ERROLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council, to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce of, to, and from any British possession on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except the possessions of the said Company, as to Her Majesty in Council should appear most expedient and salutary;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the Act above stated, order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the time when this Order shall be made known in the colonies hereinafter mentioned, by proclamations of the Governors of the said colonies, respectively, the duties now levied at the Cape of Good Hope, Ceylon, and Australia, upon articles the produce and manufacture of the British possessions in India, shall be reduced or altered to the same rates as are now imposed upon similar articles the produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of other British possessions:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued, from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce of, to, and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, of the tenth of August last, certain duties of Customs are imposed upon goods imported into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope; and whereas in the table of duties annexed to the said Order in Council, under the head of wood, the word "manufactured" was erroneously inserted in the said table, instead of the word "unmanufactured," wherefore it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council, so far as it imposes any duty on manufactured wood, and to issue an amended Order, with reference to such duty; Her Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of Her Privy Council, so revoke the said Order in Council of the tenth of August last, so far as it imposes a duty on

Wood manufactured, viz.	£.	s.	d.
Mahogany, Rosewood, and Teakewood, per cube foot	-	0	0 3.
All other Wood, not the produce of the United Kingdom, per cube foot	-	0	0 2.

And Her Majesty doth further, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid by the said recited Act of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, that there shall be levied, in lieu of such duty, the following rate, that is to say:

Wood unmanufactured, viz.	£.	s.	d.
Mahogany, Rosewood, and Teakewood, per cube foot	-	-	0 0 3
All other Wood, not the produce of the United Kingdom, per cube foot	-	-	0 0 2

And it is hereby further ordered, that the duties set forth in the foregoing table shall be levied, paid, received, and appropriated, in the like manner as if the same had been imposed by an Order in Council of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and set forth therein; and it is hereby further ordered, that this Order shall come into operation from the time when the same shall be made known in the said colony by a proclamation of the Governor of the said colony:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Admiralty, May 12, 1841.

DISPATCHES were yesterday received at this Office from Commodore Sir J. J. G. Bremer, C. B. addressed to R. More O'Ferrall, Esq. of which the following are copies:

Her Majesty's Ship Wellesley, off Anunghoy,
SIR, January 18, 1841.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for their Lordships' information, copy of an amended return of ordnance captured, on the 7th instant, at Chuenpee and Tycocktow, by which they will perceive that two eight and a half inch howitzers were taken; they are nearly like the new pattern eight inch howitzer now in use in our service.

The examination of the intrenchments and field batteries, in front of the position of Chuenpee, has caused me much surprise; they display considerable science, and are so formidable, that they must have cost us many men to carry, if the Chinese had not been forced from them by shells, with which they are entirely unacquainted.

I beg to acquaint their Lordships, that Lieutenant Bingham, Senior of Modeste, received a most severe and painful wound (fracture of the leg, in blowing up the fort of Tycocktow), which will cause his loss to the service for some time. Mr. Arthur Vyner, Mate of the Blenheim, is also suffering much, but is not in any danger; he was blown up by the springing of one of the enemy's mines. I beg to recommend these Officers and Lieutenant Watson, Senior of Calliope (who was employed in that ship's boats), and Lieutenant Harrison and Mr. Edwards, Mate, of the Larne (employed in her boats in the destruction of the junks), to their Lordships' notice.

I avail myself of this occasion to express my hope, that their Lordships may be pleased to bestow some mark of their favour on Captain Ellis, royal marines, of this ship; this meritorious old Officer was in Sir Robert Calder's action at Trafalgar, in the Potomac, and in very many other brilliant affairs. The order which he established in the battalion of royal marines, and the gallantry with which he led the advance of the force on the 7th, was such as to entitle him to my thanks and admiration, and I venture to recommend him to their Lordships accordingly.

I have, &c.

Calliope, January 23, 1841, Macao Roads.

SIR,

THE Calliope having been detached with the advanced squadron, the accompanying copy of a letter from Captain Herbert did not reach me until after my last dispatch was closed. I seize, with infinite pleasure, on the first opportunity to lay before their Lordships and to assure them, that the service therein mentioned was admirably performed, and the Officer conducting it worthy of their notice.

I have, &c.

(Signed) J. J. GORDON BREMER,
Commodore first class, Commander in Chief.

To R. More O'Ferrall, Esq. &c. Admiralty.

Her Majesty's Ship Calliope, Chuenpee, China, January 7, 1841.

SIR,

YOU witnessed the manner the ships*, you did me the honour to place under my orders, took up their position within pistol shot of the batteries of Chuenpee, the rapidity with which they were silenced and the union jack hoisted in the forts, and how nobly they were stormed on the land side by our gallant troops (land forces and marines).

This service performed, the war junks, agreeably to your orders, were my next object; and I directed the steamers, assisted by the boats of the ships under my orders, to their attack; but, from the shoalness of the water, the Nemesis and boats could be only employed; they were so efficiently conducted, and, from their fire soon caused the crews of the junks to desert them, succeeding in capturing ten out of thirteen. The Admiral's junk was blown up by a rocket from the Nemesis; thus crippling the naval armament of the Chinese in this quarter.

This part of the force operating against the enemy was most ably and efficiently conducted by Commander Belcher, of the Sulphur, showing to every advantage the powerful force of this description of war steamer, combining, as she does, a commanding armament with light draft of water. He speaks in terms of high commendation of Lieutenant Kellett, of the Starling, conducting the Queen steamer, assisted by Mr. Crouch, gunnery mate of the Wellesley, and has expressed his high admiration of the most gallant manner in which the boats of the Calliope and Larne passed on to a very impressive attack on the war junks to the northward of the Nemesis, which he found, in coming up, in the possession of a seaman, such as prize masters, reflecting great credit on Lieutenant Watson, of the Calliope, and Harrison, of the Larne, assisted by five mates (Messrs. Daly, St. Leger, Rivers, and Egerton, of the Calliope, and Mr. Rowland Edwards, of the Larne).

From the vessels being captured in a narrow channel, and close to the villages, the ebb tide running strong, with an imperfect knowledge of the channel, Commander Belcher considered it too great a risk to wait the uncertainty of getting the junks out of the different positions in which they were taken, and gave directions for their being destroyed.

To Commanders Blake and Warren, of the Larne and Hyacinth, my best thanks are due for their co-operation, as well as to all employed on this occasion.

I have the honour, &c.

(Signed) T. HERBERT, Captain.
