shall be annexed to, included in, and form part of, the said province of Canterbury, diocese of Lincoln, and archdeaconry of Nottingham, respectively, and the said deanry and exempt or peculiar jurisdiction of Southwell shall be styled the deanry of Southwell, and the said parish of Kinolton shall be within the deanry of Bingham, and the said parish of South Muskham shall be within the deanry of Newark, and the said parishes of Apesthorne, Bole, East Drayton with Askham, Laneham, Misterton, West Stockwith, and North Wheatley, shall be within the deanry of Retford, and the said other parishes and places (if any such there be) shall be included in the several deanries in which they are respectively locally situate, and such of the said last-mentioned parishes and places (if any), as are locally situate between two or more deanries, shall be included in that one of the said deanries with which it shall have the greatest extent of common boundary; and that all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others, your Majesty's subjects within the same deanry and exempt or peculiar jurisdiction of Southwell, and within all the said other parishes and places, shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, of the Bishop of Lincoln, and the Archdeacon of Nottingham, for the time being respectively, to all intents and purposes, and shall be subject to no other ecclesiastical jurisdiction whatsoever.

"All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

"In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several Registrars of the several dioceses of Canterbury, York, and Lincoln.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of December 1840,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, respecting the disposal of the residence house attached to the tenth canonry in the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, in Canterbury, in the precincts of the said church :

"Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Canterbury, have submitted to us a plan, duly approved by the Visitor of the said church; which plan is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," it was enacted, that, so soon as conveniently might be, measures should be taken by the deans and chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches for the disposal of such residence houses then under their controul, and houses attached to any dignity, office, or prebend, in the precincts of the respective cathedral and collegiate churches as might no longer be required, in such way as they should deem fit, according to plans to be, from time to time, prepared by the respective chapters, and, when approved by the Visitors, submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and confirmed by the authority therein-after provided; and whereas the residence house attached to the tenth prebend or canonry of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, in the precincts of the said church, is no longer required, the said prebend or canonry being vacant and suspended under the provisions of the said Act :

"And whereas, by the Statutes of the said church, the Auditor, who, it is thereby provided, shall be also Chapter Clerk, is required to be constantly resident within the precincts of the said church, and there is no other house within the said precincts which is or can conveniently be appropriated to the residence of such Officer, save the prebendal house above mentioned :

"We, the Dean and Chapter of the said church, have, in pursuance of the said Act, proceeded to take measures for the disposal of the prebendal house aforesaid, and have agreed to appropriate the same, henceforth, as a residence for the Officer who, for the time being, shall hold the united offices of Auditor and Chapter Clerk; and we humbly submit such appropriation, as the most convenient plan for the disposal of the said house, to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Visitor of the said Church, for the approval of his Grace, and to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in order that the same may be confirmed, according to the provisions of the Act above mentioned.

"In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, the first day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty.

Approved by us, (Common Seal.)

W. Cantuar, Visitor,

Lambeth-palace, 8th September 1840.

"We therefore humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council, that the said plan should be confirmed.

"All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

"In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventeenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of December 1840.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, on the fifteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty, an Order was made by Her Majesty in Council, which Order was in the following words :

" WHEREAS, on the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, an Ordinance was made by the Officer then administering the Government of St. Lucia, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Government of the said island, which Ordinance was in the following words, viz.

" An Ordinance to legalize the proceedings and judicial acts of a court presided over by Patrick Francis Gahan, Esq. and to indemnify all persons who have acted under the authority of such court, and the judges thereof.

" Whereas his Excellency Colonel Thomas Bunbury, lately administering the Civil Government of this said island of St. Lucia, was pleased to grant, under his hand and the seal of the said colony, three several Commissions, to wit, a certain Commission of Provisional Chief Justice of the said island to Patrick Francis Gahan, Esq. the Queen's Counsel, the same bearing date the second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight; and the other Commissions of Provisional First and Second Puisne Judges of the said island to Charles Henry Cox and Duncan Ferguson, Esqrs. the same bearing date the fourth and fifth days respectively of the said month of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight :

" And whereas, in and by virtue of the said commissions and appointments, the said Patrick Francis Gahan, Charles Henry Cox, and Duncan Ferguson, as such judges as aforesaid, then and afterwards, from time to time, did meet and sit, as such judges as aforesaid, and did hold several courts to hear and determine actions and causes both in civil and criminal matters; and also did award, in such said actions and causes, orders and sentences, of which some have been wholly or in part executed, some are still without execution, and several have been, from time to time, reversed and annulled :

" And whereas a question having arisen in respect to the regularity of such said commissions and appointments, the same was referred to the Law Officers of the Crown for their opinion :

" And whereas the said Law Officers of the Crown have declared the said commissions and appointments of the said judges as aforesaid to have been irregular; wherefore the late judicial acts of the said court thus appointed as aforesaid are invalidated :

" And whereas it is expedient and necessary to obviate the embarrassment which may ensue from the invalidity of such judicial acts of the said court as aforesaid, and to indemnify all persons who have acted under the orders or sentences of the said court, and to give to those orders and sentences of the said court, so far as they may not hitherto have been set aside, the same authority which would have belonged to them if the constitution of the said court had been regular :

" Now, therefore, be it, and it is hereby, enacted and ordained, by his Excellency Matthias Everard, Esq. C.B. and K.H. Lieutenant-Colonel of the 14th Regiment of Foot, commanding Her Majesty's troops in the island of Saint Lucia and its dependencies, and administering the Civil Government of the said island, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of the said island, in and by virtue of the powers and authority in him and them vested by Her Majesty in that behalf, that all and every rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act made, given, pronounced, or awarded by the whole or by the majority of the said Court presided over by the said Patrick Francis Gahan, Esq. acting as such Provisional Chief Justice as aforesaid, and composed of the said Charles Henry Cox and Duncan Ferguson, Esqrs. acting as such first and second Puisne Judges, respectively as aforesaid, the said Court then styled 'the Royal Court of Saint Lucia,' in or about any civil action or matter; or by the whole or by the majority of the above-mentioned three judges, or any three assessors that may have been empannelled as a jury to form a competent court with the said three judges, in or about any criminal action or matter; or by any one of the said three judges, acting as Judge of the Small Debt Court; or by any one of the said three judges, acting as Judge of the Court of Inferior Jurisdiction in criminal matters, commonly called the Police Court; or, lastly, any order, rule, or judicial act or matter, made in chamber or elsewhere, by any of the said three judges, in such their capacity of judges as aforesaid, shall be, and shall be taken, and is, and are hereby declared to be good, valid and legal to all intents and purposes; any defect, irregularity, or illegality in or of any of the commissions of the said three judges, or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

"Save and except, and be it and it is hereby enacted and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, that any such rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act, or rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts of the said Patrick Francis Gahan, Esquire, acting as such Provisional Chief Justice as aforesaid, and Charles Henry Cox and Duncan Ferguson, Esquires, acting as such first and second Puisne Judges respectively as aforesaid, made, given, pronounced, or awarded by the whole, or by the majority of the said Royal Court, thus presided over and composed or formed as aforesaid, in or about any civil action or matter; or by the whole, or by the majority of the above-mentioned three judges* in or about any criminal action or matter; or by any one of the said three judges acting as judge of the Small Debt Court, or by any one of the said three judges acting as judge of the Court of Inferior Jurisdiction in criminal matter, commonly called the Police Court; or lastly, any order, rule, or other judicial act or matter made in chambers or elsewhere, by any of the said three judges in such their capacity of judges as aforesaid, which by any competent authority may have been legally set aside at any time before the passing of this present Ordinance.

* And any three assessors that may have been empannelled as a jury, to form a competent court with the said three judges.

"And be it, and it is hereby enacted and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, that all and every person or persons who shall have acted in anywise whatsoever by virtue of, in obedience to, or under the authority of any of the said rules, orders, sentences, or decrees of any of the said courts or judges, shall be and are hereby indemnified and saved harmless therefrom, and such their actings and doings are hereby declared to have been necessary and lawful.

"And be it enacted and ordained, by the authority aforesaid, that this present Ordinance shall take effect, and be in full force and operation from and after the day of the date of the publication thereof.

"And whereas, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to disallow the said Ordinance; it is, therefore, ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the same shall be, and the same is hereby, disallowed accordingly; and it is hereby further ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts made, given, pronounced, or awarded by the said courts so constituted as is mentioned in the said recited Ordinance, and all acts and things done in the said respective courts in the supposed exercise of any of the powers aforesaid, and all acts done in the execution or performance of all such rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts shall have, and be of, as great and the like validity and effect as if such rules, orders, sentences, decrees, acts, matters, and things had been made, pronounced, and done by the persons entitled in law to act as judges in the said respective courts.

"And the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary instructions herein accordingly."

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty that certain of such rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts had been, before the date of the said Order of 15th June 1840, by lawful and competent authority, set aside, reversed and declared void, and that certain writs, processes, actions, suits, or other proceedings had been, before the date of the said Order, issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken, and were then depending for or in respect of acts, matters, or things done under the authority of the said rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts so set aside, reversed, and declared void.

And whereas, doubts may be entertained as to the effect and construction of the said Order in Council upon and in respect of any such rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act so set aside reversed, and declared void; and upon such writs, actions, and other proceedings so issued, commenced, prosecuted, and taken as aforesaid, and now depending, or on which judgment may have been obtained, and satisfaction recovered.

And whereas it is expedient that all such doubts should be removed and set at rest.

It is therefore ordered by Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said recited Order in Council of the 15th day of June 1840, shall not be construed, deemed, or adjudged to give validity to, or to revive, set up, establish, or otherwise have any legal effect whatever upon any rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act, which by lawful and competent authority shall, before the date of the said Order in Council, have been duly set aside, reversed and declared void as aforesaid, but all such reversed rules, orders, sentences, decrees, or other judicial acts, shall stand, be, and remain as if the said Order in Council had not been made. And it is further ordered, that no writ, process, action, suit, or other proceeding whatsoever issued, commenced, prosecuted, or had, or taken prior to the date of the said Order in Council of the 15th day of June, for or in respect of any acts, matters and things done, or alleged to have been done or committed by the order or direction of the said court, or done or committed under colour of the authority of the said court, or of any rule, order, sentence, decree, or other judicial act of the said court, and no cause of action for or in respect of which any such writ, process, action, suit, or other proceeding shall or may have been issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken, shall be impeached, prejudiced or affected directly or indirectly in any manner howsoever, by force or virtue of the said Order in Council, except so far as hereinafter is expressly and specifically declared and provided. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful and competent for any person or persons, defendant or defendants, party or parties, against whom any such writ, action, suit, or other proceeding whatsoever, has heretofore been issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken, in which satisfaction has not hitherto been obtained or recovered by payment, execution, or otherwise.

And also for any person or persons, defendant or defendants, party or parties against whom any writ process, action, suit, or other proceeding shall or may hereafter be issued, commenced, prosecuted, had or taken for or in respect of the acts, matters and things hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, to apply to the court in which the same writ, process, action, suit or proceeding, summary or otherwise, may be issued, commenced, prosecuted, or had and taken and may be depending, to stay all further proceedings therein on payment of the costs incurred by the party or parties who may have issued, commenced, prosecuted, had, or taken such writ, process, actions, suit or other proceeding, and such court shall thereupon stay all further proceedings therein, on payment of costs as aforesaid.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
