

they be in good and substantial condition; and all wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, shall be taken out of the said stores only in the same casks, cases, and packages, in which they shall have been received therein; nor shall any quantity whatsoever be removed from the said casks, cases, or packages, except for samples, in manner herein before-mentioned; and no wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, shall be mixed or made up in the said stores; provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, to grant permission, in writing under his hand, if he shall deem it expedient, and under such restrictions as he shall deem expedient, for the racking of wines, or reinforcing them with brandy in the said stores.

9. And whereas, in and by the said Order of His late Majesty, it is ordered, that no wines, exceeding in quantity four gallons, shall be removed from any one place in the said garrison and territory to any other place therein, without a permit, to be granted in the manner in the said Order mentioned; it is, therefore, hereby further ordered, that the quantity of such wines, so to be removed without such permit, shall be limited to three gallons, instead of four gallons.

10. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if any person or persons shall introduce, or attempt to introduce, into the garrison or territory of Gibraltar, or shall land, or attempt to land, thereat any goods, wares, and merchandize, contrary to the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, or of this Order, or shall sell or remove, or attempt to sell or to remove, any wines or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, within the said garrison and territory, contrary to the said provisions, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds for each of the said offences, together with all such goods, wares, and merchandize, and all such wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, and the casks, bottles, cases, or packages containing the same, and all vessels and boats, carts, horses, or other animals employed in such introducing or landing of such goods, wares, and merchandize, or in such sale or removal of such wines, and such spirits, strong waters, and cordials.

11. And it is hereby further ordered, that permits for the removal of wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, may be granted by the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or, in his absence, by the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, in the manner prescribed by the said Order of His late Majesty for the granting thereof by the said collector.

12. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be discretionary with the police magistrate for the time being, to grant, or refuse to grant, to persons applying for them such licences as are prescribed by the said Order of His late Majesty to be granted under the hand and seal of the said police magistrate; and whereas it is expedient to shorten the period for which certain of the said licences may be in force under the provisions of the said Order; it is, therefore, ordered, that no licence to sell by retail any wines, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, in the manner in the said Order, or in this Order, mentioned, or to keep any public tavern, or any public billiard table, shall be or continue in force for a longer period than six months from the date of such licence; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect any licences already granted under the authority of the said Order of His late Majesty.

13. And it is hereby further ordered, that the description and designation of casks with reference to the revenue of Gibraltar, and the payment of rates or duties, shall be as follows, viz.

All casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be less than eighteen gallons, will be deemed half quarter casks.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be from eighteen to thirty gallons, both inclusive, to be deemed quarter casks.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than thirty gallons, and not more than forty-two gallons, to be deemed tierces.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than forty-two gallons, and not more than seventy-five gallons, to be deemed hogsheads.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than seventy-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and twenty-five gallons, to be deemed pipes or butts.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than one hundred and twenty-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and sixty-five gallons, to be deemed botasses.
