ALEX. M'KENZIE, Witness.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the agreement subsisting between Elijah Hibbert and John Mayall, for working and turning the Cotton Mill or Factory belonging to them, situate at Hey, in the parish of Ashton-under-Line, in the county of Lancaster, was put an end to, by mutual consent, on the 29th day of May 1838, at which time the share of the said Elijah Hibbert in the said mill, and the steam engines, boilers, steam pipes, and going gear therein, was let to the said John Mayall; and that the said mill or factory has been since the said period, and will continue to be worked and turned by the said John Mayall on his own account.—Dated the 29th day of June 1841.

E. HIBBERT.

JOHN MAYALL.

EDWARD KITE, deceased.

ANY person who may have found, or be in possession of, the last will and testament of Edward Kite, late of Margate, Yeoman (formerly a Chaise Driver), who died on or about the 9th day of March 1826, and will deliver the same to Messrs. Boys and Son, Solicitors, Margate, on behalf of Susanna Kite, the widow and executrix of the deceased, shall receive five pounds reward.—Margate, 14th July 1841.

In the matter of JOHN FOSS, deceased.

WHEREAS John Foss, late of the borough of Derby, Gentleman, deceased, by his will, bearing date the 2d of January 1834, directed that, after payment of the legacies and annuities therein mentioned, certain trust moneys should be paid to his nephew, Thomas Foss, the son of his late brother, Thomas Foss, formerly residing at Horbling, near to Billingborough, in the county of Lincoln, which said nephew had gone abroad, and had not been heard of for several years, and that if his said nephew did not appear and claim the said trust property, within six calendar months from the death of the last surviving annuitant under his said will, then, that his executors should pay the said trust moneys to another of his the said testator's nephews; and whereas the last surviving annuitant under the said will died on or about the 14th of March last; notice is hereby given, that if the said Thomas Foss, the nephew above mentioned, shall not appear and claim his share of the said trust property, within six calendar months from the said 14th day of March last, such share will be paid and appropriated as by the said will is directed, and the said Thomas Foss, the nephew, will be excluded from all benefit or advantage arising therefrom.
