AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King

William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods should be imported into, nor should any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America, by sea from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it was thereby provided, that, if His Majesty should deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that, from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, should extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports, respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said

Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that from and after the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports, respectively, therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad; and that, from and after the said fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of February 1841.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the Metropolitan Police District, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and; from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that a police magistrate or magistrates should attend regularly at any police court or courts thereafter to be established, either daily or on such days and times as Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, should order.

Her Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Fulham and Kensington (including so much of Brompton as has not been assigned by any Order in Council to the police court called "Queen-Square Police Court," and such part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, as adjoins the hamlet of Hammersmith, and also that portion of the parish of Chelsea, commonly called Kensal-green, situate to the north of the said parish of Kensington), the hamlet of Hammersmith, and the parishes of Acton and Chiswick, in the county of Middlesex, shall henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division to be holden at Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, until the erection of a police court-house at Hammersmith, in the same county; and that immediately upon the completion of such court-house, at Hammersmith, the said police court shall thenceforth be holden therein, at Hammersmith aforesaid.

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the parishes of Wandsworth, Putney, Battersea, Tooting, Merton, Wimbledon, Roehampton, Barnes, and Clapham, together with so much of the parish of Streatham as comprises Upper Tooting and Balham-hill, in the county of Surrey, shall from henceforth be constituted a police court division; and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates, who shall hereafter be appointed for the said divisions, shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the said Kensington Police Court, until the erection of a police court-house as aforesaid, and after the completion thereof at the said Hammersmith Police Court, from ten of the clock in the morning until one of the clock in the afternoon; and that one of the said magistrates shall attend at the said Wandsworth Police Court from two of the clock in the afternoon until five of the clock in the afternoon, and longer, if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of Her said Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and from the eighteenth day of February instant.

And the Most Noble the Marquess of Normanby, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Dated the 10th day of February 1841.

William Richardson and Henry Newton, York, Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway, with all suitable and proper stations, wharfs, warehouses, landing-places, bridges, culverts, communications, approaches, conveniences, and other works connected therewith, commencing at or near the Foundry-bridge-road, in the hamlet of Thorpe, in the county of the city of Norwich, near the Foundry-bridge, and terminating (after crossing Breydon-water or part thereof) near the confluence of the rivers Yare and Bure, in the hamlet of South Town, otherwise Little Yarmouth, and the parish of Gorleston, both in the county of Suffolk, or in the parish of Runham, and the borough of Great Yarmouth, or the liberties thereof, in the county of Norfolk, or some or one of them; which said intended railway and works will be situated in, or pass, or be made from or through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, and extra-parochial, or other places next hereinafter-mentioned, or some of them, that is to say, Thorpe otherwise Thorpe hamlet, aforesaid, Saint Peter-per-Mountergate, in the city of Norwich and county of the same city, the liberties of the city and county of the said city of Norwich, Thorpe Saint Andrew, otherwise Thorpe next Norwich, Trowse Newton, Postwick, Great Plumstead, Witton, Brundall, Bradeston, Strumpshaw, Buckenham, Hassenham, Cantly, Southwood, Limpenhoe, Reedham, Wickhampton, Moulton, Beighton, Halvergate, Freethorpe, Acle, Runham, and Breydon, in the county of Norfolk; Southdown otherwise Little Yarmouth, and Gorleston, in the county of Suffolk, and the borough of Great Yarmouth, in the said county of Norfolk, and the liberties of the said borough.

And it is proposed by the said intended Bill to take power to, alter the channel of the river Yare, otherwise the channel of the river Wensum, and Yare, and to make a new channel for the said river in the said parish of Trowse Newton; at or near the places where the said railway is intended to cross the same river, and to the extent which will be shewn on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter-mentioned; and to alter, vary, and divert such highways, roads, paths, passages, rivers, brooks, streams, sewers, waters, and watercourses within the aforesaid city and borough, and the respective liberties thereof, and the said hamlets, parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places aforesaid, or some of them, as it may be necessary to divert, for the purpose of constructing the said intended railway, and the works connected therewith.

And it is also intended by the Bill, so to be applied for, to take power to make a road or communication between the terminus of the said railway and the borough of Great Yarmouth, as the same will be shewn on the said plans; and for such purposes to make a bridge over the said rivers Bure and Yare, or one of them, at or near the confluence of the said rivers; which said communication and bridge respectively will be situate in the said hamlet of South Town, otherwise Little Yarmouth, in the parish of Gorleston, both in the county of Suffolk, or in the parish of Runham, and borough of Great Yarmouth, or the liberties thereof, in the county of Norfolk, or some or one of them.

And it is also intended by the said Bill, to apply for power to deviate in the construction of the said railway, and other works, from the line or situation thereof, as the same will be defined on the plans to be deposited as aforesaid, to such extent as will be shewn in the said plans.

And it is proposed by the said Bill to incorporate a company, for the purpose of making and maintaining the said intended railway, and works, with powers to levy and raise tolls, rates, and duties, for or in respect of the use thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line or situation of the said intended railway and works, and the lands in or through which the same is or are intended to be made, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will, on or before the first day of March 1841, be, or will have been, deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, at his office at Aylsham; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, at his office in Bury Saint Edmunds; with the Clerk of the Peace for the city and county of the city of Norwich, at his office, in Norwich; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Great Yarmouth, at his office in Great Yarmouth; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes respectively, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April 1841, with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively.

Dated this seventeenth day of February 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending, extending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of King William the fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway to form a communication between London and Cambridge, with a view to its being extended hereafter to the Northern and Eastern Counties of England;" and also of two Acts, severally passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, the one intituled "An Act to amend and extend the powers of the Northern and Eastern Railway Act," and the other intituled "An Act to enable the Northern and Eastern Railway Company to alter the line of their railway, by forming a junction with the Eastern Counties Railway, and to provide a station and other works at Shoreditch, and to amend the Act relating to the Northern and Eastern Railway;" also of an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Northern and Eastern Railway Company to abandon a portion of the line originally authorized to be made, and to alter and amend several of the powers and provisions of the Acts relating to the said railway;" and also of any other Act or Acts which may be passed in the present session of Parliament relating to the said railway.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to make and maintain a railway.

with all necessary and proper stations, conveniences and works, such railway to commence by a junction with the said Northern and Eastern Railway, at or near the proposed station on the said last-mentioned railway at Hockerill, in the parish of Bishops Stortford, in the county of Hertford, and to terminate at or near a certain street or lane called Downing-terrace or Crab-lane, in the parishes of St. Mary the Less, and Saint Andrew the Less, or one of them, in the county of Cambridge; which said railway and works will be made in, or pass from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or extra parochial places of Hockerill and Bishops Stortford, in the said county of Hertford; Birchanger, Stansted Mountfitchett, Elsenham, Henham, Pledgon otherwise Plegdon, Ugley, Quendon, Widdington, Newport, Wenden or Wenden Lofts, Littlebury, Wimbish, Debden, Littlebury Green, Catmere End, Burdeaux, Stretthall, Elindon, Saffron Walden, Little Chesterford, Springwell, Great Chesterford, Hadstock, or some of them, in the county of Essex; Ickleton, Hinxton, Duxford, Whittlesford, Pampisford, Sawston, Stapleford, Great Shelford, Little Shelford, Trumpington, Cherry Hinton, Teversham, Granchester, Saint Andrew the Less, Saint Mary the Less, Saint Benedict, Saint Andrew the Great, or some of them, in the county of Cambridge; and in the said Bill powers will be inserted to divert or alter all such turnpike-roads, parish roads, and other highways, canals, navigations, and railways within the parishes, townships, hamlets, or extra parochial places aforesaid, as may be required to be diverted or altered for the purposes of such railway.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Hertford, at his office at Saint Albans, in the said county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford, in the said county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cambridge, at his office at Cambridge, in the said county; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said works, or any part of them, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the said proposed railway and works.

Dated this sixteenth day of February 1841.

Crowder and Maynard, Solicitors, Mansion House-place.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing near an inn, called the King's Arms, and kept by Mr. Brimacombe, in the town of Falmouth, in the county of Cornwall, and terminating on the line of the Bristol and Exeter Railway, near Cowley-bridge, in the parish of Upton Pyne, in the county of Devon; which said proposed railway is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial or other places following, or some of them, that is to say, Falmouth town, Falmouth parish, Budock, Penryn (borough), Gluvias, Mabe, Perranarwoth Stithians, Gwennap, Saint Dye otherwise Saint Day, Kea, Kenwyn, Saint Clement, Saint Erme, Merther otherwise Merthyr, Probus, Ladoek, Saint Stephens, Saint Mewan, Saint Austell, Luxulian, Roche, Lanivet, Bodmin (borough), Bodmin (parish), Helland, Blisland, Saint Breward otherwise Simonward, Saint Clether otherwise Saint Cleather, Lanhydrock, Cardinham, Lancastr, Temple, Alturnun, Trewen, Lewannick, South Petherwin, Newport, Saint Thomas Launceston, Saint Mary Magdalene, Saint Stephen or Saint Stephens and Lawhitton, all in the county of Cornwall; and Lifton, Kelly, Marystowe or Maristow, Corvton, Milton Abbot, Lew Trenchards Lamerton, Tavistock, Whitchurch, Buckland Monachorum, Walkhampton, Meavy, Shaugh Prior, Bickley or Bickleigh, Tamerton Foliot, Saint Budeaux, Egg Buckland, Stoke Damerel, East Stonehouse, Plymouth, Saint Andrews, Saint Charles the Martyr, Brenttor, Lidford, Bridestowe, Sourton, Oakehampton, Mary Tavy, Peter Tavy, Belstone, South Tawton, Spreyton, Drewsteignton, Bow or Nymet Tracey, Clannaborough, Shobrook, Hittesleigh, Colbrook otherwise Colebroke, Crediton, Newton Saint Cyres, Upton Pyne, and Saint David's, all in the county of Devon.

And it is intended by the said Act so to be applied for, to take a power of deviating in the construction of the said intended railway on either side of the line thereof, as the same will be laid down on the plans of such intended railway.

And it is intended to apply for power by the said Act, to levy tolls, rates, and duties on, and for the use of, the said railway and works.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans, and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway and works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office in the town of Saint Austell, in the same county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Devon, at his office in the city of Exeter; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans, and sections, as relates to each of the said several parishes in or through which the said railway and works are intended to be made or maintained, together with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerk of each of such several parishes, at their respective places of abode. — Dated this tenth day of February 1841.
