FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1841.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 11th day of August 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Edward John Stanley, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of June 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to carry into effect certain stipulations contained in a treaty of commerce and navigation between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, and to empower Her Majesty to declare, by Order in Council, that ports, which are the most natural and convenient shipping ports of states within whose dominions they are not situated, may, in certain cases, be considered, for all purposes of trade with Her Majesty's dominions, as the national ports of such

"states," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, it should be lawful, notwithstanding any thing contained in the Act of the third and fourth of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, for Her Majesty, from time to time, to declare by Her Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, that all Austrian vessels arriving from the ports of the Danube, as far as Galatz inclusively, should, together with their cargoes, whether such cargoes were the produce of Austria or not, be admitted into the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all possessions of Her Majesty, exactly in the same manner as if such vessels came direct from Austrian ports; and that thereupon, and for so long a time as such Order should be declared to be in force or remain unrevoked, it should be lawful to import into the British dominions from such ports of the Danube, in Austrian ships, any goods which, by the laws in force at the time of such importation, might be there imported in Austrian ships from Austrian ports:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased, in pursuance of the power and authority in Her vested by the said Act, to order and declare, and doth hereby order and declare, that all Austrian vessels arriving from the said ports of the Danube, as far as Galatz inclusively, shall, together with their cargoes, whether such cargoes shall be the produce of Austria or not, be admitted into the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all possessions of Her Majesty, exactly in the same manner as if such vessels came direct from Austrian ports :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, August 11, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to order a writ to be issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for summoning the Right Honourable Henry Charles Howard (commonly called Earl of Surrey) to the House of Peers, by the stile and title of Baron MalTravers.

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom to General John Earl of Stair, of that part of the said United Kingdom called Scotland, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Oxenfoord, of Cousland, in the county of Edinburgh; with remainder, in default of such issue male, to North Dalrymple, of Fordel and Cleland, Esq. (brother of the said John Earl of Stair), and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten.

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom to Valentine Earl of Kenmare, of that part of the said United Kingdom called Ireland, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Kenmare, of Castle Rosse, in the county of Kerry.

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom to the Right Honourable George Hamilton Chichester (commonly called Earl of Belfast), and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Ennishowen and Carrickfergus, of Eunishowen, in the county of Donegal, and of Carrickfergus, in the county of Antrim.

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignities of Baron, Viscount, and Earl of the said United Kingdom, to Charles Noel Lord Barham, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the names, stiles, and titles of Baron Noel, of Ridlington, in the county of Rutland, Viscount Campden, of Campden, in the county of Gloucester, and Earl of Gainsborough, in the county of Lincoln.

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignity of an Earl of the said United Kingdom, to William Fitzhardinge Lord Segrave, and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Earl Fitzhardinge.

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom, unto Lieutenant-General the Right Honourable Sir Richard Hussey Vivian, Bart., G.C.B., and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Vivian, of Glynn and of Truro, in the county of Cornwa .

The Queen has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the said Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the said United Kingdom to the Right Honourable Sir Henry Brooke Parneſſ, Bart. and the heirs male of His body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Congleton, of Congleton, in the county palatine of Chester.

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 29, 1841.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock yards with Train and Pale Seal Oil.

A distribution of the oil and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 6, 1841.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 23d September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 15,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 16,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, three fourth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one fourth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

Beef, two thirds on or before the 31st March 1842; and one third on or before the 31st May 1842.

Pork, one third on or before the 31st March 1842; and two thirds on or before the 31st May 1842; and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantities beyond those specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

SALE OF OLD STORES AT WOOLWICH.

Valuable and commodious Ground, Iron and Brass Foundry, Boiler and Engine Manufactory, &c. at Kingston-upon-Hull.

TO be sold by auction (peremptorily and without reserve), by Mr. Thomas Daniels, by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners authorised by a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Charles Brereton, Joseph Vernon, and David Paul, of Hull, Engine Manufacturers, bankrupts, at the George Inn, in the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, on Friday the 10th day of September 1841, at one o'clock in the afternoon;

All those substantial and well built warehouses, foundries, boiler manufactories, and other buildings, called the Cyclops Foundry, in Alfred-street, in the lordship of Myton, within the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, consisting of

A warehouse or general store-room, 40 feet square and 28 feet high, together with four large offices and draughtsmen's rooms over the same, handsomely fitted with every kind of convenience.

An iron foundry, adjoining the said warehouse, 100 feet long by 40 feet wide, and 28 feet high, and having attached thereto a four horse steam engine and boiler, together with a blower and furnace, and a large crane well adapted to the said foundry.

A brass foundry and furnace, situate within the said iron foundry.

A smith's shop or engine manufactory, 161 feet long, 24½ feet wide, and 28 feet high; it comprises a ground floor and chamber, and is in every respect well adapted for forging, turning, and every operation in the manufacture of steam engines and other machinery of any description.

A boiler shop or manufactory, 91 feet long by 47 feet wide, containing a furnace of a superior construction for heating plates.

Also a model maker's shop, carpenter's and coppersmith's shops, together with a coke house.

There is also a very spacious and commodious yard, containing, with the site of the buildings, 5962 square yards.

The above premises are freehold of inheritance, and in every respect exceedingly well adapted for carrying on a very extensive business, and having a public street on one side and the river Humber on another, to which river is a right of fore-shore, and being in the immediate vicinity of the Hull and Selby Railway Station and the Hull Docks, every facility for land and water carriage and other purposes, at a cheap rate, is afforded, and the great number of steamers belonging and resorting to Hull, together with other numerous local and daily increasing advantages, and demands for machinery of all descriptions, render the present a most eligible opportunity for a safe and profitable investment, of rare occurrence.

Immediate possession may be had of the premises, and, for a view and other particulars, application may be made to Messrs. Dyas Lofthouse and Thomas Siminon, the assignees; to Mr. James Oldham, Civil Engineer; the Auctioneer; or to Messrs. Lightfoot and Earnshaw, Solicitors, Bowl-alley-lane, Hull.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Nathaniel Burton, of Mark-lane, in the city of London, Corn Factor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 3d day of September next, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, or otherwise adjusting, certain matters in difference and dispute between the said assignees and Messrs. Hugh and J. Johnston and Co. relating to a certain ship called the Windsor Castle, possessed by the said Messrs. Hugh and J. Johnston and Co. under a bill of sale made to them by the said bankrupt, dated the 6th day of November 1840, but claimed by the said assignees notwithstanding such bill of sale; and to assent to or dissent from the said Messrs Hugh and J. Johnston and Co. being authorized to sell the ship, upon their undertaking to account to the said assignees for the proceeds thereof, after deducting such reasonable costs, charges, and expences, in respect of such ship, as have been incurred by them; and in the event of any difference arising as to what are reasonable costs, charges, and expences, incurred by Messrs. Hugh and J. Johnston and Co. in respect of such ship; to assent to or dissent from such differences being referred to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees instituting and adopting such proceedings at law or in equity, or by petition in the Court of Review, as they may be advised, for recovering possession of such portion of the cargo of the said ship belonging to the said assignees, or of referring any question arising out of any claim made, or to be made to the said cargo, to arbitration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of such debt or debts in discharge of the whole, or giving time for payment of any such debt or debts, with or without security, as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting any disputes that may have arisen, or that may hereafter arise, between the said assignees and any other person or persons whomsoever, touching any matter connected with the estate of the said bankrupt, to the determination of arbitrators, or otherwise agreeing the same, as to the said assignees shall seem advisable, and generally to empower the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate and to wind up the affairs of the same, as the said assignees shall deem most advantageous to the creditors; and on other special affairs.
