TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1841.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of February 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the "Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the Metropolitan Police District, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that a police magistrate or magistrates should attend regularly at any police court or courts thereafter to be established, either daily or on such days and times as Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, should order.

Her Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Fulham and Kensington (including so much of Brompton as has not been assigned by any Order in Council to the police court called "Queen Square Police Court," and such part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, as adjoins the hamlet of Hammersmith, and also that portion of the parish of Chelsea, commonly called Kensall-green, situate to the north of the said parish of Kensington), the hamlet of Hammersmith, and the parishes of Acton and Chiswick, in the county of Middlesex, shall henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division to be holden at Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, until the erection of a police court-house at Hammersmith, in the same county; and that immediately upon the completion of such court-house, at Hammersmith, the said police court shall thenceforth be holden therein, at Hammersmith aforesaid.

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the parishes of Wandsworth, Putney, Battersea, Tooting, Merton, Wimbledon, Roehampton, Barnes, and Clapham, together with so much of the parish of Streatham as comprises Upper Tooting and Balham-hill, in the county of Surrey, shall from henceforth be constituted a police court division; and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates, who shall hereafter be appointed for the said divisions, shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the said Kensington Police Court, until the erection of a police court-house as aforesaid, and after the completion thereof at the said Hammer-smith Police Court, from ten of the clock in the morning until one of the clock in the afternoon; and that one of the said magistrates shall attend at the said Wandsworth Police Court from two of the clock in the afternoon until five of the clock in the afternoon, and longer, if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of Her said Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and from the eighteenth day of February instant.

And the Most Noble the Marquess of Normanby, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, February 16, 1841.

THE following Addresses to the Queen, on the occasion of the Birth of the Princess Royal, having been transmitted to the Marquess of Normanby, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation, were by his Lordship presented to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

Ipswich Wet Dock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the present session of Parliament, by the Commissioners acting under the authority of an Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the forty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, for improving and rendering more commodious the port of Ipswich, and for constructing a wet dock there," for leave to bring in a Bill to empower the said Commissioners to borrow and take up at interest a further sum of money, on the credit of the rates and duties already granted by the said first-mentioned Act, in order to enable them fully to complete the works thereby authorized and directed to be performed, and otherwise to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions of the said first-mentioned Act.—Dated this 4th day of February 1841.

Wm. Rodwell, J. C. Cobbold, Solicitors to the said Commission.

Railway from Hampton-in-Arden to Leamington and Warwick.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the branch line of the Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway, in the parish of Bickenhill, in the county of Warwick, at a point forty chains, or thereabouts, northward of the point where the same branch line at present joins the London and Birmingham Railway, in the parish of Hampton-in-Arden, in the same county, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places, of Bickenhill, Middle Bickenhill, Church Bickenhill, Hill Bickenhill, Hampton-in-Arden, Balsall, Temple Balsall, Berkswell, Barston, Kenilworth, Honley, Wedgnoek, Wedgnoek-park, Hatton, Beausale, Wroxhall, Haseley, and Budbrook, or some of them, in the said county of Warwick; and Warwick, Saint Mary, and Saint Nicholas, or some of them, in the borough of Warwick, and in the said county of Warwick, or in one of them, and terminating in the said parish of Saint Nicholas, in the borough of Warwick, and in the county of Warwick, or in one of them, at or near the spot where the public highway from Warwick to Leamington crosses the Warwick and Napton Canal, on the north-western side of such highway.

And it is also intended, by the said Act so to be applied for, to take powers to make and maintain a branch railway, from and out of the said intended railway, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, to commence in the said parish of Hampton-in-Arden, near to the place where the line of the said intended railway will cross the road or public highway leading from Hampton-in-Arden to Solihull, thence to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places of Hampton-in-Arden, Solihull, Knowle, Catherine de Barns Heath otherwise Catherine a Barns Heath, and Barston, or some of them, all in the said county of Warwick, and to terminate at or near the line of the Warwick and Birmingham Canal, in the parish of Solihull, in the said county of Warwick, at or near the said place called Catherine de Barns Heath, otherwise Catherine a Barns Heath; and also by the said intended Act to take powers to effect a junction between the railway thereby to be authorised, or the works thereof, and the London and Birmingham Railway, and the works thereof, near to the spot where the branch line of the said Birmingham and Derby Junction Railway at present joins the said London and Birmingham Railway as aforesaid.

And it is also intended by the said Act so to be applied for as aforesaid, to take a power of deviating in the construction of the said intended railway and branch railway respectively, on either side of the line thereof, to the extent which will be defined on the plans, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And it is also intended, by the said Act so to be applied for, to take powers to make a basin or basins, with proper wharfs and conveniences connected therewith; and with the said intended railway, to communicate with the line of the Warwick and Napton Canal, in the said parish of Saint Nicholas.

And it is proposed by the said Act to incorporate a company for the purpose of making and maintaining the said intended railway, and branch railway, and works, and to empower the said company so to be incorporated, to levy and raise tolls, rates, and duties, for or in respect of all persons, animals, carriages, goods, articles, matters, and things, carried and conveyed upon and along, or using the said intended railway, and branch railway, and works respectively.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended railway and branch railway and works, and the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, and of the works to be connected therewith, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March, in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Warwick, at his office in Stratford-on-Avon, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Warwick, at his office in Warwick; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each of the said parishes, in or through which the said intended railway and branch railway and works will be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of such parish, at his place of abode, on or before the first day of April, in this present year.—Dated this eleventh day of February 1841.

Guildhall, February 11, 1841.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for making a new street from Holborn-bridge, in the city of London, towards Clerkenwell-green;" and in obedience to an order of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to pay off and discharge the sum of £6000, being part of a bond, numbered one, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 16th of May 1839, part of the monies borrowed under the authority of the aforesaid Act; and I do hereby give notice, that (in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act), at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sum of £6000, together with a proportionate part of the interest up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, when the interest on the same will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of ten days next after declaration in writing, of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at my said Office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at this Office, the said sum of £6000, together with a proportionate part of the interest on the said sum up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same, when the said interest will cease and determine.

There are two gardens and a passage at the rear of this lot, which will be sold as now staked out and marked on the plan to be produced at sale; apportioned annual land tax, thirteen shillings.

Lot 8. Several tenements, fronting St. Faith's-lane, and in a yard adjoining thereto, in the occupations of Noah Thouless, Samuel Derry, Henry Bunn, James Rogers, Emanuel Household, and William Peters; also part of a very productive garden, at the back thereof, in the occupation of ——— Larkman, containing 42 rods; apportioned annual land tax, thirteen shillings.

The pump standing on this lot, with the passage communicating from St. Faith's-lane to the passage at the rear of the houses occupied by Mr. Rackham and others, to be conveyed to the purchaser of this lot, subject to the right of the owners and occupiers of 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 9, using the same, on their paying a share of the expence of keeping the pump and passage in repair.

The purchaser of lot 8 will be entitled to receive of three proprietors of adjoining estates the sum of £2 12s. 6d. per annum for the use of a drain in that lot.

Lot 9. The residue of the garden occupied by the said ——— Larkman, containing 18 rods; apportioned annual land tax, two shillings.

Lot 10. A very respectable dwelling-house, adjoining the church-yard of St. Peter per Mountergate, and also next King-street, in the occupation of Mr. John Wilson, containing a vestibule, parlour, keeping-room, kitchen, cellar, and four bed-rooms. In a yard adjoining is a warehouse, a board and tile stable and gig-house; also a large and valuable walled-in garden, containing about 30 rods; apportioned annual land tax, one pound.

Lot 11. A house, now divided into two tenements, in the occupation of John Edwards and Samuel Neave, with a large yard, carpenter's shop, saw-pit, &c. adjoining lot 10, and also fronting King-street, lately occupied by the bankrupt, and now untenanted; apportioned annual land tax, one pound.

This lot is well adapted for any person desirous of possessing spacious premises next King-street; a very considerable trade as a carpenter and joiner having been carried on by the bankrupt and his father for many years.

Lot 12. A remarkably neat and substantially built dwelling-house, No. 8, being one of a row of houses called St. Stephen's terrace, on the Newmarket-road, Norwich, in the occupation of Mr. Dixon, containing a vestibule, two parlours, kitchen, wash-house, store-room, pantry, low kitchen, cellar, four good bed-rooms, and two attics; at the rear of the house is a stable, gig-house, and enclosed garden; apportioned annual land tax, two shillings.

Lot 13. A similar dwelling-house, No. 7, and garden, adjoining lot 12, in the occupation of Mr. Dallinger. In the garden, at the rear of this house, is a newly erected two stalled stable and gig-house; apportioned annual land tax, two shillings.

Lot 14. A similar dwelling-house, No. 6, and garden, adjoining lot 13, in the occupation of Mr. Leman. In the garden, at the rear of this house, is a brick and slate stable and gig-house; apportioned annual land tax, two shillings.

The owners and occupiers of all the said several lots have a right, in common with the owners and occupiers of the remainder of the houses in the said row, to use the garden and ornamental pleasure grounds in front of the said row of houses, and the roads leading thereto, and also the right to use the pump at the back of the said houses, on paying a proportionate part of the expence of keeping such roads and pump in repair, and the said garden and pleasure grounds in a proper state and condition.

The last three lots are held under a lease granted by the late Lord Bishop of Norwich, in 1825, for the lives of William Wilde, then aged eleven years, or thereabouts; Henry Miller, then aged eight years, or thereabouts; and Robert Brewer, then aged eleven years, or thereabouts.

Lot 15. A mortgage security, for the sum of £275, with interest, at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum, upon certain messuages or tenements and hereditaments, situate in Saint George's Middle-street, in the parishes of Saint George of Colegate and Saint Mary, in Norwich, or one of them, in the several occupations of James Moore, ——— Breeze, ——— Foulsham, ——— Dady, and ——— Swatman, subject to prior incumbrances affecting the said hereditaments, now amounting to £4, with a small arrear of interest.

Further particulars may be obtained on application to Mr. Pulley, Solicitor, Surrey-street; and Messrs. Bignold and Mawe, Solicitors, at their offices in Norwich, and New Basinghall-street, London; Messrs. Chapman and Hansell, Solicitors, the Close, Norwich; and also to the Auctioneers, at their respective offices, where plans of the lots may be seen.
