

" that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not, in all respects, be fulfilled by such foreign country :"

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to grant, pending negotiations for a treaty of commerce between Chili and Great Britain, the privileges aforesaid to the ships of Chili, recognized as such by the British navigation laws; Her Majesty doth, therefore, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the said last recited Act of Parliament, declare and grant, that it shall and may be lawful for Chilian ships (recognized as aforesaid) to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the dominions of Chili, goods, the produce of those dominions, and to export goods from such possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever; provided, that, if British subjects and commerce in Chili shall, at any time, cease to enjoy all the privileges, whatever they may be, which the subjects and commerce of any other foreign nation may enjoy in Chili, then such permission to trade with the British colonies shall immediately be withdrawn :

Provided always, that the privileges granted shall be confined to Chilean vessels, built, owned, and navigated in manner required by the British laws of navigation.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.
