TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1841.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 29, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 22d of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty:

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

Buckingham-Palace, March 27, 1841.

This day had audience of Her Majesty, Monsieur Fortique, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Republic of Venezuela, to deliver a letter; and Monsieur Gonzalez, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a special mission from the Queen of Spain, to take leave:

To which audiences they were respectively introduced by Lord Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's-Palace, March 24, 1841.

The Queen was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Arnold James Knight, M. D. of Sheffield, in the county of York, Esq.

Whitehall, March 29, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Chatham-Horace Churchill, Esq. Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 31st (Huntingdonshire) Regiment of Foot, serving with the rank of Major-General in India, Quartermaster-General in India, and Companion of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of the Order of the Auspicious Star of the Punjaub, which the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh was pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of his services while serving with the army in India; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms :

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 29, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto O'Neill Ferguson, Assistant-Surgeon in the Royal Navy, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholic, which Her Majesty Maria-Christina, late Queen Regent of Spain, was pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of Her Majesty's approbation of his services in the cause of Her Catholic Majesty at the raising of the siege of Bilbao, in 1837; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms :

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Office of Ordnance, 29th March 1841.

Westminster Bridge and Greenwich, Croydon, Brighton, and South Eastern Junction Railway, by way of, and including, Kennington, Camberwell, and Peckham.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make and maintain a railway or railways, for the conveyance of passengers and goods, and the passage of carriages, properly constructed, to be drawn or propelled by locomotive engines, steam or other power, together with all proper approaches, works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing on the south side of the river Thames, near to the foot of Westminster Bridge, in the parish of St. Mary Lambeth, in the county of Surrey; passing from, through, or into the boroughs of Lambeth and Greenwich, or one of them; and from, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra parochial and other places of Saint Mary Lambeth, Saint Mary Newington, Saint Giles Camberwell, Peckham, Hatcham, and Saint Paul's Deptford, or some of them, in the county of Surrey; and Saint Paul's Deptford, or some of them, in the county of Kent, and terminating by a junction with the London and Greenwich Railroad, in or near to High-street, in the parish of St. Paul's Deptford, in the said county; together with a branch railway, or branch railways, from the said main line, commencing at or near to White Post-lane, in the Old Kent-road, otherwise called the Great Dover-road, in the hamlet of Hatcham, and parish of Saint Paul's Deptford, in the county of Surrey aforesaid; passing from, through, or into the boroughs of Lambeth and Greenwich, or one of them; or from, through, or into the several parishes, townships and extra parochial and other places of Hatcham, the parish of Saint Paul's Deptford, in the county of Surrey, and the parish of St. Paul's Deptford, in the county of Kent, or some or one of them; and terminating by a junction with the London and Croydon Railroad, at or near to New Cross, in the hamlet of Hatcham, in the said county of Surrey, or in the said parish of Saint Paul's Deptford, in the said county of Kent or Surrey, or one of them. And that it is intended to take power by the said Act to deviate to any extent not exceeding one hundred yards, except where the railway or railways pass through lands covered with buildings, and in such latter case to any extent not exceeding ten yards, from the line or lines laid down, or to be laid down, on the plan and section to be deposited, according to the standing orders of Parliament, with the Clerks of the Peace of the respective counties of Surrey and Kent, and with the parish clerks of the several parishes through which the said railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways is or are intended to pass through, save and except also where the property lying within the said one hundred yards, or ten yards, as the case may be, on either side of the said line or lines, shall be omitted to be numbered on the said plan, or referred to in the book of reference to be deposited therewith, in compliance with the standing orders of Parliament aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that the plans and sections, describing the line and level of the said intended railway or railways, and branch railway or branch railways, in respect of which this notice is given, and the land and property to be authorized to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with books of reference containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and property, will, on or before the first day of March 1841, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at his office in Lambeth, and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office in Maidstone; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as shall relate to each of the aforesaid parishes, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April 1841, with the parish clerk of each respective parish at his place of abode, through which the line or lines is intended to pass, for the inspection of all parties concerned. And it is further intended to apply for power by the said Act to purchase and hold lands immediately adjoining or contiguous to the line or lines of the said railway or railways, and branch or branches thereof respectively, for the purpose of erecting thereon dwelling houses, shops, and other buildings; and also to make and maintain a wharf or pier and jetty, with proper approaches, warehouses, slips, embankments, and other works and defences at the termination of the said railway, near Westminster Bridge aforesaid. And to take power by the said Act to levy tolls, rates, or duties on passengers and goods, and also on carriages passing along, through, or over the said railway or branches thereof, as also of the said wharf, or pier and jetty, and upon all foot passengers passing upon or under the said railway or branches thereof.

The time and place of sale will shortly be published, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Mr. Charles Berkeley, 52, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; Messrs. Reeves and Sons, Solicitors, Taunton; Mr. Charles Rowcliffe, Solicitor, Stogumber, near Taunton; and Mr. Thomas Hawkes, Surveyor and Auctioneer, Wilton.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hawkins versus Dod, the creditors of Martha Sutton, late of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Spinster, deceased (who died in the month of September 1839), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 30th day of April 1841, to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOTICE is hereby given, that John Sharp, of Leeds, in the county of York, Builder, hath by indentures of lease, and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 10th and 11th days of March 1841, conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto James Maude, of Leeds aforesaid, Timber Merchant, in trust, for the equal benefit of all the creditors of the said John Sharp; and which said indentures of lease and release and assignment were respectively duly executed by the said John Sharp on the said 11th day of March 1841, and by the said James Maude on the 13th day of March 1841, in the presence of, and attested by, John Bulmer, of Leeds aforesaid, Solicitor, and Daniel Winterbottom, his Clerk. The said indentures now lie for inspection and execution by the creditors of the said John Sharp at the office of Messrs. Lister and Bulmer, Solicitors to the said trustee, in St. John-street, Leeds.—March 16, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indenture, bearing date the 25th day of March 1841, and made between George Gotelee, of Colnbrook, in the county of Bucks, Grocer, of the first part; Thomas Rawlinson, of Skinner-street, Snow-hill, in the city of London, Tea Dealer, and Benjamin Smith, of Fleet-street, in the said city of London, Oilman, creditors of the said George Gotelee, of the second part; and all the other creditors of the said George Gotelee who shall have signed and sealed the said indenture, of the third part; the said George Gotelee did assign unto the said Thomas Rawlinson and Benjamin Smith all his estate and effects, upon trust, for the benefit of the creditors of the said George Gotelee who should execute the same, within the time therein mentioned; and which said indenture was severally executed by the said George Gotelee, Thomas Rawlinson, and Benjamin Smith, on the said 25th day of March 1841; and such executions thereof were respectively witnessed by Joseph Soames, of Great Winchester-street, Broad-street, in the city of London, Attorney at Law, where the same now lies for signature.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Israel Alexander and Henrietta Alexander, both of Chiswell-street, Finsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Coach and Omnibus Proprietors and Copartners, by indenture of assignment, dated the 17th day of March 1841, made between the said Israel Alexander and Henrietta Alexander, of the first part; Richard Tattersall, of Grosvenor-place, Hyde-park, in the said county, Proprietor of the Horse Repository, and John Tilbury, of Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, in the said county, Job Master, of the second part; and all the creditors of the said Israel Alexander and Henrietta Alexander who shall, by themselves or other persons duly authorised, execute the said indenture of assignment, of the third part; have assigned all their estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto the said Richard Tattersall and John Tilbury as therein mentioned, in trust, for the equal benefit of all their creditors aforesaid; and such deed of assignment was duly executed by the said Israel Alexander and Henrietta Alexander, and by the said Richard Tattersall and John Tilbury on the 17th day of March 1841; and the execution of the said indenture by all the above-named parties is attested by George Coleman Hamilton Lewis and Charles Vallancey Lewis, both of No. 10, Ely-place, Holborn, Middlesex, Attorneys at Law; and such deed lies for execution by the creditors at the offices of Messrs. Lewis, 10, Ely-place, Holborn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Samuel Horrocks, of Radcliffe, in the county of Lancaster, and Thomas Platt, of Bolton, in the same county (which said Samuel Horrocks and Thomas Platt have lately carried business in copartnership as Dyers, at Radcliffe aforesaid), have by indenture, bearing date the 20th day of March 1841, assigned all their partnership estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto Eli Atkin, of Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster, Drysalter, Laurence Pitkethly, of Huddersfield, in the county of York, Draper and Manufacturer, and Samuel Spencer, of Manchester aforesaid, a partner in the firm of Spencer, Pipe, and Co. Manufacturers, upon trust, for the equal benefit of themselves and all other the creditors of the said Samuel Horrocks and Thomas Platt (as such partners as aforesaid), who shall execute the said indenture of assignment, within three calendar months from the date thereof; and which said indenture of assignment was duly executed by the said Eli Atkin, Laurence Pitkethly, and Samuel Spencer on the said 20th day of March instant, and the execution of the same indenture by each of the said persons, respectively, was attested by Thomas Aloysius Smith, of Manchester aforesaid, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture or deed of assignment is now lying at the office of the said Thomas Aloysius Smith, in Manchester aforesaid, for the inspection and execution of such of the creditors of the said Samuel Horrocks and Thomas Platt (as such partners as aforesaid) as may be desirous of inspecting and executing the same, within three calendar months from the date hereof; and such of the said creditors, who neglect to execute the said deed within that period, will be excluded all benefit and advantage to be derived therefrom.—Dated this 22d day of March 1841.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Read, late of No. 9, Crawford-street, Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, Hair Dresser, Perfumer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 21st day of April next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London; to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in Chancery, or to take proceedings at law, relative to the lease of the bankrupt's house in Crawford-street, and to indemnify the said assignees therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any other matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued against Samuel Cartwright, of Great Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, Ironmonger, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 21st day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Star and Garter Hotel, in Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compromising, compounding, and adjusting all matters in difference between the said assignees, and a certain banking company, called "The Bank of Manchester," on certain terms to be stated at the said meeting; and also to authorise and empower the said assignees to execute such deed or deeds of confirmation, or other assurance, as the said banking company may require for the purpose of confirming the present title of the said bank, or of assigning or conveying unto the said banking company all the right and interest of the said assignees of, in, or to certain warehouses and premises, the title deeds whereof are deposited with the said bank; and also of, in, and to certain iron deposited with the said bank; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and giving up to the said banking company all title or claim to or interest in certain bills of exchange now held by the said bank, in consideration of the said banking company executing a general release to the said assignees, and also to the said bankrupt's estate, of and from all claims and demands in respect of the debt now claimed to be due from the said bankrupt to the said banking company; and undertaking to repay to the said bankrupt's estate all such sums of money as the said bankrupt's estate shall become liable to pay in respect of any proofs or claims on the part of any person or persons whomsoever in respect of any bills of exchange now held by the said bank; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of such debt or debts in discharge of the whole, or giving time for payment of any such debt or debts, with or without security, as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting any disputes that may have arisen, or that may hereafter arise, between the said assignees and any other person or persons whomsoever, touching any matter connected with the estate of the said bankrupt to the determination of arbitrators, or otherwise agreeing the same as to the said assignees shall seem advisable; and generally to empower the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate, and to wind up the affairs of the same, as the said assignees shall deem most advantageous to the creditors; and on other special affairs.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY.

Act of the 55th Geo. III, cap. 84, sec. 5.

East India-House, March 16, 1841.

JAMES C. MELVILL, Secretary.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Scott, of Constantine, in the county of Cornwall, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 20th day of April next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the Angel Hotel, Helstone, in the said county (by adjournment from the 5th day of March instant), in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots, parcels, ways, and manner, and upon such terms and conditions, as he shall think best, the remaining freehold and leasehold estates, and parts and shares of freehold and leasehold estates, in or to which the said bankrupt, or any person or persons in trust for him, at the time he became bankrupt, had any estate, right, title, or interest, either in possession or reversion, or otherwise howsoever, and joining any mortgagee or mortgagees, trustee or trustees, in the sale of the said estates, and parts or shares of estates, and to authorise and empower the said assignee to put a reserved bidding on all or any part of the said estates if he shall think fit; and also to authorise the said assignee to compound with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and to refer any dispute or difference whatsoever touching such estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto, to arbitration, in such manner as he shall deem advisable; and to commence and prosecute, revive, continue, or defend any action at law, or suit in equity, or other proceedings, and to adopt such means for the recovery and protection of the said bankrupt's remaining estate and effects; and generally to take such measures, in the management and final adjustment of the affairs of the said bankrupt, as the said assignee in his discretion shall deem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from confirming the acts, receipts, and payments of the said assignee under the said Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Lamb, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Grocer and Confectioner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 21st day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Messrs. Clave and Thompson, Solicitors, 14, Princess-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation, or otherwise, and either in one lot or several lots, at one time or place or several times and places, the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, and effects of the said bankrupt, either to the said bankrupt or to any other person or persons whomsoever, and either for ready money or upon credit, and in case of sales otherwise than for ready money, then without taking any security for the payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, in case the said assignees shall deem it advisable so to do, and to sanction and confirm any sale or sales which may have been made, before such meeting, of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or to reject and disallow the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing to certain persons, to be named at such meeting, certain costs, charges, payments, and expences in and about calling and attending certain meetings of creditors, and for preparing and getting executed a certain deed of assignment, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, previous to the issuing of the said Fiat, as to such assignees may seem reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for and taking less than the whole of any debt or debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and to their commencing and prosecuting, or defending and opposing, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, any actions at law or suits in equity for the recovery, protection, or defence of any of the debts, estate, or effects of the said bankrupt as they shall think advisable and proper; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise compromising or settling any dispute, debt, claim, or demand whatsoever, which may exist or arise between the said assignees and any other person or persons whomsoever, or relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to sanction and confirm the employment by the said assignees of an accountant to investigate and make up the books and affairs of the said bankrupt, and to authorise them to continue the employment of such accountant, for such time as they shall think proper, and to their paying to such accountant such allowance or remuneration, for his time, trouble, and services, as to such assignees shall seem just and proper; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to act, in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt, for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate, in such a manner as to such assignees shall seem prudent and advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Peace Ward, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Common Brewer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 22d day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Mr. John Neal, Solicitor, 26, Castle-street, Liverpool, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling, either by public auction or by tender, or otherwise by private treaty, and at such price or prices, and for payment in cash, or upon such credit and security as the said assignees shall think fit, all or any part of the personal estate of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from any such sale or sales, in case a sale or sales shall have been made or contract entered into by the said assignees in the mean time; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees entering into an arrangement with all or any of the mortgagees of the real or personal estate of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, or with any person or persons having a lien or liens thereon, or on any other part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees offering to the bankrupt, or any other person or persons, or in any other manner disposing of, the interest of the said bankrupt in any lease or leases, and at such price or prices, and for payment in cash, or upon such credit and security as the said assignees may think fit; or otherwise to assent to or dissent from the said assignees rejecting all or any such lease or leases; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying all such taxes, rates, costs, and expences incurred, previously to and after the issuing of the said Fiat, as may appear reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling or taking security for any debt, claim, matter, or thing relating to the said bankrupt's affairs; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already, or which shall have been, adopted and taken by the said assignees in relation to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and to authorise them to act, in and about the management of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as to them shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Welch Braddick, of Baptist Mills, in the city of Bristol, and of Sedbury, in the county of Gloucester, Tanner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 22d day of April next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Messrs. William and Charles Bevan, Solicitors, Small-street, in the city of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing either by public auction or private contract, and at such price or prices, upon such terms and conditions, and either for money or on credit, and upon such security as they may think fit, of the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estates, stock in trade, debts, and all other his personal estate and effects; and to their paying off or making such arrangements with the mortgagees, or other persons or persons having or claiming to have any mortgage, lien, or charge upon all or any part of such freehold, leasehold, and personal estate, as the said assignees shall think most expedient and beneficial, or to their resisting and disputing any such mortgage, lien, or charge; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing the bankrupt's business, at the risk of the estate, until the whole of the goods and stock, now in process of manufacture, shall be completely worked up, manufactured, and rendered fit for sale, and for that purpose to their making all necessary and requisite purchases and sales, and doing all other acts which may seem expedient; and also to the assignees employing the said bankrupt, or such other fit and competent person or persons as they may think needful or proper, to superintend and conduct the said business, and to the making to the said bankrupt, and any such other person or persons as aforesaid, such allowance and remuneration as may by them be deemed proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant, or some other proper person, to state, settle, receive, collect, and get in the debts due and owing to the bankrupt's estate, and to their making to such accountant or other person such fair remuneration for his or their services as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to their paying and allowing to the messenger and provisional assignee all such costs, charges, and expences as he has already or shall have incurred in or about the management of the said bankrupt's affairs, and confirming and allowing all acts which shall have been done by him in the management of the said bankrupt's estate and effects since the opening of the said Fiat; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees disputing and contesting any claim which may be made against them or against the bankrupt's estate, and which may appear to them to be unfounded; and to their commencing and prosecuting any action or suit, or other proceedings which they may be advised or think fit, against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for recovery of certain portions of the said bankrupt's estate, or against any person or persons who shall be or appear to be indebted thereto; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for any bad or doubtful debts due to the bankrupt's estate, and concurring in and executing any assignments or releases, discharges or other instruments, proposed by or to be given to any debtor or debtors to the said estate, for the purpose of affecting such composition; and to the said assignees giving or allowing time to any such debtor or debtors for the payment of any such debts owing to the estate, and with or without security, or to their receiving any dividend or dividends thereon, as shall appear to them most advantageous to the bankrupt's estate; and generally to their prosecuting or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, or preferring, opposing, or answering any petition or petitions, either at law or in equity, which they may consider necessary, proper, or advisable for the recovery, obtaining, or keeping possession of any part of the debts, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt; or to their compounding, settling, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Morgan Knott, of Camphill, in the parish of Aston, near Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Wholesale Stationer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 23d day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the office of Mr. John Bourne M^cMichael, in Temple-street, in Birmingham, to sanction, assent to, or dissent from the said assignees selling or disposing of the stock in trade, fixtures, household goods, furniture, book debts, and other estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and at such time and place, or times and places, and either to the bankrupt or any other person or persons, and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees may deem most advantageous, and either for ready money or upon credit, and if on credit, either without security or with such security for payment as the said assignees may think proper, without their being answerable for any loss or damage which may be incurred or sustained through any such sale or sales; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving up to certain persons, respectively to be named at such meeting, certain household furniture and other effects claimed by such persons respectively as their property; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining in making a legal title to certain property which was equitably mortgaged, and other property contracted to be released by the said bankrupt prior to his bankruptcy, under the circumstances to be stated to the creditors at such meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain expences which were incurred prior to the bankruptcy, in settling or endeavouring to settle the affairs for the benefit of the creditors; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant and making him a fair and reasonable remuneration for his time, trouble, and services in examining and investigating the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and collecting and getting in the outstanding debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and superintending, managing, and disposing of, and otherwise relating to, the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, to the accountant already employed by the said assignees in the affairs of the said bankrupt, a proper compensation for his time and trouble therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for or taking less than the whole of any debt or debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate as they may think desperate, bad, or doubtful, in full satisfaction and discharge of the amount of such debts, and releasing any such debtors thereupon, and giving time to any debtor or debtors, or paying by instalments or otherwise, and with or without taking security, and to their commencing any action or actions at law against any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said bankrupt for the recovery of such debts, and settling such action or actions upon such terms and conditions as they, the said assignees, shall think proper; and to their submitting to arbitration any dispute which may arise between them and any person or persons whomsoever, in respect of or relating to the said bankrupt's estate in any manner howsoever; and generally to authorise the said assignees to take such measures in the sale and arrangement and for the protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt as to the said assignees may seem expedient and proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Mason, of Heywood, near Bury, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Spinner, Manufacturer, Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate, and effects on Saturday the 24th day of April 1841, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Queen Ann, Market-place, within Heywood aforesaid, in order to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts, proceedings, transactions, and accounts of the provisional assignee under the said fiat, from the time of his appointment until the choice of the said assignees, and to confirm and adopt the purchases and sales made by the provisional assignee during that period, and the payments made, and other matters and things done or transacted by him; and also to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts, proceedings, transactions, and accounts of the assignees appointed under the said fiat, from the time of their appointment until the said meeting, and to confirm and adopt the purchases and sales made by the said assignees during that period, and the payments made and other matters and things done or transacted by them, in or about the carrying on the businesses of the said bankrupt or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, to the said bankrupt or any person or persons whomsoever, the whole or any part of the real and personal estates, or other real property of the said bankrupt, including any shares of the bankrupt in any joint stock or incorporated company, or any of them, or any interest which the said bankrupt may have therein, or any part thereof, and of the machinery, implements of trade, and stock of the said bankrupt in and about his cotton spinning and manufacturing concern, or in or about his trade or business of a shopkeeper, the particulars of all which real and personal estate, property, and effects will be stated at the said meeting, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either together or in lots, and subject to such special or other conditions of sale as the said assignees may think fit, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise in the discretion of the said assignees for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors of the said bankrupt, and either for ready money or upon credit, and with or without security, for the price or purchase money thereof, respectively, with liberty to take bills of exchange or promissory notes in payment, as to the said assignees shall appear proper and expedient, and at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, and to indorse and pay away the same bills and notes without rendering themselves answerable or accountable for the amount thereof, and with power to buy in all or any part or parts of the said real and personal estate, property, and effects, at any auction, or to rescind or vary the terms of any contract for sale thereof, and to resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being answerable for any loss occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with the mortgagee or mortgagees of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects in a sale or sales in like manner and with the like powers and authorities with respect to a sale of the real and personal estate of the said bankrupt, as hereinbefore mentioned, and to the assignees allowing the payment of any such mortgages out of the purchase money to be received from any such sale, or allowing such mortgagees to receive the whole of the purchase money, in case there shall not be sufficient to discharge the mortgages and interest; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing any of such mortgagees to prove for the residue against the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and keeping down, out of the said bankrupt's estate, or the rents and proceeds arising therefrom, the interest upon all or any of such mortgages until a sale thereof can be effected as aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and conveying to any of such mortgagees, upon such terms as they may think best, the equity of redemption in all or any part of the said mortgaged premises to any of such mortgagees who may wish to become the purchasers thereof, with the like powers of selling by public auction or private contract, or upon credit as hereinbefore expressed; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with any of such mortgagees in making a transfer of any mortgage, or to such mortgagees exercising all or any powers of sale contained in their mortgage securities; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing and giving up or abandoning any leases or agreements for leases, or purchases granted or agreed to be granted to or made with the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to work the said machinery for the spinning and manufacturing of cotton, and to carry on the same at the entire risk and for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate for such time as may be deemed expedient, or until the sale of the said machinery, and with power for the assignees to buy all necessary materials, articles, and things, and to employ at the expence of the said estate the said bankrupt, and also such other workmen, agents, and others, as shall be necessary for the efficient carrying on and working of the said cotton spinning and manufacturing concern; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging out of the estate of the said bankrupt, the salaries and wages due or to become due to any agents, workmen, servants, and others employed by the said bankrupt, or by the provisional assignee, or by the said assignees; and also all rents, damages, taxes, rates, and outgoings whatever, now due and to become due by reason of the continuance of the same trade or business or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving consent and power to the holders of bills of exchange, on which the bankrupt is liable, to compound, release, or discharge any other party also liable on the same bills or notes, on such terms and for such sums, by way of composition or otherwise, as may appear to the said assignees most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting compositions from, or giving time for payment of their respective debts to any debtors to the said bankrupt's estate; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, referring to arbitration, settling, or adjusting all disputes, differences, accounts, claims, or demands whatsoever relating to the said

bankrupt's estate and effects; and to confirm, ratify, and allow, or to dissent from and disallow, any acts, proceedings, matters and things of any sort, kind or nature which may heretofore have been done, transacted, or performed by the said assignees, or any or either of them; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 27th day of March 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by FRANCES ROBERTS and CAROLINE ROWE, of New Bridge-street, Blackfriars, in the city of London, Milliners and Copartners, that they are in insolvent circumstances, and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.

And on the 30th day of March 1841, by THOMAS DASH, of Peascod-street, New Windsor, in the county of Berks, Innkeeper, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for enlarging the time for John Mace, of the Bull's Head Public-house, Tottenham-court-road, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman (Bankrupt), to surrender himself, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, for eleven days, to be computed from the 9th day of April next; this is to give notice, that Edward Holroyd, Esq. one of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy authorised to ret under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against the said John Mace, will sit on the 20th day of April next, at one of the clock in the afternoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London; when and where the said bankrupt is required to surrender himself, between the hours of twelve and one of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and, with those who have proved their debts, are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 4th day of January 1841, was awarded and issued forth against Thomas Robinson, of Heaton Norris, in the county of Lancaster, Provision Dealer, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by Order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 24th day of March 1841, and confirmed by the Lord Chancellor on the 26th day of the same month of March, rescinded and annulled.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against William Ambrose Bradford, of No. 111, Long-acre, in the county of Middlesex, Cheesemonger, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to John Samuel Martin Foulblancq, Esq. a Commissioner of Her Majesty's Court of Bankruptcy, on the 6th day of April next, at three o'clock in the afternoon precisely, and on the 11th day of May following, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the first sitting to choose assignees, and at the last sitting the said bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.
