AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of June 1841.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to carry into effect certain stipulations contained in a treaty of commerce and navigation between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, and to empower Her Majesty to declare, by Order in Council, that ports, which are the most natural and convenient shipping ports of states within whose dominions they are not situated, may, in certain cases, be considered; for all purposes of trade with Her Majesty's dominions, as the national ports of such states," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, it should be lawful, notwithstanding any thing contained in the Act of the third and fourth of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for Her Majesty, from time to time, to declare by Her Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, that all Austrian vessels arriving from the ports of the Danube, as far as Galatz inclusively, should, together with their cargoes, whether such cargoes were the produce of Austria or not, be admitted into the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all possessions of Her Majesty, exactly in the same manner as if such vessels came direct from Austrian ports; and that thereupon, and for so long a time as such Order should be declared to be in force or remain unrevoked, it should be lawful to import into the British dominions from such ports of the Danube, in Austrian ships, any goods which, by the laws in force at the time of such importation, might be there imported in Austrian ships from Austrian ports:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased, in pursuance of the power and authority in Her vested by the said Act, to order and declare, and doth hereby order and declare, that all Austrian vessels arriving from the said ports of the Danube, as far as Galatz inclusively, shall, together with their cargoes, whether such cargoes shall be the produce of Austria or not, be admitted into the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all possessions of Her Majesty, exactly in the same manner as if such vessels came direct from Austrian ports:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of June 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend an Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England or Wales shall petition Her Majesty to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such charter, if she shall think fit, by the advice of Her Privy Council, to grant the same, to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough, within the district to be set forth in such charter, all the powers and provisions of the Act of the fifth and sixth William Fourth, cap. 76, for regulating corporations, whether such town or borough be or be not a corporate town or borough, or be or be not named in either of the schedules to the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same may be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition shall be so considered;

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the towns or boroughs of Tynemouth, Sheffield, Huddersfield, and South Shields, have presented certain petitions to Her Majesty in Council, praying charters of incorporation for the said towns or boroughs, Her Majesty is this day pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Friday the twentieth day of August next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to order and direct, that all petitions and documents, whether in favour of or against the said charters, shall be lodged by the respective parties, at the Council Office, on or before the thirteenth day of August next.

To Capitalists, Builders, and others.

In the Exchequer.—Pope v. Garland.—Peremptory Sale. The last portion of the valuable leasehold property of the late William Law, Esq. called the Park, at Peckham.

TO be sold to the best bidder, in one lot, by Messrs. Closs and Son, pursuant to a Decree of the said Court, and with the approbation of Richard Richards, Esq. the Master, to whom the said cause stands referred, at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, Cornhill, London, on Wednesday the 28th of July 1841, at twelve o'clock;

A very valuable leasehold estate, consisting of four substantial and neat brick-built family residences, with large gardens and fore-courts, and a substantial and neat detached cottage residence, called Park-house; also a lodge, of neat elevation; now in the several occupations of Messrs. Philpot, Mitchell, and others.

Also upwards of eight acres of eligible building-ground, occupied by Messrs. Hedges and Hargood, as garden ground.

The whole estate, comprising ten acres, held under lease for the term of forty-six years and a half from Michaelmas 1840, at a ground rent of £130 per annum, and at present producing £275 per annum, but capable of being increased (at a moderate computation) to upwards of £400 per annum.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Monday the 14th day of June, in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1841, between Kelynge Greenway and Edward Greaves, plaintiffs; Thomas Ross Broufield, Thomas Henry Blackburn Venour, Hannah Edwards, and William Edwards, Luana his wife, and Thomas Wood, defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Metcalfe and Mr. Jacob, of counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs, on the 20th day of March 1840, exhibited their bill in this Court against the defendants, as by the Six Clerks' certificate, now produced and read, appears, and took out process of subpoena, requiring them to answer the same; but the defendants, William Edwards and Luana his wife, and Thomas Wood, have not yet appeared to the said bill; that upon enquiry at the usual places of abode of the said defendants they are not to be found, so as to be served with such process, and are gone out of the realm, or do abscond to avoid being served therewith, as by the affidavit of George Cattell Greenway and John Smith, now read, appears; and it also appears by the affidavit of the said George Cattell Greenway, that the said defendants have been in England within two years before the issuing of the said subpoena: it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendants, William Edwards and Luana his wife, and Thomas Wood, do appear to the plaintiffs' bill on or before the 15th day of July next.
