ELECTION OF A TEMPORAL PEER.

IN pursuance of an Act, passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to regulate the mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, on the part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned to the said Parliament," I do hereby give notice, that the Right Honourable Richard Baron Castlemaine has been chosen to be the Peer to sit in the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, in the room of Somerset Lowry Earl of Belmore, deceased.

C. Fitz-Simon,
Clerk of the Crown and Hanaper.

Whitehall, July 19, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Charles Edmund Keene, of Swyncombe-house, in the county of Oxford, Clerk, only surviving son and heir of Benjamin Keene, late of the same place, Esq. deceased, sometime Representative in Parliament for Cambridge, by Mary his wife, only child and heir of George Ruck, formerly of Swyncombe aforesaid, Esq. also deceased, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, as a mark of grateful and affectionate respect towards his maternal family, of which he is the heir and sole representative, take and henceforth use the surname of Ruck, in addition to, and immediately before, the surname of Keene:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of a chapelry district to St. Mary's Church, Vincent-square, in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the city of Westminster, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of June 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches, in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion, that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish, for his consent to make such division, and, for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council; and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in
