FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1841.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 19, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 17th of June next, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of June 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of the Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," and of another Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of two several Acts, namely, an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," and an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme:

"Whereas the first recited Act contains a provision for founding a new archdeaconry in the diocese of Canterbury, to be called the archdeaconry of Maidstone; and the secondly recited Act contains provisions, under the authority of which any archdeaconry within the said diocese may be endowed, by the annexation thereto of the canony in the cathedral church of Canterbury becoming secondly vacant, according to such provisions:

"And whereas the canony in the said church, lately held by the Reverend William Wood, is now vacant, and is the canony so secondly vacant in the said church:

"We, therefore, recommend and propose, with the consent of the Most Reverend William Archbishop of Canterbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that there shall be founded in the said diocese of Canterbury a new archdeaconry, and that the same shall be called and styled the archdeaconry of Maidstone; and that the said archdeaconry shall (subject to such additions thereto, and alterations therein, as may hereafter be duly made) consist of the deanries of Sittingbourne, Charing, and Sutton, now in the said diocese of Canterbury and in the archdeaconry of Canterbury; and that the said deanries, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be released and discharged from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the present and every future archdeacon of Canterbury, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the archdeacon of Maidstone for the time being:

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said William Archbishop of Canterbury shall and may forthwith collate some fit and proper person to the dignity or office of archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Maidstone; and that the right of collating the archdeacon of Maidstone shall be vested in the said archbishop and his successors, archbishops of Canterbury, for ever:

"And we further recommend and propose, that the said canonry in the said cathedral church so lately held by the Reverend William Wood, and now vacant, shall, immediately upon the foundation of the said archdeaconry of Maidstone, become and be permanently annexed and united thereto; and that the first and every future archdeacon of Maidstone shall, upon being duly collated as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall be invested with all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon of the same church, and shall hold and enjoy the same so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Maidstone, and no longer:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said diocese and archdeaconries, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts."

And whereas, previously to laying the said scheme before Her Majesty in Council, notice thereof was given, to the Dean and Chapter of the metropolitical church of Christ, Canterbury, and to the Archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Canterbury, and no objection was made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions "abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued, from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce of, to, and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, of the tenth of August last, certain duties of Customs are imposed upon goods imported into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope; and whereas in the table of duties annexed to the said Order in Council, under the head of wood, the word "manufactured" was erroneously inserted in the said table, instead of the word "unmanufactured," wherefore it is expedient to revoke the said Order in Council, so far as it imposes any duty on manufactured wood, and to issue an amended Order, with reference to such duty; Her Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of Her Privy Council, so revoke the said Order in Council of the tenth of August last, so far as it imposes a duty on

Wood manufactured, viz.	£.	s.	d.
Mahogany, Rosewood, and Teakewood, per cube foot	-	-	0 0 3
All other Wood, not the produce of the United Kingdom, per cube foot	-	-	0 0 2

And Her Majesty doth further, in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid by the said recited Act of Parliament, order, and it is hereby ordered, that there shall be levied, in lieu of such duty, the following rate, that is to say:

Wood unmanufactured, viz.	£.	s.	d.
Mahogany, Rosewood, and Teakewood, per cube foot	-	-	0 0 3
All other Wood, not the produce of the United Kingdom, per cube foot	-	-	0 0 2

And it is hereby further ordered, that the duties set forth in the foregoing table shall be levied, paid, received, and appropriated, in the like manner as if the same had been imposed by an Order in Council of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and set forth therein; and it is hereby further ordered, that this Order shall come into operation from the time when the same shall be made known in the said colony by a proclamation of the Governor of the said colony:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Church Commissioners' Office,
 June 2, 1841.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a district to Trinity Chapel, in the parish of St. Mary the Virgin, in the town of Dover, in the county of Kent, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 131:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 1st day of April 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. Mary the Virgin, in the town of Dover, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, contained a population of 9753 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1670 persons, there is one chapel recently built by your Majesty's said Commissioners, which affords accommodation to 1552 persons, including 969 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said last-mentioned chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called Trinity Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes; and that such district should be named "The Trinity District," with boundaries as follows:

"It is proposed that the boundaries of this district, commencing at the South Pier-head, should run along the western side of the outer and inner harbours to the south corner of the house on the Victualling-quay, now uninhabited; but formerly occupied by Mr. Michael Elwin; that the boundary line should be carried along the south-west side of the said house to its western angle, and then cross Stroud-street, diagonally, to the corner house of Stroud-street, now occupied by Mr. Thomas Wood, grocer; and thence be carried, in a straight line, between the dwelling-houses of the late Edward Thompson, Esq. (now belonging to Messrs. Coleman and Company, wine-merchants), and Mr. Bicknell, baker, to the boundary of St. Mary's parish, at the Cliff; and that from this point, westward, the boundary line of the proposed district should be the present boundary line of St. Mary's parish, passing to the eastward of Archcliffe-fort; thence to the Bulwark-rock, and so, turning to the eastward, along the beach to the South Pier-head, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured pink:

"That the consent of His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Archbishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners therefore beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

WILLIAM JOHNSTON, Accountant, in Glasgow, trustee on said sequestrated estates, hereby intimates, that the accounts current of his intromissions have been audited and approved of by the Commissioners, and that the same, with states of affairs, together with a scheme of ranking and division among the Company's creditors, lie for inspection, in the counting-house of Mein and Johnston, 129, Ingram-street here, till the 5th day of July next, on which day, in said office, the trustee will pay an equalizing dividend to those creditors whose claims were not ranked in time for the former dividend, and also a final dividend to the creditors ranked, all in terms of the Statute.

Heirs Wanted to Persons of the Name of Dick.

Edinburgh, May, 1841.

ANY person who can prove propinquity to the late Forbes Dick and Douglas Dick, both of Glasgow, are requested to apply as under.

Douglas Dick and Forbes Dick were the sons of David Dick, Shoemaker, sometime in Canongate, and of Jean Airth, his spouse. David Dick died sometime before the end of last century, leaving, it is understood, four children, Douglas, Forbes, Ann, and another daughter. Douglas was a Manufacturer in Glasgow, and died in 1820, without issue. Forbes resided for sometime in Greenock, and afterwards in Glasgow, and died lately, also without issue. Ann died some years ago, without issue. The remaining daughter is understood to have gone many years since to England; but although advertised for about 1820, and every exertion made to discover her, no certain trace of her, or of any descendants, has ever been found.

David Dick appears to have lived in Canongate from about at least 1760 till his death, but nothing has been discovered tending to shew who his relations were.

Applications to be made to Messrs. A. and A. M'George, Writers, Glasgow, or Messrs. W. A. G. and R. Ellis, W. S. Edinburgh.
