TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1841.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of June 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

1. WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend a certain Order made by His late Majesty King William the Fourth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, for the management and collection of His said Majesty's revenues at Gibraltar, and bearing date at the Court at Saint James's, on the fourth of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three; it is, therefore, hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the schedule annexed to the said Order of His late Majesty be abolished and rescinded, and that the schedule to this Order annexed, marked A, and intituled, "Schedule of Rates and Duties referred to and established by the foregoing Order," be substituted in lieu thereof; and that all the provisions in the said Order of His late Majesty, which apply to the schedule to the said Order annexed, shall apply to the schedule annexed to this Order, save and except such provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty as are hereby repealed.

2. And it is hereby further ordered, that no spirits, strong waters, or cordials, of a greater strength than nine in one hundred over proof by Sykes's hydrometer, shall be admitted for consumption within the garrison or territory of Gibraltar, save and except rum and spirits the produce of Great Britain, British colonies or plantations; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect spirits to be infused into wines.

3. And it is hereby further ordered, that a quantity, not exceeding the proportion of seven gallons of spirits to one pipe of wine, shall be allowed free of duty, to be infused into a pipe of wine under the following regulations, that is to say, two hours' notice of the intention to infuse must be given to the Master or to the Clerk of the Porters, under the superintendence of one of which Officers the infusion must be made; if the whole of the spirits is not at any one time infused, the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall ascertain the strength and quantity of the spirits that remain uninfused, which may be left in the custody of the owner, for a period not exceeding three days; and, if not used for infusion during that period, the spirits must be removed to the Queen's stores, at the expence and risk of the owner thereof, in the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken, or the duty mentioned in the schedule for spirits consumed in the garrison and territory must be paid thereon; if the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall, during the period of three days above-mentioned, discover any alteration in the strength or quantity of the remaining uninfused spirits, or if there shall have been any removal thereof from the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken, the person or persons, in whose custody such spirits may have been left, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding five pounds. The full contents of the cask, and strength of the spirits intended for infusion, will be marked by the Queen's Gauger on each cask or package at the time of the removal thereof from the wharf or the Queen's stores, and, if any alteration be made in such marking, the owner or person, in whose name the permit for removal is granted, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding five pounds; provided always, that the privilege of infusing spirits, free of duty, into wines, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, shall not be allowed to any licenced retail dealer in wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, within the said garrison and territory.

4. And whereas, in and by the said Order of His late Majesty, it is ordered, that no person or persons shall sell by retail, within the said garrison and territory, any wines in less quantities than three gallons, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, in less quantities than twenty-five gallons, without taking out a licence for that purpose, in the manner in the said Order prescribed; and whereas it is expedient that one dozen bottles of wine, in a case, as usually imported, may be sold by retail within the said garrison and territory without such licence as aforesaid, although such dozen of bottles may not contain three gallons; and whereas it is also expedient that a less quantity of spirits, strong waters, and cordials, than twenty-five gallons, such spirits, strong waters, and cordials being in the Queen's stores, may be sold without such licence as aforesaid; it is, therefore, hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful to sell by retail, within the said garrison and territory, one dozen bottles of wine, in a case, basket, or package, as originally imported, without such licence as aforesaid; provided always, that such dozen bottles of wine do not contain less than one gallon and a half; and also that it shall and may be lawful to sell by retail, within the said garrison and territory, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, such spirits, strong waters, and cordials, being in the Queen's stores, in any quantity not less than two gallons, any thing in the said Order of His late Majesty to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

5. And it is hereby further ordered, that, upon the landing of any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, at Waterport, a quantity, not exceeding one quart, may be taken by way of sample, free of duty, from all pipes, butts, or botassos, under the superintendence of an officer connected with the Revenue Department; and a quantity, not exceeding one pint, may be taken, free of duty, for the same purpose, from all smaller casks, under the same superintendence; and it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of Revenues for the time being, if he shall deem it expedient, to allow samples, in like quantities, to be taken from botassos and other casks in the Queen's stores.

6. And it is hereby further ordered, that all casks, cases, and packages of wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, liable to the payment of duty, at Gibraltar, shall be opened, at the expence of the owner, before being removed for consumption from the wharf at Waterport, or from the Queen's stores, or, if wine, from any other place, in order that the quantity and strength of such wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, may be ascertained by the Queen's Gauger.

7. And it is hereby further ordered, that no spirits, strong waters, or cordials, either in casks, cases, or bottles, shall be landed at, or introduced into, the said garrison and territory, for consumption therein, nor shall be removed or taken out of the Queen's stores for consumption in the said garrison and territory, in less quantity, at any one time, than two gallons; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, if he shall think proper, from granting permission, under his hand, for the landing at, or introduction into, the said garrison and territory, for consumption therein, or for the removal from the said stores, for consumption in the said garrison and territory, of cordials, in less quantity than two gallons.

8. And is hereby further ordered, that casks, cases, or packages, of whatever size or description, containing wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, be received and kept in the Queen's stores at the rates mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, the said rates being payable at the time the said casks, cases, or packages, whether full or otherwise, are removed from the said stores, or when demanded, at any time previously to such removal, by the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues, or, in his name, by any Assistant Inspector; and no casks, cases, or packages, shall be received into the said stores unless they be in good and substantial condition ; and all wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, shall be taken out of the said stores only in the same casks, cases, and packages, in which they shall have been received therein ; nor shall any quantity whatsoever be removed from the said casks, cases, or packages, except for samples, in manner herein before-mentioned ; and no wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, shall be mixed or made up in the said stores ; provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, to grant permission, in writing under his hand, if he shall deem it expedient, and under such restrictions as he shall deem expedient, for the racking of wines, or reinforcing them with brandy in the said stores.

9. And whereas, in and by the said Order of His late Majesty, it is ordered, that no wines, exceeding in quantity four gallons, shall be removed from any one place in the said garrison and territory to any other place therein, without a permit, to be granted in the manner in the said Order mentioned ; it is, therefore, hereby further ordered, that the quantity of such wines, so to be removed without such permit, shall be limited to three gallons, instead of four gallons.

10. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if any person or persons shall introduce, or attempt to introduce, into the garrison or territory of Gibraltar, or shall land, or attempt to land, thereat any goods, wares, and merchandize, contrary to the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, or of this Order, or shall sell or remove, or attempt to sell or to remove, any wines or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, within the said garrison and territory, contrary to the said provisions, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds for each of the said offences, together with all such goods, wares, and merchandize, and all such wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, and the casks, bottles, cases, or packages containing the same, and all vessels and boats, carts, horses, or other animals employed in such introducing or landing of such goods, wares, and merchandize, or in such sale or removal of such wines, and such spirits, strong waters, and cordials.

11. And it is hereby further ordered, that permits for the removal of wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, may be granted by the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or, in his absence, by the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, in the manner prescribed by the said Order of His late Majesty for the granting thereof by the said collector.

12. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be discretionary with the police magistrate for the time being, to grant, or refuse to grant, to persons applying for them such licences as are prescribed by the said Order of His late Majesty to be granted under the hand and seal of the said police magistrate ; and whereas it is expedient to shorten the period for which certain of the said licences may be in force under the provisions of the said Order ; it is, therefore, ordered, that no licence to sell by retail any wines, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, in the manner in the said Order, or in this Order, mentioned, or to keep any public tavern, or any public billiard table, shall be or continue in force for a longer period than six months from the date of such licence ; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect any licences already granted under the authority of the said Order of His late Majesty.

13. And it is hereby further ordered, that the description and designation of casks with reference to the revenue of Gibraltar, and the payment of rates or duties, shall be as follows, viz.

All casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be less than eighteen gallons, will be deemed half quarter casks.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be from eighteen to thirty gallons, both inclusive, to be deemed quarter casks.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than thirty gallons, and not more than forty-two gallons, to be deemed tierces.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than forty-two gallons, and not more than seventy-five gallons, to be deemed hogsheads.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than seventy-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and twenty-five gallons, to be deemed pipes or butts.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than one hundred and twenty-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and sixty-five gallons, to be deemed botasses.

14. And it is hereby further ordered, that all bottles contained in any one package, and in which wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, liable to the payment of duty, shall be imported or introduced into the garrison and territory of Gibraltar, shall be of one uniform size and shape.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the Imperial gallon shall be the standard of measure in all cases wherein the term gallon is used in this Order.

15. And it is further ordered, that the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, shall frame and make such rules and regulations as to him, from time to time, shall appear expedient, for the management and collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar; such rules and regulations, nevertheless, not to be binding, until the same shall be approved of by the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, and shall be published by proclamation within the said garrison and territory.

16. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if any person or persons shall have in his, her, or their custody or possession any wines, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, on which the duty mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed shall not have been paid, or which shall have been introduced, landed, or removed, contrary to the provisions of this Order, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds, together with all such wines and such spirits, strong waters, and cordials.

17. And it is hereby further ordered, that no person or persons shall carry on or exercise, within the said garrison and territory, the trade, business, occupation, or calling of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar, or porter, or let to hire any truck or cart, or keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, or eating house, or public billiard table, without taking out a licence for such purpose; and the said licence shall be granted under the hand and seal of the Police Magistrate for the time being, and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars as to the said Police Magistrate shall, from time to time, appear fit and proper, and no such licence as aforesaid shall be granted till the person or persons applying for the same shall enter into a bond, with two sufficient sureties, to Her Majesty, her heirs, and successors, in such penal sum as to the said Police Magistrate shall seem expedient, conditioned for the full and faithful observance of the rules and regulations as mentioned in the said Order of His late Majesty, to be, from time to time, framed and made.

18. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any person or persons shall keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, or eating house, or any public billiard table, or shall carry on or exercise the trade, business, occupation, or calling of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar, or porter, or shall let to hire any cart or truck, within the said garrison and territory, without such licence as is hereinbefore described, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

19. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties or forfeitures incurred or imposed by the said Order of His said late Majesty, or by this Order, not exceeding the sum of ten pounds, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, either in the manner and form prescribed for that purpose in the said Order of His late Majesty, or by oath of one credible witness before any Justice of the Peace of the said garrison and territory, and shall be levied, if not immediately paid, by warrant, under the hand and seal of such justice, upon the goods and chattels of the offender; and, in case no such goods or chattels can be found, then and in that case such person or persons shall and may be imprisoned, in the provost of the said garrison and territory, for any period not exceeding three months, any thing in the said Order of His late Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

20. And it is hereby further ordered, that all and singular the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, touching and concerning the possession of things illegally imported, introduced, or removed, the seizing of things, the custody, condemnation, and disposal of things seized, the mitigation of penalties, and the division thereof, and of the proceeds of things seized or the value thereof, the person to whom rates and duties shall be paid, the interrupting or opposing of Revenue Officers or injuring things seized, the person on whom proof of certain things shall lie with respect to things seized, and the period within which certain actions shall be brought, shall apply to this Order and all matters and things herein contained, save and except as it is herein otherwise ordered.

21. And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the schedule annexed to a certain other Order, made by His late Majesty, to ratify and confirm regulations for the government of sea-going vessels, and of lighters and boats in the port of Gibraltar, and bearing date at the Court at Saint James's, on the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, the said schedule being intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every Lighter, Boat, or other Craft licenced through the year;" it is, therefore, hereby ordered, that the said schedule be wholly abolished and rescinded, and that the schedule annexed to this Order, marked B, intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every Lighter, Boat, or other Craft licenced during the year," be substituted in lieu of the said schedule annexed to the said Order of His late Majesty; and that all and singular the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, which apply to the schedule annexed to the said Order, shall apply to the schedule annexed to this Order, marked B, and intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every Lighter, Boat, or other Craft licenced during the year."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Charles Edmund Keene, of Swyncombe-house, in the county of Oxford, Clerk, only surviving son and heir of Benjamin Keene, late of the same place, Esq. deceased, sometime Representative in Parliament for Cambridge, by Mary his wife, only child and heir of George Ruck, formerly of Swyncombe aforesaid, Esq. also deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, as a mark of grateful and affectionate respect towards his maternal family, of which he is the heir and sole representative, take and henceforth use the surname of Ruck, in addition to, and immediately before, the surname of Keene:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

*Church Commissioners'-Office,
July 17, 1841.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a chapelry district to St. Mary's Church, Vincent-square, in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the city of Westminster, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of June 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion, that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes, whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish, for his consent to make such division, and, for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council; and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the city of Westminster and diocese of London, contained a population of 22,648 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 2008 persons, there is one chapel in the said parish, recently erected by your Majesty's Commissioners, in Vincent-square, called St. Mary's Church, which affords accommodation to 1219 persons, including 806 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called Saint Mary's Church, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament; for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named "The District of St. Mary, Tothill-fields, with boundaries as follows :

"The boundary shall be and begin at the point where the great sewer discharges itself into the Thames, proceeding, in a north west direction, along the middle of the above-named sewer, having the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, abutting on it on the left, or south west side, until it reaches the bridge, where the parishes of St. George, Hanover-square; St. Margaret's, Westminster; and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, unite; it shall then proceed, in a north direction, along the boundary of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, to a street called Old Rochester-row North, or Brunswick-place; it shall then proceed, in an east direction, down the middle of this aforesaid Old Rochester-row North, or Brunswick-place, and Grey Coat-place, to the north east corner of the wall of the Grey Coat Hospital; then, down the middle of the Horseferry-road, in a southerly direction, till it reaches the line of demarcation between the properties of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster and the Marquess of Westminster; it shall then proceed, in a south direction, following the said line across Page-street, and behind the houses on the west side of Esher-street, across Wilton-street, and so along an open ditch to the point where the said ditch takes an easterly direction; from this point it shall proceed, southerly, in a direct line to the Vauxhall Bridge-road, meeting the said road at right angles; from thence it shall proceed, easterly, to the foot of Vauxhall-bridge; and then, turning to the south westward, to the mouth of the sewer, along the bank of the River Thames, to where the boundary commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated in the map annexed, and is therein coloured green :

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising from baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel forthwith; and also the fees for marriages after the next avoidance of the said church of St. John the Evangelist :

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
