FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1841.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of June 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

1. WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend a certain Order made by His late Majesty King William the Fourth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, for the management and collection of His said Majesty's revenues at Gibraltar, and bearing date at the Court at Saint James's, on the fourth of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three; it is, therefore, hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the schedule annexed to the said Order of His late Majesty be abolished and rescinded, and that the schedule to this Order annexed, marked A, and intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties referred to and established by the foregoing Order," be substituted in lieu thereof; and that all the provisions in the said Order of His late Majesty, which apply to the schedule to the said Order annexed, shall apply to the schedule annexed to this Order, save and except such provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty as are hereby repealed.

2. And it is hereby further ordered, that no spirits, strong waters, or cordials, of a greater strength than nine in one hundred over proof by Sykes's hydrometer, shall be admitted for consumption within the garrison or territory of Gibraltar, save and except rum and spirits the produce of Great Britain, British colonies or plantations; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect spirits to be infused into wines.

3. And it is hereby further ordered, that a quantity, not exceeding the proportion of seven gallons of spirits to one pipe of wine, shall be allowed free of duty, to be infused into a pipe of wine under the following regulations, that is to say, two hours' notice of the intention to infuse must be given to the Master or to the Clerk of the Porters, under the superintendence of one of which Officers the infusion must be made; if the whole of the spirits is not at any one time infused, the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall ascertain the strength and quantity of the spirits that remain uninfused, which may be left in the custody of the owner, for a period not exceeding three days; and, if not used for infusion during that period, the spirits must be removed to the Queen's stores, at the expence and risk of the owner thereof, in the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken, or the duty mentioned in the schedule for spirits consumed in the garrison and territory must be paid thereon; if the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall, during the period of three days above mentioned, discover any alteration in the strength or quantity of the remaining uninfused spirits, or if there shall have been any removal thereof from the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken, the person or persons, in whose custody such spirits may have been left, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding five pounds. The full contents of the cask, and strength of the spirits intended for infusion, will be marked by the Queen's Gauger on each cask or package at the time of the removal thereof from the wharf or the Queen's stores, and, if any alteration be made in such marking, the owner or person, in whose name the permit for removal is granted, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding five pounds; provided always, that the privilege of infusing spirits, free of duty, into wines, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, shall not be allowed to any licencedetail dealer in wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, within the said garrison and territory.

4. And whereas, in and by the said Order of His late Majesty, it is ordered, that no person or persons shall sell by retail, within the said garrison and territory, any wines in less quantities than three gallons, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, in less quantities than twenty-five gallons, without taking out a licence for that purpose, in the manner in the said Order prescribed; and whereas it is expedient that one dozen bottles of wine, in a case, as usually imported, may be sold by retail within the said garrison and territory without such licence as aforesaid, although such dozen of bottles may not contain three gallons; and whereas it is also expedient that a less quantity of spirits, strong waters, and cordials, than twenty-five gallons, such spirits, strong waters, and cordials being in the Queen's stores, may be sold without such licence as aforesaid; it is, therefore, hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful to sell by retail, within the said garrison and territory, one dozen bottles of wine, in a case, basket, or package, as originally imported, without such licence as aforesaid; provided always, that such dozen bottles of wine do not contain less than one gallon and a half; and also that it shall and may be lawful to sell by retail, within the said garrison and territory, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, such spirits, strong waters, and cordials, being in the Queen's stores, in any quantity not less than two gallons, any thing in the said Order of His late Majesty to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

5. And it is hereby further ordered, that, upon the landing of any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, at Waterport, a quantity, not exceeding one quart, may be taken by way of sample, free of duty, from all pipes, butts, or botassos, under the superintendence of an officer connected with the Revenue Department; and a quantity, not exceeding one pint, may be taken, free of duty, for the same purpose, from all smaller casks, under the same superintendence; and it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of Revenues for the time being, if he shall deem it expedient, to allow samples, in like quantities, to be taken from botassos and other casks in the Queen's stores.

6. And it is hereby further ordered, that all casks, cases, and packages of wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, liable to the payment of duty, at Gibraltar, shall be opened, at the expence of the owner, before being removed for consumption from the wharf at Waterport, or from the Queen's stores, or, if wine, from any other place, in order that the quantity and strength of such wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, may be ascertained by the Queen's Gauger.

7. And it is hereby further ordered, that no spirits, strong waters, or cordials, either in casks, cases, or bottles, shall be landed at, or introduced into, the said garrison and territory, for consumption therein, nor shall be removed or taken out of the Queen's stores for consumption in the said garrison and territory, in less quantity, at any one time, than two gallons; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, if he shall think proper, from granting permission, under his hand, for the landing at, or introduction into, the said garrison and territory, for consumption therein, or for the removal from the said stores, for consumption in the said garrison and territory, of cordials, in less quantity than two gallons.

8. And is hereby further ordered, that casks, cases, or packages, of whatever size or description, containing wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, be received and kept in the Queen's stores at the rates mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, the said rates being payable at the time the said casks, cases, or packages, whether full or otherwise, are removed from the said stores, or when demanded, at any time previously to such removal, by the Inspector of Her Majesty's Revenues, or, in his name, by any Assistant Inspector; and no casks, cases, or packages, shall be received into the said stores unless they be in good and substantial condition ; and all wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, shall be taken out of the said stores only in the same casks, cases, and packages, in which they shall have been received therein ; nor shall any quantity whatsoever be removed from the said casks, cases, or packages, except for samples, in manner herein before-mentioned ; and no wines, spirits, strong waters, or cordials, shall be mixed or made up in the said stores ; provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, to grant permission, in writing under his hand, if he shall deem it expedient, and under such restrictions as he shall deem expedient, for the racking of wines, or reinforcing them with brandy in the said stores.

9. And whereas, in and by the said Order of His late Majesty, it is ordered, that no wines, exceeding in quantity four gallons, shall be removed from any one place in the said garrison and territory to any other place therein, without a permit, to be granted in the manner in the said Order mentioned ; it is, therefore, hereby further ordered, that the quantity of such wines, so to be removed without such permit, shall be limited to three gallons, instead of four gallons.

10. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if any person or persons shall introduce, or attempt to introduce, into the garrison or territory of Gibraltar, or shall land, or attempt to land, thereat any goods, wares, and merchandize, contrary to the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, or of this Order, or shall sell or remove, or attempt to sell or to remove, any wines or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, within the said garrison and territory, contrary to the said provisions, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds for each of the said offences, together with all such goods, wares, and merchandize, and all such wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, and the casks, bottles, cases, or packages containing the same, and all vessels and boats, carts, horses, or other animals employed in such introducing or landing of such goods, wares, and merchandize, or in such sale or removal of such wines, and such spirits, strong waters, and cordials.

11. And it is hereby further ordered, that permits for the removal of wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, may be granted by the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, or, in his absence, by the Inspector of the said Revenues for the time being, in the manner prescribed by the said Order of His late Majesty for the granting thereof by the said collector.

12. And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be discretionary with the police magistrate for the time being, to grant, or refuse to grant, to persons applying for them such licences as are prescribed by the said Order of His late Majesty to be granted under the hand and seal of the said police magistrate ; and whereas it is expedient to shorten the period for which certain of the said licences may be in force under the provisions of the said Order ; it is, therefore, ordered, that no licence to sell by retail any wines, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, in the manner in the said Order, or in this Order, mentioned, or to keep any public tavern, or any public billiard table, shall be or continue in force for a longer period than six months from the date of such licence ; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect any licences already granted under the authority of the said Order of His late Majesty.

13. And it is hereby further ordered, that the description and designation of casks with reference to the revenue of Gibraltar, and the payment of rates or duties, shall be as follows, viz.

All casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be less than eighteen gallons, will be deemed half quarter casks.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be from eighteen to thirty gallons, both inclusive, to be deemed quarter casks.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than thirty gallons, and not more than forty-two gallons, to be deemed tierces.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than forty-two gallons, and not more than seventy-five gallons, to be deemed hogsheads.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than seventy-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and twenty-five gallons, to be deemed pipes or butts.

Casks, the full contents of which, when gauged, shall be more than one hundred and twenty-five gallons, and not more than one hundred and sixty-five gallons, to be deemed botassos.

14. And it is hereby further ordered, that all bottles contained in any one package, and in which wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, liable to the payment of duty, shall be imported or introduced into the garrison and territory of Gibraltar, shall be of one uniform size and shape.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the Imperial gallon shall be the standard of measure in all cases wherein the term gallon is used in this Order.

15. And it is further ordered, that the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, shall frame and make such rules and regulations as to him, from time to time, shall appear expedient; for the management and collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar; such rules and regulations, nevertheless, not to be binding, until the same shall be approved of by the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, and shall be published by proclamation within the said garrison and territory.

16. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if any person or persons shall have in his, her, or their custody or possession any wines, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, on which the duty mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed shall not have been paid, or which shall have been introduced, landed, or removed, contrary to the provisions of this Order, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds, together with all such wines and such spirits, strong waters, and cordials.

17. And it is hereby further ordered, that no person or persons shall carry on or exercise, within the said garrison and territory, the trade, business, occupation, or calling of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar, or porter, or let to hire any truck or cart, or keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, or eating house, or public billiard table, without taking out a licence for such purpose; and the said licence shall be granted under the hand and seal of the Police Magistrate for the time being, and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars as to the said Police Magistrate shall, from time to time, appear fit and proper, and no such licence as aforesaid shall be granted till the person or persons applying for the same shall enter into a bond, with two sufficient sureties, to Her Majesty, her heirs, and successors, in such penal sum as to the said Police Magistrate shall seem expedient, conditioned for the full and faithful observance of the rules and regulations as mentioned in the said Order of His late Majesty, to be, from time to time, framed and made.

18. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any person or persons shall keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, or eating house, or any public billiard table, or shall carry on or exercise the trade, business, occupation, or calling of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar, or porter, or shall let to hire any cart or truck, within the said garrison and territory, without such licence as is hereinbefore described, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

19. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties or forfeitures incurred or imposed by the said Order of His said late Majesty, or by this Order, not exceeding the sum of ten pounds, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, either in the manner and form prescribed for that purpose in the said Order of His late Majesty, or by oath of one credible witness before any Justice of the Peace of the said garrison and territory, and shall be levied, if not immediately paid, by warrant, under the hand and seal of such justice, upon the goods and chattels of the offender; and, in case no such goods or chattels can be found, then and in that case such person or persons shall and may be imprisoned, in the provost of the said garrison and territory, for any period not exceeding three months, any thing in the said Order of His late Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

20. And it is hereby further ordered, that all and singular the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, touching and concerning the possession of things illegally imported, introduced, or removed, the seizing of things, the custody, condemnation, and disposal of things seized, the mitigation of penalties, and the division thereof, and of the proceeds of things seized or the value thereof, the person to whom rates and duties shall be paid, the interrupting or opposing of Revenue Officers or injuring things seized, the person on whom proof of certain things shall lie with respect to things seized, and the period within which certain actions shall be brought, shall apply to this Order and all matters and things herein contained, save and except as it is herein otherwise ordered.

21. And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the schedule annexed to a certain other Order, made by His late Majesty, to ratify and confirm regulations for the government of sea-going vessels, and of lighters and boats in the port of Gibraltar, and bearing date at the Court at Saint James's, on the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, the said schedule being intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every Lighter, Boat, or other Craft licenced through the year;" it is, therefore, hereby ordered, that the said schedule be wholly abolished and rescinded, and that the schedule annexed to this Order, marked B, intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every Lighter, Boat, or other Craft licenced during the year," be substituted in lieu of the said schedule annexed to the said Order of His late Majesty; and that all and singular the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, which apply to the schedule annexed to the said Order, shall apply to the schedule annexed to this Order, marked B, and intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties to be paid for every Lighter, Boat, or other Craft licenced during the year."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Money for Creditors.—Hyde's Estate.

THE creditors of Thomas Hyde, late of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Woollen Cord Manufacturer, may receive a third and final dividend at the office of Mr.

Thomas Wright Hodgson, Accountant, No. 1, in the Exchange-buildings, Manchester, on Tuesday the 27th and Saturday the 31st days of July instant, or on any subsequent Tuesday or Saturday in the month of August, between the hours of ten and one o'clock in the forenoon; and all creditors are hereby requested to take notice, that all claims not then made against this estate will be disallowed.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Haddon, John Clark, and John Porter, all late of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Merchants, and late carrying on business there under the firm of James Haddon and Company, and at Maranham and Para, in the empire of Brazil, under the respective firms of Haddon, Clark, and Company, and Haddon, Porter, and Company, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Monday the 16th day of August next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the office of Messrs. North and Orred, in Exchange-alley, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, at a price then to be mentioned, or thereafter to be agreed to by the said assignees, all the right and interest (if any) of the said assignees of and in certain moneys alleged to be due to the said assignees, or to certain other persons, then to be named, as the alleged mortgagees thereof, or to both of the said parties, in certain proportions, from the Imperial Government of Brazil, for compensation for certain losses, expences, and damages sustained or incurred by the estate of the said bankrupts, in or about the year 1835, or the occasion of the insurrection of the negroes, at Para aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing, at a price then also to be mentioned, or to be thereafter agreed to by the said assignees, all or any of the debts due, or claimed to be due, to the said bankrupts' estate from persons resident in Brazil, or elsewhere abroad, with a view to facilitating the early winding up and closing of the affairs of the said bankrupts, and a final dividend thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Newsome, of Dewsbury, in the county of York, Oil Crusher, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 16th day of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the house of Mr. William Ockerby, the Royal Hotel, in Dewsbury aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling all or any part or parts of the said bankrupt's stock and implements of trade, goods, fixtures, and all other his estate and effects whatsoever, either wholly or partly by public auction, or wholly or partly by private contract, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price or prices as to them shall seem beneficial to the creditors, and either upon credit or for ready money, or partly upon credit and partly for ready money, with power to buy in and again in like manner to sell the same, without being accountable for any loss or damage which may happen to the estate thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees paying and allowing certain expences which were incurred previous to the issuing of the said fiat, in and about the preparing and getting executed a certain deed of assignment by the said bankrupt, for the equal benefit of all his creditors, the particulars whereof will be submitted to the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant or the said bankrupt, or any person or persons they may think proper, to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupt; and to the assignees making to such person or persons such compensation for his or their trouble as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing and giving up, to the owner thereof a certain mill and premises of which the said bankrupt was tenant, upon such terms and conditions as the said assignees may think most advantageous, or otherwise to sell and dispose of the interest of the said bankrupt therein to any other person or persons, and upon such terms as they may think best; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Edward Swanwick Boulton and Thomas Addison, both of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Stock and Share Brokers, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Saturday the 14th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Messrs. Forshaw and Blundell, in Orange-court, Castle-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing a clerk, late in the employ of the said bankrupts, or an accountant, or any other person or persons they may think proper, to collect and get in the outstanding debts and effects belonging to the said bankrupts' estate, and to make up and adjust the books and accounts of the said bankrupts, and to the assignees making to such clerk, or to such other person or persons, such compensation for his or their trouble as may appear to the said assignees proper and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment of any charges and expenses which the petitioning creditors of the said assignees under the said fiat, or any of them, shall or may have incurred, or which shall or may have arisen, or may hereafter arise, in attending to the affairs of the said bankruptcy; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling to the said bankrupts, either or both of them, the household furniture and effects late belonging to both or either of the said bankrupts, and that either upon a valuation or appraisement to be submitted and agreed upon, or at such other price or prices to be named at such meeting, or to sell the same household furniture and effects, and all other the estate and effects of the said bankrupts wheresoever, either wholly or partly by public auction, or wholly or partly by private contract, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price or prices as shall seem to them beneficial to the creditors, and either upon credit or for ready money, or partly upon credit and partly for ready money, with power to buy in, and again, in like manner to sell the same, without being accountable for any loss or damage which may happen to the estate thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or in the Court of Review, or any other proceeding which may hereafter at any time become necessary for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupts' estates and effects, or which may be necessary for the rights of any parties claiming to prove against the estates of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making such arrangement, either by annulling or cancelling, or by payments (by certain parties to be named at such meeting) of such sums or sums of money as the said assignees may think beneficial to the estate, all or any contract or contracts for the sale, or purchase and delivery of any stock or shares, and whether such shares and stock should or ought to have been delivered or deliverable at days and times prior to the date of the said fiat or subsequent thereto, or at days and times hereafter to arrive; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees realizing, by public auction or private sale, or otherwise, certain stock and shares to be specified at such meeting, and now held by certain persons, who will also be named at such meeting, and who claim to hold the same as mortgagees, or as having legal or equitable claims or liens thereon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting compositions from or giving time for payment of their several debts to the several debtors of the said bankrupts, whose names will be stated at the said meeting; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto, and receiving part of any debt or debts in discharge of the whole thereof, or taking security for payment of the same, or giving time to such debtor or debtors for payment of his, her, or their debts, with or without security; and generally to allow and confirm all the measures already adopted and taken by the said assignees under the said fiat, in relation to the estates and effects of the said bankrupts, and to authorise them to get in and about the management of the said bankrupts' estate as to them shall seem most expedient and proper.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements; the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 22d day of July 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

And on the 22d day of July 1841, by CHARLES MAYBERRY, of Earl's-court, Old Brompton, in the county of Middlesex, Boarding and Lodging Housekeeper, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
