And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty, that it would not be advisable to prevent actions from being brought in the Complaint Court of the said island of Trinidad, by any person who may suffer wrongs in consequence of things alleged to be done in pursuance of the said Ordinance:

And whereas Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to disallow so much of the fifty-fourth clause of the said Ordinance as enacts, that all such actions as aforesaid shall be brought and tried in the Court of First Instance of Civil Jurisdiction, and not in the Complaint Court, or in any other court or tribunal:

It is, therefore, ordered, by Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the same shall be, and the same is hereby, disallowed accordingly; and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be competent for the Complaint Court, in the said island of Trinidad, to try and determine all such actions as aforesaid, under the Ordinance above recited, notwithstanding any thing to the contrary contained in the said Ordinance:

And it hereby ordered, that, subject to the above amendment, the above recited Ordinance shall be, and the same is hereby, confirmed and allowed:

And the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
