FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1841.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 11, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 24th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled

" An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of " Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to carry " into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth " report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical " Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme:

" Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Lichfield have duly prepared and submitted to us a plan, for the disposal of the residence-house attached to the sixth canonry in the cathedral church of Lichfield, in the precincts of the said church, which plan has been duly approved by the Visitor of the said church, and is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to carry into " effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report " of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and " Revenues," it was enacted, " that, so soon as conveniently might be, measures should be taken by the deans and chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches for the disposal of such residence-houses then under their control, and houses attached to any dignity, office, or prebend, in the precincts of the respective cathedral and collegiate churches as might no longer be required, in such way as they should deem fit, according to plans to be, from time to time, prepared by their respective chapters, and, when approved by the Visitors, submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and confirmed by the authority therein-after provided;" and whereas the house attached to the sixth canonry of the cathedral of Lichfield, in the precincts of the said church, is no longer required, the said canonry being vacant and suspended, under the provisions of the said Act :

" And whereas the house attached to the fifth canonry of the said cathedral church was, several years ago, deprived of the coach-house belonging thereto, and the site thereof conveyed to trustees for building residences for the widows and orphans of clergymen ; and whereas there is no possibility of providing a coach-house on the premises belonging to the said canonry :

" And whereas formerly the registrar and chapter-clerk of the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Lichfield had and enjoyed a house, in the immediate precincts of the cathedral, in right of his said offices, abutting on the north transept thereof ; and whereas, in the year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, it was deemed advisable, for the improvement of the close of the said cathedral, as well as for the safety of the said church, to take down the said house, and the same was accordingly taken down but no other residence has ever been provided in lieu thereof, and no pecuniary compensation allowed him, save the sum of eight pounds per annum ; and whereas it is highly desirable that the registrar and chapter-clerk of the said church should be constantly resident within the precincts of the same, and there is no other house within the said precincts which can conveniently be appropriated to the residence of such officer, save the house attached to the vacant canonry above mentioned :

" We, the Dean and Chapter of the said church, have, in pursuance of the said Act, proceeded to take measures for the disposal of the vacant residentiary-house aforesaid, and have agreed to appropriate, in the first instance, a part of the stable-yard belonging thereto, containing thirty-six feet in depth, and about twenty feet in width, to the house attached to the fifth canonry of the said cathedral, and to be used solely for a coach-house by the incumbent of the said canonry ; and, in the next place, to appropriate the house and remainder of the premises, from henceforth, as a residence for the officer who, for the time being, shall hold the offices of registrar and chapter-clerk ; and we humbly submit such appropriation as the most convenient plan for the disposal of the said house to the Lord Bishop of Lichfield, Visitor of the said church, for the approval of his Lordship, and to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in order that the same may be confirmed, according to the provisions of the Act above mentioned ; in witness whereof we have caused our capitular seal to be hereunto affixed this fifteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one."

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council, that the said plan should be confirmed and ratified."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme:

"Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester have duly prepared and submitted to us a plan, for the disposal of a residence-house attached to a suspended canonry in the cathedral church of Worcester, in the precincts of the said church, which plan has been duly approved by the Visitor of the said church, and is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," it was enacted, "that, so soon as conveniently might be, measures should be taken by the deans and chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches for the disposal of such residence-houses then under their controul, and houses attached to any dignity, office, or prebend, in the precincts of the respective cathedral and collegiate churches as might no longer be required, in such way as they should deem fit, according to plans to be, from time to time, prepared by the respective chapters, and, when approved by the Visitors, submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and confirmed by the authority therein-after provided;" and whereas there is a house, formally attached to one of the prebendal stalls, situate within the precincts of the cathedral church of Worcester, and abutting against the same, which it is very desirable to remove, the said house being a very unsightly object, and dangerous, in case of fire, to the safety of the cathedral; we, therefore, the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church, are desirous that the said house may be taken down, and having obtained the approval of the Lord Bishop of Worcester, as Visitor of the said cathedral church, we humbly submit the said plan to you, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners of England, in order that the same may be confirmed according to the provisions of the Act above mentioned; in witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-third day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one."

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council, that the said plan should be confirmed and ratified."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

Buckingham-Palace, March 11, 1841.

This day had audience of Her Majesty, Count Bjornstjerna, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden and Norway, to deliver a letter from his Sovereign; and Andrew Stevenson, Esq. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the President of the United States of America, to deliver letters from the President:

To which audiences they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Ent. Master of the Ceremonies.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, March 11, 1841.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled at the Palace, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses the Prince Albert of Saxe Coburg and Gotha, the Duke of Sussex, and the Duke of Cambridge, his Grace the Duke of Wellington, the Marquess of Anglesey, the Marquess of Hertford, his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, the Marquess of Lansdowne, and his Grace the Duke of Somerset, attended by the under-mentioned Officers, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Registrar of the Order; Sir William Woods, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms; and Sir Augustus-William-James Clifford, Bart. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At half past two o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign, in the Throne-room.

The Sovereign, being seated in the Chair of State, the Knights Companions, by Her Majesty's command, took their respective seats at the table; and the Officers stood in their accustomed places.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the two vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of St. George at Windsor be filled; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, his Grace George-Granville Duke of Sutherland was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by Her Majesty with the sword of state, and his Grace, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired. After which Robert Marquess of Westminster was, in like manner, introduced and knighted, with the same ceremonies.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor were by him presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble George-Granville Duke of Sutherland had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Grace was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Marquess of Lansdowne and the Duke of Somerset, the two junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order on a crimson velvet cushion) and by Black Rod. The Duke of Sutherland kneeling near the Sovereign, and Garter on his knee presenting the garter, Her Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Prince Albert of Saxe Coburg and Gotha and the Duke of Sussex, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Grace's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and Her Majesty, with the assistance of the said two senior Knights Companions, placed the same over his Grace's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition. The Duke of Sutherland, having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, and presented to the Sovereign, the Most Honourable Robert Marquess of Westminster was, by the Sovereign's command, declared duly elected; whereupon his Lordship was introduced and invested with the garter and the ribband and George, in the same manner as the Duke of Sutherland had been, and the like formalities having been observed, the Marquess of Westminster withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, Garter again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

Whitehall, March 11, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Richard John James Lacy, Esq. Colonel in the Royal Regiment of Artillery, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Commander of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholic; the cross, of the first class, of the National Military Order of San Fernando; and the star and cross of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles the Third, which Her Catholic Majesty Maria-Christina, late Queen Regent of Spain, was pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of Her Catholic Majesty's approbation of his conduct in the action and taking of the castle and forts of Tales, in August 1839; at the siege and capture of the fort of Aliaga, in April 1840; and for his services while acting as British Commissioner at the head quarters of the Spanish army; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
