FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1841.

NOTE.—This Order in Council has been substituted for the Order of the same date, published in the Gazette of the 14th instant.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council, to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce of, to, and from any British possession on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council should appear most expedient and salutary ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the Act above stated, order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the time when this Order shall be made known in the colonies hereinafter mentioned, by proclamations of the Governors of the said colonies, respectively, the duties now levied at the Cape of Good Hope, Ceylon, New South Wales, Van Dieman's Land, Western Australia, Southern Australia, and New Zealand, upon articles the produce and manufacture of the British possessions in India, shall be reduced or altered to the same rates as are now imposed upon similar articles the produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of other British possessions:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port, under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to appoint the port of Scarborough, in the island of Tobago, a free warehousing port under the said Act, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said port of Scarborough, in the island of Tobago, shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

Provided always, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall exempt any goods, wares, or merchandize imported from the said port of Scarborough, into any of the British possessions in the West Indies, or on the Continent of South America, or into the Bahama Islands, from the payment of the duties now chargeable thereon in such places under the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued, from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce of, to, and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, of the tenth of August last, certain duties of Customs are imposed upon goods imported into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope; and whereas in the table of duties annexed to the said Order in Council, under the head of wood, the word "manufactured" was erroneously inserted in the said table, instead of the word "unmanufactured," wherefore it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council, so far as it imposes any duty on manufactured wood, and to issue an amended Order, with reference to such duty; Her Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of Her Privy Council, so revoke the said Order in Council of the tenth of August last, so far as it imposes a duty on

Wood manufactured, viz.	£.	s.	d.
Mahogany, Rosewood, and Teakewood, per cube foot	-	0	3
All other Wood, not the produce of the United Kingdom, per cube foot	-	0	2

And Her Majesty doth further, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid by the said recited Act of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, that there shall be levied, in lieu of such duty, the following rate, that is to say:

Wood unmanufactured, viz.	£.	s.	d.
Mahogany, Rosewood, and Teakewood, per cube foot	-	0	3
All other Wood, not the produce of the United Kingdom, per cube foot	-	0	2

And it is hereby further ordered, that the duties set forth in the foregoing table shall be levied, paid, received, and appropriated, in the like manner as if the same had been imposed by an Order in Council of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and set forth therein;

and it is hereby further ordered, that this Order shall come into operation from the time when the same shall be made known in the said colony by a proclamation of the Governor of the said colony :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Church Commissioners'-Office,
 May 19, 1841.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of chapelry districts to Trinity and All Saints Chapels, in the parish of Saint Dunstan, Stepney, in the county of Middlesex, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid; to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case, in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra-parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary; for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein; in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled

"An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Saint Dunstan, Stepney, in the county of Middlesex, and diocese of London, contained a population of 51,023 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 2000 persons, there are five chapels in the said parish, called, respectively, Saint Philip's, Saint Peter's, Saint Thomas's, All Saints', and Trinity Chapels, which together afford accommodation to 5923 persons, including 3118 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That to the three first of the above-named chapels districts have been assigned:

"That the above-mentioned chapel, called Trinity Church, affords accommodation to 1213 persons, including 558 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that the said chapel, called All Saints' Chapel, affords accommodation to 1200 persons, including 400 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said two last-mentioned chapels have been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that particular districts should be assigned to the said two chapels, called Trinity Chapel and All Saints' Chapel, respectively, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that the district assigned to Trinity Chapel should be named "The Trinity District, Mile-end Old Town," with boundaries as follows:

"It is bounded on the north by the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, on the south by the parish of Saint Anne, Limehouse, on the east by the parishes of Stratford-le-bow and Bromley-by-bow, in the county of Middlesex; and on the west by the district of Saint Peter's, Stepney, so far as the western boundary wall of Bancroft's-hospital; from thence by a line running through the centre of Mile-end-road to Bancroft's-place; from thence by a line running through the centre of Bancroft's-place to Bridge-street; from thence by a line running through the centre of Bridge-street to the Regent's Canal-bridge; and from thence through the centre of the Regent's Canal to the southern boundary of the district at Limehouse, as the same is more particularly delineated in the map hereunto annexed, and is therein coloured red:

"That the district assigned to All Saints' Chapel should be called "The All Saints' District, Mile-end New Town," with boundaries as follows:

"The district consists of the hamlet or extra-parochial district of Mile-end New Town, and is entirely isolated from the remaining part of the parish of Saint Dunstan, Stepney, being bounded on the north by the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green; on the east and south by the parish of Saint Mary, Whitechapel; and on the west by the said parishes of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, Saint Mary, Whitechapel, and Christ Church, Spital-fields, as the same is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and therein tinted yellow:

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in both the said chapels; and that all complimentary fees and perquisites, beyond the fees which may by law be demanded for the said offices, shall be received by and belong to the Ministers, respectively, of the said chapels; and that from and after the first avoidance of the said parish church of Saint Dunstan, Stepney, all the fees for the above-mentioned offices shall belong to and be received by the Ministers of the said chapels respectively:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; and in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignments be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

C. C. Greville.

HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

I THOMAS ROBINSON WILLIAMS, formerly of Norfolk-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, but now of No. 157, Blackfriars-road, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, hereby give notice, that I intend to apply to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation, for the further term of seven years (or such other term, not exceeding seven years, as Her Majesty shall please), of my term of sole using and vending my invention of improvements in the making of hats, bonnets, and caps, and in the covering of them with silk and other materials with the assistance of machinery, granted to me, my executors, administrators, and assigns, by certain letters patent, bearing date the 11th day of September 1828, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and I, the said Thomas Robinson Williams, do hereby give further notice, that I intend to apply to the Right Honourable the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Honourable Privy Council, on the 21st day of June next (if the Judicial Committee shall meet or be sitting on that day, or otherwise on the first day after the said 21st day of June next upon which the Judicial Committee shall meet or be sitting), for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of my said petition, for such prolongation of the said term, as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons desirous of being heard, in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council-office on or before the said 21st day of June next. — Dated this 10th day of May 1841.

Thomas Robinson Williams.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, since the introduction into Parliament of a Bill, intituled "A Bill for maintaining and repairing, as turnpike, a certain road, commencing at or near the north west gate of the Woodside Hotel Stable yard, in the township or chapelry of Birkenhead, and terminating at or near the Punch Bowl Public-house, in the parish of West Kirby, in the county of Chester, and for levying tolls for that purpose," an extension has been desired to be made by the promoters of the said Bill (and the same is intended to be applied for by them) of the line of road to be so maintained and repaired as turnpike as aforesaid; which extension commences at that part of the said road lying at or near to the Punch Bowl Public-house aforesaid, where the turnpike powers sought by the said Bill were intended to terminate, and passing in direct continuation through the township of Hoose, terminates at or near the cottage now occupied by Henry Perry, on the road in that part of the township of Little Meols commonly called or known as Hoylake, and being in the parish of West Kirby aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that a plan and section of such proposed extension on the same scale, and containing the same particulars as the original Parliamentary plan and section deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, together with a book of reference thereto, has this day been deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester; and a copy of the said plan and section, so far as the same relates to the parish in which such extension is proposed to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, has been also this day deposited with the parish clerk of such parish. — Dated this seventeenth day of May 1841.

JOHNSON, Mayor.

A Court of Mayor and Aldermen, held in the Inner Chamber of the Guildhall, in the city of London, on Tuesday the fourth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and in the fourth year of the reign of Victoria, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to hackney carriages, and to waggons, carts, and drays used in the metropolis, and to place the collection of the duties on hackney carriages, and on hawkers and pedlars in England, under the Commissioners of Stamps," it was (amongst other things) enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London, from time to time, to appoint proper places in the said city of London, and liberties thereof, and in the borough of Southwark, where hackney carriages might stand and ply for hire, and to make such orders for regulating the number of such hackney carriages to stand in such places respectively, and the distances at which they should stand from each other, and the times at and during which they might stand and ply for hire; and such other orders and regulations for the better ordering and regulating the said hackney carriages and the drivers, or other person or persons having the management thereof, respectively, as to the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen should seem proper; and from time to time to alter, amend, or repeal such rules, orders, and regulations; and to make others in the room thereof; and that the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen should cause all the rules, orders, and regulations to be made by them as aforesaid, and every alteration, amendment, or repeal thereof, respectively, to be advertised in the London Gazette, and in any two or more newspapers circulated in the said city of London, and a copy thereof to be hung up, for public inspection, in the Town Clerk's office, at the Guildhall of the said city, before the same, or any of them, should be carried into effect, or be considered as repealed by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen;

And whereas the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said city of London did afterwards, on Tuesday the third day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, make certain rules, orders, and regulations, whereby (amongst other things) they did appoint certain places in the said city of London, and liberties thereof, and in the borough of Southwark (then deemed by the said Court to be proper places), for the standing and plying of hackney carriages for hire, and did also by the said rules, orders, and regulations, regulate the number of such hackney carriages to stand in such places respectively, and the distances at which they should stand from each other, and the times at and during which they might stand and ply for hire in the manner therein particularly set forth:

And whereas the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen did, by one of such rules, orders, and regulations, appoint that part of the street then forming the new approach to London-bridge, and now called King William-street, in the said city, commencing at the distance of one hundred and fifty-six feet from the houses situate in that part thereof, which heretofore formed part of Great East-cheap, and extending to within the distance of sixty feet of the arch over Thames-street, in the middle of the first-mentioned street, only to be a proper place for twelve hackney carriages to stand and ply for hire therein in a direct line, following each other, and in the manner therein particularly set forth and directed by the said rule, order, and regulation:

And whereas for purposes of public convenience and accommodation, it seems proper and expedient to the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, to repeal the said rules, orders, and regulations, so far as relates to the appointment of a standing for twelve hackney carriages in the said street now called King William-street, in the said city, and to make such other rules, orders, and regulations in respect thereof, as are hereinafter mentioned:

This Court, doth, therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers and authorities granted by the said recited Act for that purpose, hereby repeal the said rules, orders, and regulations, so far as relates to the appointment of a standing for twelve hackney carriages, in King William-street aforesaid; and, instead thereof, this Court doth hereby appoint, that four hackney carriages only be permitted to stand and apply for hire in the said street, in that part thereof which is situate between East-cheap, or the entrance into East-cheap from King William-street aforesaid, and Arthur-street East; and doth further hereby order and direct, that the said four hackney carriages, or any less number that shall at any time happen to be upon the said standing, shall stand in a direct line following each other in the middle only of the aforesaid part of the said street, called King William street, with the horses' heads towards London-bridge, and each at the distance of two feet from the horse or horses attached to the next succeeding hackney carriage upon the said standing; and also that the whole of such four hackney carriages, allowed to stand and ply for hire upon the said standing, may stand and ply for hire upon the said standing during the whole of every day and night.

And whereas it hath duly appeared to this Court, that Arthur-street West, in the said city, would be a proper and convenient place for the standing and plying of twelve hackney carriages for hire, and that part of Thames-street which extends from the west side of the arch adjoining London-bridge, over the same street, to within ten feet of the entrance to

Adelaide-wharf in the same street, for the standing and plying of six hackney carriages for hire:

This Court doth, therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers and authorities granted by the said recited Act for that purpose, hereby appoint the said street called Arthur-street West, in the middle of the said street only, to be a proper place for twelve hackney carriages to stand and ply for hire there, in a direct line following each other; and doth hereby order and direct, that the said twelve hackney carriages, or any less number that shall at any time happen to be upon the said standing, shall stand in a direct line following each other, in the middle of the said street, with the horses' heads towards Upper Thames-street; and that after every four of the said twelve hackney carriages, or any less number than four which shall at any time be upon the said last-mentioned standing, next to each other, shall stand at the distance of two feet from the horse or horses attached to the next succeeding hackney carriage upon the said standing; and that after every four of such carriages which shall be upon the said last-mentioned standing, there shall be left a clear space of ten feet from the horse or horses attached to every fifth and ninth of such hackney carriages being upon the said standing; and that the whole of such twelve hackney carriages, allowed to stand and ply for hire upon the said last-mentioned standing, may stand and ply for hire upon the said standing during the whole of any day and night.

And this Court doth hereby further appoint that part of Thames-street aforesaid, which extends from the west side of the said arch over the same street to within ten feet of the entrance to Adelaide-wharf, in the said street, in the middle of such part of the said street only, to be a proper place for six hackney carriages to stand and ply for hire there, in a direct line following each other; and doth hereby order and direct, that the said six hackney carriages, or any less number that shall at any time happen to be upon the said standing, shall stand in a direct line following each other, in the middle of the aforesaid part of the said street, and each at the distance of two feet from the horse or horses attached to the next succeeding hackney carriage upon the said standing; and that the whole of such six hackney carriages, allowed to stand and ply for hire upon the said last-mentioned standing, may stand and ply for hire upon the said standing during the whole of any day and night.

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that no hackney carriage shall stand or ply for hire upon such part of the said standings hereinbefore appointed as shall, be directly opposite to the entrance of any other street or lane leading to or from the same; but that a width or space upon such standings, equal to the width of the entrance to any such street or lane, shall be left open, in order that no obstruction may be given to any other carriage whatever passing or repassing from or into such street or lane.

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that the rules, orders, and regulations hereby made, shall be forthwith advertized in the "London Gazette," and in the two newspapers circulated in the city of London, called the "Times" and the "Morning Advertiser;" and that a copy of the said rules, orders, and regulations hereby made, be forthwith hung up in the Town Clerk's Office, at the Guildhall of the said city, pursuant to the provisions contained for that purpose in the said recited Act of Parliament.

And this Court doth hereby further order and direct, that the said rules, orders, and regulations hereby made, shall be in full force from and immediately after the same shall be advertized; and a copy thereof hung up in the Town Clerk's Office as aforesaid, pursuant to the directions of the said Act of Parliament.
