MILLS OF ENNIS.

Capital and extensive Flour and Oatmeal Mills, possessing every facility of manufacture, with spacious Stores, Kilns, Dwelling-house, and Premises attached, lately in the possession of Messrs. Macbeath and Mackay.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of his Honour the Judge of the Court of Review, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against William Wright, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Corn Merchant, Factor, Dealer and Chapman, at the Clarendon-rooms, in South John-street, Liverpool, on Wednesday the 21st day of April 1841, at one o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, in one lot;

A certain debt, or sum of £7275 10s. 10d., due from John Macbeath and Thomas Miller Mackay, who have been declared bankrupts, under a Commission awarded against them jointly with James Adair, under the Great Seal of Ireland, dated the 5th of June 1840, or from their estate, to the estate of the said William Wright, as surviving partner of the firm of Wright and Carter, and of the said William Wright, individually, or one of them, secured by mortgage, with absolute powers of sale, of the mills and hereditaments hereinafter described, that is to say,

The large and commodious flour mill, called the Mills of Ennis, having two water wheels of large dimensions. This mill contains four lofts, with eight pairs of stones, and complete machinery, capable of grinding thirty thousand barrels of wheat in the year.

There are attached to these premises a large bake-house, with two ovens, capable of baking sixty bags of flour per week, and a barm brewery, in the most complete order.

Upwards of £4000 has been, within the last few years, expended in lasting and valuable improvements in the buildings and machinery of these premises; and the home-sales of the bakery amount to upwards of one hundred sacks of flour per week, and are capable of being greatly extended.

The new oatmeal mill, recently built by Messrs. Macbeath, having one water wheel of large power. This mill contains four lofts, and six pairs of stones, capable of grinding seventy tons of oatmeal per week.

Upwards of £4000 has been expended, within the last two years, in the erection and fitting up of this mill and machinery.

Adjoining this property is a bran-house and a small dwelling-house, with upwards of two acres of land attached.

The old oatmeal mill, called the Mill of Lifford, has one large water wheel and two lofts, with three pairs of stones, and (having all the requisite machinery) is capable of being used alternately as a flour and oatmeal mill.

The foregoing three properties are held by lease for thirty-one years from 1832, at the yearly rent of £350; but leases thereof in reversion (to commence on expiration of the present term) have been lately obtained for lives renewable for ever, at the yearly rent of £300.

A large commodious store, consisting of five lofts, exclusive of the ground floor, capable of storing from 7000 to 8000 barrels of grain at a time, attached to which is a good kiln in perfect repair. There is a capital dwelling-house adjoining this store, with garden and all requisite out-offices, stables, &c.

This store, dwelling-house, and premises are held by lease for lives, renewable for ever, at the annual rent of £200.

The above-mentioned several mills and stores are situated on the river Fergus (affording an unfailing supply of water), and close to the town of Ennis, containing a population of 12,000 inhabitants, within two miles of the seaport of Clare, and are the only mills for grinding corn at Ennis, and for supplying the town and country adjacent with flour and oatmeal.

The workhouses of Ennis, Tulla, and Ennistymon, now in course of erection under the Poor Laws Act, will be dependent for the supply of flour and oatmeal on the Ennis Mills.

The mills and concerns are in working order and repair, having been until very lately in active use, and, to those desirous of possessing such, afford an opportunity, rarely to be met with, of carrying on extensively the corn and flour trade.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Harvey and Falcon, Solicitors, No. 1, Exchange-buildings, Liverpool; Messrs. Lowndes and Robinson, Solicitors, Brunswick-street, Liverpool; Messrs. Robert Hamilton and Co. Solicitors, Sackville-street, Dublin; or Mr. Felix Boylan, Solicitor, 93, Stephen's-green South, Dublin.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Francis Masters, of College-green, in the city and county of Bristol, Perfumer and Toyman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 19th day of April next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Mr. Richard John Bridges, Solicitor, Queen-square, Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of all or any part of the said bankrupt's stock in trade, and other the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation, or otherwise, to the said bankrupt, or to any person or persons whomsoever, and either together or in parcels, or in such manner as the said assignee shall think fit, and that either for ready money or upon credit, and upon such security as the said assignee shall think most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law, or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.
