At the Rolls, Master of the Rolls.—Wednesday the 7th day of July, in the fifth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, 1841, between John Young, plaintiff; Charles Garrard English and others, defendants.

FORASMUCH as the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls was this present day informed by Mr. Bagshawe, of counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff, on the 2d day of March 1841, exhibited his bill in this Court against the defendants, as by the Six Clerks' certificate, now produced and read, appears, and took out process of subpoena, requiring the defendants to appear and answer the same; but the defendant, Charles Garrard English, hath not yet appeared to the said bill; that upon enquiry at the said defendant's usual place of abode he is not to be found, so as to be served with such process, and is gone out of the realm, or doth abscond to avoid being served therewith, as by the affidavit of Ambrose Parsons, now read, appears; and it also appears by the said affidavit that the said defendant has been in England within two years before the issuing of the said subpoena; it is thereupon ordered, that the said defendant do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 1st day of August next.

J. C.—Entered E. R.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause the Attorney-General against Bullen, and bearing date the 10th day of July 1840, it was ordered, among other things, that the Master of the said Court in rotation should cause two advertisements to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in one or more of the newspapers circulated in the county of Dorset, where the Charity Estate, the subject of the information in the said cause, is situate, giving notice, that the representative or representatives of the last surviving trustee in whom the said charity estate and hereditaments was vested, in trust, for the charitable purposes in the pleadings in the said information, should, within twenty-eight days, appear before such Master, or give him notice of his, her, or their title, and prove his, her, or their pedigree or other title as trustee, and, if no person should appear to give such notice, shall not, within thirty-one days after such appearance or notice, prove his title to the satisfaction of such Master, then that the said Master should appoint proper persons to be new trustees of the said charity estate; and whereas by certain indentures of lease and release, bearing date respectively the 9th and 10th days of July 1685, the said charity estate was vested in Sir Richard Grobham How, of Wishford, in the county of Wilts, Knt. and Bart. Sir Thomas Mompesson, of the Close of New Sarum, in the said county of Wilts, Knt. Robert Hyde, of Dinton, in the
