Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1841.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 11, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 24th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

BY COMMAND OF HER MAJESTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by certain Acts, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, powers are reserved to Her Majesty to reduce the rates and tolls on foreign ships of countries with which Great Britain has treaties of reciprocity, and on goods imported or exported therein, in manner in the said Acts mentioned;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the above-mentioned Acts, declare, that the ships of all such foreign powers as have treaties of reciprocity with this country, and the cargoes imported or exported therein, shall be admitted, under the said Acts of Parliament, on paying the like rates of duties and tolls as those charged on British vessels and their cargoes:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, March 12, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Mr. Henry O'Shea, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the cross and star of the Royal and Distinguished Order of Charles the Third, which Her Catholic Majesty the Queen of Spain has conferred upon him, in approbation of his conduct while in Her Majesty's actual service; provided, nevertheless, that the said royal licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Dean Forest Mining Commissioners have made their award as to the Coal Mines, and have signed the same, together with the plans and descriptions connected therewith, in triplicate; and that they have lodged one part thereof in the Office of Land Revenue, Records, and Enrolments; another part with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester; and a third part with the Deputy Gaveler of the said Forest, at his Office, at Coleford.

Thomas Graham, 3, Mitre-court-chambers,
Temple, Clerk to the Commissioners.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a Railway, with all suitable and proper stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto or connected therewith, commencing at or near New Tavern Fort, in the parish of Milton, next Gravesend, in the county of Kent, and terminating at or near the banks of the river Medway, in the parish of Frindsbury, in the said county of Kent; and which said railway will pass, or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say, Milton next Gravesend, Gravesend, Denton, Chalk, Higham, Shore, Cliff or Cliff Church, Cowling, Hoo, Strood or Strood, and Frindsbury.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, describing the line or situation of the said work, and the lands in or through which the same is to be made, with duplicate sections thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owner or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, or occupiers of such lands, will, on or before the first day of March 1841, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office at Maidstone, in the said county; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, or such of them as may be traversed by the line of the said intended railway, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April 1841, with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill to levy tolls, rates, or duties, upon or in respect of passengers and goods, and also upon or in respect of carriages passing along, through, or over the said railway; and in the said Bill powers will also be inserted to alter, vary, and divert certain highways, roads, paths, passages, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, sewers, waters, and watercourses within the said several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places aforesaid, or some of them.

Dated February 16, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a Railway, with proper works, stations, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, to commence at and unite with the line of the North Midland Railway, near the point where the same crosses the road or highway from Kilnhurst to Swinton; and also at or near the Swinton station, both in the township of Swinton and parish of Wath-upon-Dearne, or at or near one of such points or places, and thence to proceed from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places of Warth-upon-Dearne, Swinton, Kilnhurst, Mexbrough, Denaby, Conisbrough, Sprotborough, Cadeby, Warnsworth, Balby-cum-Hexthorpe, and Doncaster, or some of them, to and to terminate at or near, the north-westerly end of a certain street or place called Factory-lane, in the town of Doncaster, in the township and parish of Doncaster, all in the west riding of the county of York; together with an approach thereto from another street, called French-gate, in the said town, township, and parish of Doncaster. By which Act it is intended to take powers to divert or alter such highways, roads, tramways, paths, rivers, canals, brooks, drains, waters, and watercourses, as may be required to be diverted or altered in the construction of the said railway, and other works and conveniences therewith connected; and also to incorporate a company for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid, with power to levy tolls, rates, and duties, for and in respect of all persons, animals, carriages, goods, articles, matters, and things carried or conveyed upon or along or using said intended railway, works, and conveniences.

And notice is hereby also given, that, on or before the first day of March in this present year, duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said west riding of the county of York, at his office, in Wakefield; and that, on or before the first day of April, in this present year, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the several parishes in or through which the said railway is intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk; and it is intended to take power by the said Act to deviate in the construction of the said railway to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the line thereof, as the same will be laid down upon the said plans, except where the intention to deviate therefrom to a more limited extent shall be expressed thereupon.

Dated the fifteenth day of February 1841.

Mason and Collinson, Doncaster,
Henry Yuckers, Sheffield, } Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making and maintaining a railway, with all suitable and proper stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the two intended southern lines of the London and Greenwich Railway, between Neckinger-road and Russell-street, in the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, and terminating at or near the Westminster Bridge-road, between the York-road and Lambeth-marsh, in the parish of Saint Mary Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey; and which said railway, with the warehouses, wharfs, landing-places, tunnels, archways, bridges, stations, erections, works, communications, approaches, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, will pass, or be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, and other places, next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them, that is to say, Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, and Saint John Horselydown, Saint George the Martyr, Saint Olave, Saint Thomas, and Saint Saviours, (including the liberty of the Clink), in the borough of Southwark, Saint Mary Newington, Christ Church, and Saint Mary Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans describing the line or situation of the said work, and the lands in or through which the same is to be made, with duplicate sections thereof, together with books of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will, on or before the first day of March 1841, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at his office, in North-street, in the parish of Lambeth, in the said county; and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, or such of them as may be traversed by the line of the said intended railway, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April 1841, with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill, to levy tolls, rates, or duties upon or in respect of passengers and goods; and also upon or in respect of carriages passing along, through, or over the same railway.

And in the said Bill, powers will also be inserted to alter, vary, and divert certain highways, roads, paths, passages, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, sewers, waters, and watercourses within the said several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them.

Dated the tenth day of February 1841.

Sweet, Sutton, Ewens, and Onmanney, Solicitors, £, Basinghall-street, London,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act to amend, enlarge, and extend some of the powers and provisions of two several Acts, relating to the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, one thereof, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from Cheltenham, and from Gloucester, to join the Great Western Railway, near Swindon, to be called the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, with a branch to Cirencester," and the other, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter the line of the Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto."

And it is intended by the Act, so to be applied for, to revive or renew the powers given by the said recited Acts, with regard to the compulsory purchase and taking of the lands which will be described and numbered on the plans, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, situate within the several parishes, townships, and tithings of Cheltenham, Allstone, Arle, Stonehouse, Stroud, Paganhill, Sapperton, and Coates otherwise Cotes, all in the county of Gloucester; and which lands were authorised, by the said recited Acts, to be purchased and taken for the purposes of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, or otherwise to take new and extended powers for purchasing and taking the said lands, and for making the said railway through the same; and to repeal the limitations contained in the second of the said recited Acts, so far as relates to the said lands, with regard to the power of deviating the line of the said railway through the same, after the period stated in the said Act.

And it is further proposed, by the said intended Act, to extend the period limited by the second of the said recited Acts, for the completion of the said Cheltenham and Great Western Union Railway, and also to increase the capital authorised to be raised by the first of the said Acts, for the purposes of the said undertaking.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans, describing the said lands, for the compulsory purchase and taking of which, the powers of the said recited Acts are proposed to be revived or renewed, or new and extended powers to be taken as aforesaid, and shewing also the line of the said railway as proposed to be made through the same, together with sections shewing the intended levels of the said railway through such lands, and books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be, or will have been, deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Gloucester, at his office in Gloucester; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each parish in which the lands hereinbefore referred to are situate, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the first day of April next.

Dated this seventeenth day of February 1841.

No. 19962.

B

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the North Union Railway, at or near a point on the northerly side of, and distant about six hundred and forty yards from, a certain bridge erected on the turnpike-road leading from Chorley to Preston, over the said North Union Railway, in the township and parish of Penwortham in the county palatine of Lancaster, and terminating by a junction with the Manchester and Leeds Railway, at or near a certain place where the said Manchester and Leeds Railway crosses the road leading to Stansfield Hall, in the township of Stansfield, in the parish of Halifax, in the west riding of the county of York; and which said railway is intended to pass from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places of Penwortham, Blackburn, Leyland, Brindle, Whalley, Rochdale, Penwortham, Walton le Dale, Brindle, Hoghton, Pleasington, Livesey, Blackburn, Little Harwood, Rishton, Clayton le Moors, Altham, Huncoat, Hapton, Habergam Eaves, Cliviger, and Todmorden and Walsden, or some of them, all in the said county of Lancaster; and Stansfield and Halifax, or one of them, in the west riding of the county of York; and it is intended by the said Act to incorporate a company for executing the said railway and works, with power to levy and raise tolls, rates, and duties for and in respect of the use thereof; and also with power to deviate in the construction of the said railway, from the line thereof as laid down on the plans, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to the extent which will be defined on such plans.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers to divert or alter the line or course of the turnpike-road leading from Todmorden to Bumley, in the several parishes of Halifax and Whalley aforesaid, to the extent shewn, or intended to be shewn, in the plans deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to abandon and shut up so much of the said turnpike-road as will be rendered unnecessary by reason of such diversion.

And notice is hereby given, that plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended railway, and the lands which may be required to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be, or will have been, deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the said county of York, at his office in Wakefield, on or before the first day of March next; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections and books of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the proposed railway is intended to be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, on or before the first day of April next.

Dated the fifteenth day of February 1841.

And it is also intended by the said Act, so to be applied for as aforesaid, to take a power of deviating in the construction of the said intended railway, on either side of the line thereof, as the same will be laid down on the plans of such intended railway, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to an extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of such line, where the same is intended to pass through lands covered with houses, and to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of such line, on all other parts thereof, save and except where the property so situated within the respective distances of ten yards and one hundred yards, or either of them, shall not be delineated upon the said plans, or if delineated upon the said plans, shall not be contained and described in the books of reference thereto, or where it shall be denoted upon the said plans, that the power of deviation in respect thereof is not intended to be applied for.

And in the said Bill powers will be inserted to divert or alter all such turnpike-roads, parish roads, occupation roads, and other highways, rivers, canals, navigations, sewers, drains, and water-courses, within the said several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial, and other places as may be required to be diverted or altered, for the purposes of such railway or railways; and more especially to alter, divert, and turn so much of the turnpike-road leading from Acle aforesaid to Great Yarmouth aforesaid, as lies between the toll-bar, in the parish of Ranham aforesaid, and the said suspension bridge over the said river Bure, in the same parish; and also so much of a certain other road as lies between or near Henham Broom Farm, and Old Mead Farm, in the said parish or parishes of Henham-on-the-Hill, and Great Henham and Little Henham, or some or one of them, to the extent respectively delineated on the plans so deposited, or to be deposited, as hereinafter mentioned.

And it is proposed, by the said Act so to be applied for, to incorporate a company for the purpose of making and maintaining the said intended railway or railways, to be thereby authorised, and the works to be connected therewith, and to empower the said company so to be incorporated, to levy and raise tolls, rates, and duties for, and in respect of, all persons, animals, carriages, goods, articles, matters, and things, carried and conveyed upon and along, or using the said intended railway or railways and works respectively.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway or railways and works, and the lands proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Hertford, at his office at Saint Albans, in the same county; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford, in the same county; with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough or town of Saffron Waldron, in the said county of Essex, at his office in the same borough or town; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cambridge, at his office at Cambridge, in the said county of Cambridge; with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Cambridge, at his office in the same borough; with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, at his office at Bury Saint Edmunds, in the same county; with the Clerk of the Peace for the said borough of Thetford, in the several counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, at his office in the same borough; with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Norfolk, at his office at Aylsham, in the same county; with the Clerk of the Peace for the said city of Norwich and county of the same city, at his office in the said city; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said borough of Great Yarmouth, in the said county of Norfolk, at his office at Great Yarmouth aforesaid; and that, on or before the first day of April in this present year, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections respectively, as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said railway or railways and works respectively is, and are intended to be made, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the place of abode of such parish clerk.—Dated the fifteenth day of February 1841.

Stockton and Hartlepool Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for incorporating certain persons for making and maintaining a railway, with all proper works, bridges, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith; such railway to commence from and out of the Clarence Railway, at or near the three and a quarter mile post placed by the side of the said Clarence Railway, in the township and parish of Billingham, in the county of Durham, and to terminate either at or by a junction with the Tide Harbour at or near the south west corner thereof, or at or by a junction with the Hartlepool Railway, within a quarter of a mile of the staiths for drops, or on the east side of the said Tide Harbour, or at or by a junction with the dock on the east side of the said Tide Harbour, and on the north or north west side of the said dock, all belonging to the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company, or in land belonging to the Stockton and Hartlepool Railway Company, at or near to the wall dividing the same land from the property called the Middleton-house Estate, reputed to belong to the said Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company, in the parishes of Stranton and Hart, in the said county, or one of them; and which railway is intended to be made in, and to pass from, through, or into the several townships, hamlets, or places of Billingham, Wolviston, Coopen Bewley, Newton Bewley, Greatham Hospital (which is extra-parochial), Greatham, Seaton Carew, Stranton, Hart, Throston, and Hartlepool, in the said county, or some of them; and in, from, through, or into the parishes of Billingham, Greatham, Stranton, and Hart, in the said county, or some of them; and that it is intended to take powers to alter and divert streams, brooks, rivulets or rivers, roads and highways, in the line of the said intended railway and works, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties upon or in respect of the said intended railway and works.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said railway, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, at his office in the city of Durham, on or before the first day of March next; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.—Dated this seventeenth day of February 1841.

Ralph Ward Jackson, Stockton on Tees,
Bell and Steward, No. 59, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to make and maintain a railway, with proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, for the passage of coaches, waggons, and other vehicles, properly constructed, to commence from and out of the London and Birmingham Railway, at or near to a certain place in the parish of Saint Michael and Saint John the Baptist, in the city or county of the city of Coventry, or one of such parishes, adjoining or near to where the said London and Birmingham Railway intersects the turnpike road from the city of Coventry aforesaid to the borough of Warwick, in the county of Warwick, and to terminate at or near a certain street or place called Portland-place, in the parish of Leamington-priors, in the said county of Warwick, or as near thereto as conveniently may be; and which said intended railway will be made to pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, lordships, liberties, hamlets, extra parochial and other places following, that is to say, Saint Michael, Saint John Baptist, Stivichall, Stoneleigh, Kenilworth, Leek Wootton, Hill Wootton, Milverton, Edmonscoote, otherwise Emscote, Newbold Comyn, and Leamington-priors, in the counties of the city of Coventry and Warwick, one or both of them.

And in which said Bill it is also intended to take powers to make and maintain a branch railway, with proper works, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith, for the passage of coaches, waggons, and other vehicles properly constructed, from and out of the said railway to be made under and by virtue of the said Bill, at or near to a certain close, the property of the Right Honourable the Earl of Warwick, in the occupation of Thomas Avey, in the parish of Milverton, in the county of Warwick, and to terminate at or near to a certain street called Cotton-end otherwise Saint John's-street, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, in the borough of Warwick, in the said county of Warwick, or as near thereto as conveniently may be; and which said intended branch railway will be made to pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, hamlets, extra parochial, and other places following, that is to say, Edmonscoote otherwise Emscote, Milverton, Newbold Comyn, Leamington-priors, Myton, and Saint Nicholas, in the said borough of Warwick, or some or one of them, all in the said county of Warwick.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply by the said Bill for power to deviate from the line of the said railway and branch railway, as the same are intended to be laid down upon the plans to be hereafter deposited with the Clerks of the Peace for the county of Warwick, and county of the city of Coventry, with the lands of the several proprietors numbered on the said plans, or described in the said book of reference, to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards on either side of the said intended railway and branch railway, except where it is intended that the same shall pass through any market town, and in that case to deviate to any extent not exceeding ten yards on either side of the said intended railway and branch railway; and also for power to levy rates, tolls, or duties for, or in respect of, all persons, goods, articles, matters or things passing or conveyed upon, or along, or using the said intended railway and branch railway, or either of them, or any of the works, approaches, or conveniences connected therewith.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said intended railway and branch railway, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of lands through which the same are intended to be made, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of March next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Warwick, at his office at Stratford-upon-Avon, in the same county; and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of the city of Coventry, at his office in Little Park-street, in the city of Coventry aforesaid; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference as relates to each of the several parishes of Saint Nicholas, Leamington-priors, Milverton, Leek Wootton, Kenilworth, Stoneleigh, Stivichall, Saint Michael and Saint John Baptist, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish, at the respective residences of such parish clerks.

Dated this eighteenth day of February, 1841.

Llanelly Railway and Dock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, amending, extending, and enlarging the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway, or tramroad from Gelly Gille Farm, in the parish of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, to Machynis Pool, in the same parish and county, and for making and maintaining a wet dock at the termination of the said railway or tramroad, at Machynis Pool aforesaid; and also of another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of King William the Fourth, (being an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of the said first mentioned Act,) and also of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to authorise the Llanelly Railway and Dock Company to make certain additional railways or tramroads, and for other purposes connected therewith."

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power, in the said Bill, to make certain deviations from the line of the said railway, as at present authorised to be made, that is to say, one of such deviations to commence at or near a certain field called Gwain-cloddie-yr-dwr, part of a farm called Myddynfich, in the parish of Llandibie, in the county of Carmarthen, numbered sixty-eight on the original Parliamentary plan of the said railway, and to terminate at or near a certain field called Gwain-croft-tyechoch, part of a farm called Pystill, in the said parish of Llandibie, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered one hundred and fifty-four on the said plan, and to be made in, and pass from, through, or into the parish of Llandibie, in the county of Carmarthen, and one other deviation to commence at or near a certain field called Caerhenbont, part of a farm called Cilrychan, in the said parish of Llandibie, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered one hundred and sixty-six on the said plan, and to terminate at or near a certain field called Wauncwm, part of a farm called Meusyddherion, in the parish of Llanfihangel, Aberbythych, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered 5 on the said plan, and to be made in and pass from, through, or into the parishes, hamlets, townships, or extra-parochial places of Llandibie and Llanfihangel-Aberbythych, some or one of them, in the said county of Carmarthen; and one other deviation to commence at or near a certain field called Cae-derlwm, part of a farm called Meusyddherion, in the parish of Llandilo-vawr, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered twelve on the said original plan, and to terminate at or near a certain field called Ynisfach, part of a farm called Talardd, in the said parish of Llandilo-vaur, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered twenty-two on the said original plan, and to be made in, and pass from, through, or into the said parish of Llandilo-vawr, in the said county of Carmarthen; and one other deviation so commence at or near a certain field called Cae-cilfelin, part of the said farm called Talardd, in the said parish of Llandilo vawr, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered thirty-one on the said plan, and to terminate at or near a certain field called Caeponledis, part of a farm called Fair Lodge, in the said parish of Llandilo-vawr, in the said county of Carmarthen, numbered thirty-nine on the said original plan; and to be made in, and pass from, through, or into the said parish of Llandilo-vawr, in the said county of Carmarthen, and also to make and maintain certain railways or branch railways, from and out of the said railway at present authorised to be made, with all proper depots, stations, warehouses, works and conveniences connected therewith and approaches thereto, in manner following, that is to say, one of such branch railways to commence at, from, or near the present dock of the said company, at Llanely aforesaid, and to terminate at or near to the yard belonging to the Brace Colliery, in or near the town of Llanely aforesaid, and to be made in, and pass from, through, or into the parish borough, hamlet or township of Llanely aforesaid; another of such branch railways to commence at, from, or near the present dock of the said company, at Llanely aforesaid, and to terminate at or near to a certain dock, called or known by the name of Pemberton's Dock, at or near to a certain place called the Flats, in the parish of Llanely aforesaid, and to be made in, and pass from, through or into the parish, borough, hamlet or township of Llanely aforesaid; another of such branch railways, to commence at or near the commencement of the curve of the said last mentioned branch railway, and from thence to be continued and carried on to the railway or tramroad and dock, belonging to the Carmarthenshire Railway or Tramroad Company, at or near to a certain place called the Flats, in the parish of Llanely aforesaid, and there to terminate in or near to the same railway, or tramroad, and dock, and to be made in and pass from, through, or into the parish, borough, hamlet, or township of Llanely aforesaid; and one other of such branch railways to commence at or near the termination of the said last-mentioned branch, and from thence to be continued and carried on to, and to terminate at or near to, the Bury Port Company's Dock, in the harbour of Pembrey, in the said county of Carmarthen, and to be made in and pass from, through, or into the said parish, borough, hamlet, or township of Llanely aforesaid, and the parish of Pembrey.

And it is also intended to apply for powers in the said Bill, to enable the said Llanely Railway and Dock Company to purchase the rights, interests, and property of the Carmarthenshire Railway or Tramroad Company aforesaid, and also to purchase the rights, interests, and property of the Kidwelly and Llanely Canal and Tramroad Company, of and in such parts of the tramroad or railway as extend from the iron bridge at or near the town of Llanely aforesaid, to the Bury Port Company's Dock in the harbour of Pembrey aforesaid.

And it is also intended to apply for powers in the said Bill to purchase, for the use of the said Llanely Railway and Dock Company, the piece or parcel of land belonging or reserved to John Frederick Earl Cawdor, in and by the said Acts of Parliament relating to the said Llanely Railway and Dock Company, some or one of them.

And in the said Bill powers will be inserted to divert or alter all such turnpike-roads, parish-roads, and other highways, railways, or tramroads, canals, streams, and navigations, within the said parishes, townships, boroughs, hamlets, or extra parochial places, as may be required to be diverted or altered for the purposes of such intended deviations or branch railways, or any or either of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed works respectively, with a book of reference thereto respectively, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Carmarthen, at his office in the said county; and, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of some of the said plans and sections respectively, as relates to each parish in or through which the said works respectively, or any part of them respectively, are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto respectively, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill, to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, or any of them, on either side of the line laid down upon the said plans to be deposited as aforesaid, to an extent not exceeding ten yards in any town, and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards; but the said power of deviation is not intended to be applied for where the property is situate within the said distances of ten yards and one hundred yards respectively, or either of them, shall not be numbered on the said plans, some or one of them, or, if numbered on the said plans, shall not be contained and described in the said books of reference, or some or one of them, nor is it intended to exceed in any case the limits denoted on the said plans, where a limit to such deviation shall be expressly denoted thereupon, or to extend into the lands of any person, whose name shall not be mentioned in the said books of reference, or some or one of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Bill, to extend the time limited and prescribed for completing the said Llanelly Railway Dock and Works in and by the said several Acts relating thereto, and to alter and vary the tolls, rates, and duties payable upon or in respect of the present railway dock and works, and to levy tolls, rates, and duties on or in respect of the said proposed deviations, branch railways, and works respectively; and also to authorize the said Llanelly Railway and Dock Company to raise a further sum of money for the purpose of the said several existing Acts, and of the said intended Bill.

Dated the seventeenth day of February 1841.

Brecon, February 16th, 1841.

West London Railway Extension.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act, to make and maintain a railway, or branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and with roads and approaches thereto, such railway or branch railway commencing at the terminus of the West London Railway at or near the basin of the Kensington Canal, in the parish of Saint Mary Abbott, Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships and extra-parochial places of Saint Mary Abbott, Kensington, and Saint Margaret in the city and liberty of Westminster, and terminating at or near to Mountpelier place, Knightsbridge, in the said parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster.

And also to make and maintain a railway or branch railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, and with roads and approaches thereto, such railway or branch railway commencing at the said terminus of the said West London Railway, at or near the said basin of the Kensington Canal, in the said parish of Saint Mary Abbott, Kensington, in the said county of Middlesex, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial or other places of Saint Mary Abbot Kensington, and Saint Luke Chelsea, in the said county of Middlesex, and terminating at, on, or near unto the north bank of the river Thames, either on the eastern side of a certain lane or road called Hob-lane, which leads from the King's-road, in the said parish of Saint Luke, Chelsea, to the said north bank of the river Thames, or otherwise terminating at, on, or near unto the said north bank of the river Thames, on the western side of the said lane or road called "Hob-lane."

And notice is hereby also given, that maps or plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended railways or branch railways, and the works to be connected therewith, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March, in the present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Middlesex, at his office in the Sessions-house, Clerkenwell, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the city and liberty of Westminster, at his office in Carlisle-street, Soho; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans, sections and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes in or through which the said railways or branch railways and works will be made or pass, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerk of each of such parishes.

And notice is also hereby given, that power will be sought by the said Bill to deviate laterally in the construction of the proposed works in any town, or in lands covered with buildings, to an extent not exceeding ten yards from the centre of the lines laid down on the said plans respectively, and in all other parts to an extent not exceeding one hundred yards from the said centre of the lines; but such power of deviation is not intended to apply to any lands not shewn and numbered upon the said plans, and whereof the name of the owner shall not be contained in the said books of reference in respect of such lands, or to any lands as to which it shall be expressly denoted on the said plans that no deviation is intended to be made, or in every case in which a limit to such deviation is expressly denoted in the said plans as to any lands, no power of deviation beyond such limits is intended to be applied for.

And notice is hereby also given, that power will be sought by the said Bill to levy tolls rates or duties upon or in respect of the proposed new works, and to alter and divert, for the purposes of the same works, certain turnpike, parish, township and other roads, rivers, canals, streams and drains within the several parishes, townships and extra-parochial places herein before mentioned, or some of them.

And power will also be sought by the said Bill to incorporate a company for the several purposes aforesaid.—Dated this sixteenth day of February 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, for making and maintaining a railway between Leeds and Bradford, both in the west riding of the county of York, for the conveyance of passengers, goods, cattle, horses, coke, coals, stones, minerals, carts, waggons, and other carriages, and the passage of carriages properly constructed, to be drawn or propelled by locomotive engines, steam, or other power, with all necessary bridges, tunnels, landing places, stations, approaches, erections, works, and all other proper and suitable conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith; which railway is intended to commence at, and near to, certain closes, pieces, or parcels of land, hereditaments, and premises, the estates of the Reverend Ralph Henry Brandling, Clerk, or his trustees; Benjamin Gaskell, Esquire;

and the North Midland Railway Company, respectively, situated in the township of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds, in the west riding of the county of York, and contiguous, or near to, the west side of the said North Midland Railway, and near, or contiguous to, a road or highway, known by the name of Jack-lane, where the same approaches to, and is intersected by, the said North Midland Railway, in the said township of Hunslet, in the parish of Leeds aforesaid; and which said intended railway is also intended to terminate at or near to the east side of a certain highway or lane, called or known by the name of Horton-lane; and at or near to two certain closes, or parcels of land belonging to Anne Giles and the Reverend Godfrey Wright, Clerk, respectively; and partly in the occupation of Edward Ackroyd, and partly now unoccupied; situate in that part of the township of Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid, called or known by the name of Little Horton; and also at or near to certain other closes, pieces or parcels of land, hereditaments and premises now or late the estate of Abraham Bower and John Bower, or one of them, and of others, respectively situated in that part of the township of Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid, called or known by the name of Little Horton, and on the west side of, and adjoining upon, or contiguous to, that part of the road or highway leading from Bradford aforesaid to Halifax, in the said riding, called or known by the name of Bowling-lane otherwise the Manchester road, in the said township of Horton, in the parish of Bradford aforesaid, in the riding aforesaid; and which said intended railway, with the bridges, tunnels, landing places, stations, approaches, communications, erections, works, and all other proper and suitable communications and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, will pass or be made from, in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial and other places next hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say, the several parishes of Bradford, Calverley-with-Farsley, Calverley, Birstal, and Leeds; and the several townships, hamlets, extra-parochial and other places, of Bradford, Great Horton, Little Horton, Horton, Bowling, Tyersall, Pudsey, Fulneck, Tong, Farnley, Bramley, Wortley, Beeston, Holbeck, Hunslet, and Leeds, all in the west riding of the county of York.

And notice is hereby also given, that, on or before the first day of March next, a plan and duplicate thereof, describing the line and levels of the said intended railway, and a section and duplicate thereof, describing the levels of the same, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which the same is intended to be made will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the west riding of the county of York, at his office at Wakefield, in the said riding, and the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Leeds, at his office in Leeds, in the said riding; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference, as relates to each parish in, or through, which the said works or any part of them are intended to be made, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively, for the inspection of all persons concerned.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament, for power to deviate in the construction of the said proposed works, on either side of the line thereof, to an extent not exceeding ten yards, in any city or town, and to an extent in all other places not exceeding one hundred yards delineated, or intended to be delineated, in the said plans so to be deposited as aforesaid; and to levy duties, rates, and tolls on passengers, goods, cattle, horses, minerals, carts, waggons, and all carriages passing along, over, or through the same railway; and also for power to alter, divert, and vary rivers, brooks, canals, highways, passages, paths, roads, sewers, streams, tramroads, waters and watercourses within the said several parishes, townships, hamlets, extra-parochial and other places aforesaid, or some of them; and to incorporate a company to carry the said several purposes into execution.—Dated this sixteenth day of February 1841.

R. B. Mosse,

14, Abingdon-street, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from the South Eastern Railway to or near the city of Canterbury, and the towns of Ramsgate and Margate, in the county of Kent, or some or one of them, commencing by a junction with the line of the said South Eastern Railway, at or near a certain field in the parish of Ashford and said county of Kent, numbered 55 on the plan of the last-mentioned railway, deposited at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes townships, and extra-parochial or other places of Ashford, Willesborough, Kennington, Brooke, Hinxhill, Eastwell, Westwell, Boughton Aluph, Wye Billing, Upper Hardres, Petham, Lower Hardres, Crundale, Waltham, Godmersham, Chilham, Chartham, Horton Chapel, Stubbington, Milton Chapel, Harbledown otherwise St. Michael Harbledown, or some of them, in the county of Kent; Thanington, St. Mildred Holy Cross Westgate, St. Dunstan, St. Stephens otherwise Hackington, St. Mary Northgate, Sturry, Fordwich, or some of them, in the city and borough of Canterbury and county of the same city, and in the county of Kent, or one of them; Westbere, Hoath, Littlebourne Chislet, Wickhambreaux, Preston next Wingham, Stodmarsh, Stourmouth, Elmstone, Sarre, Monkton, Minster, Ash next Sandwich, Saint Lawrence, Saint George Ramsgate, Ramsgate, Saint Peter, Birchington, Saint Nicholas at Wade, Acol otherwise Wood, Stonar, and Saint John's Margate, or some of them, in the said county of Kent; and terminating at or near Canterbury aforesaid, at or near a certain field in the parish of Holy Cross, Westgate, near and without the walls of the city of Canterbury, belonging to the Archbishop of Canterbury, and in the occupation of Henry Hilton, and situate near the station of the Canterbury and Whitstable Railway; and at Ramsgate aforesaid, at or near a certain windmill in the parish of Saint Lawrence, on the west side of the turnpike-road leading from Ramsgate to Margate, and belonging to William Holmans, and in the occupation of William Holmans; and at Margate, at or near a certain field near to Vicarage-place, belonging to and occupied by Richard Foat, in the parish of Saint John's Margate, and on the west side of the Margate and Ramsgate turnpike-road; and also a branch from the said intended railway, in the said parish of Holy Cross Westgate, near and without the walls of the city of Canterbury, to communicate with the said Canterbury and Whitstable Railway, in the said parish of Saint Stephen's, otherwise Hackington, and passing into and through the before-mentioned parishes of Holy Cross Westgate, Saint Dunstan, and Saint Stephen's otherwise Hackington, or some or one of them.

And it is intended by the said Act so to be applied for, either to incorporate a company for executing the said proposed undertaking, or to authorize the South Eastern Railway Company so to do, and for that purpose to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions of the following several Acts relating to the said South Eastern Railway, viz. one thereof, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the London and Croydon Railway to Dover, to be called the South Eastern Railway;" another, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and extend the line of the South Eastern Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto;" another, passed in the second year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the South Eastern Railway;" another thereof, passed in the last mentioned year of Her said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and divert the line of the South Eastern Railway from a point thereon, in the parish of Chiddingstone, in the county of Kent, so as to join the London and Brighton Railway, at or near Redstone-hill, in the parish of Reigate, in the county of Surrey;" and another thereof, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and divert a portion of the line of the South Eastern Railway, in the county of Kent."

And it is further intended by the said Act so to be applied for, to obtain power to levy and raise tolls and duties for and in respect of the use of the said intended railway and the conveniences connected therewith, and also to deviate in the construction of the said railway, to the extent which will be defined on the plans thereof, to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned; and to divert, in manner shewn on the said plans, so far as may be necessary for constructing the said intended railway, the line of the river Stour, near Grove Ferry, in the said parishes of Wickhambreaux and Chislet, or one of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said proposed railway, and branch railway, respectively, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, and of the works connected therewith, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be, or will have been, deposited for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of the city of Canterbury, at his office in Canterbury, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his Office in Maidstone; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference, as relates to each of the parishes through which the said railway is proposed to be made, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerk of each such parish.

John P. Fearon, Inner-temple.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to incorporate a company, and to give to such company power to make and maintain a railway, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the Northern and Eastern Railway, in the parish of West Ham, in the county of Essex, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places of West Ham, East Ham, Low Layton, Becontree, and Plaistow, in the said county of Essex, and terminating in the said parish of West Ham, at or near the river Lea; and also to construct a basin or basins, wharfs, warehouses, and other works, at or near the said terminus at the river Lea, in the said parish of West Ham; and in the said Bill it is intended to apply for power to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said railway, basin, and other works.

And notice is hereby also given, that, on or before the first day of March next, duplicate plans and sections of such railway, basin, and other works, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Essex, at his office at Chelmsford; and, on or before the first day of April next, copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relate to the parishes aforesaid, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

Dated this eighteenth day of February 1841.
