

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Sunday January 19 to Thursday January 22. 1684.

Warsaw, December 26.

THE King of Poland continues at Zolkiew, and is not expected here till towards the meeting of the Dyet, which is appointed to be on the 20th of February. Count Wallasain, the Emperor's Ambassador has taken his leave of his Majesty in order to his return home; and the Baron de Treytag is coming in his place. The King, we are told, has resolved to send an Ambassador to the Czars of Moscovy to endeavour to adjust amicably the Differences that are depending between the two Nations concerning their Limits, &c. The Crown General is still at Leopol, where the Commissioners are assembled for regulating divers matters concerning the Winter-quarters. The Letters from Hungary tell us that Count Teckelej was drawing his Troops together with a design to fall upon the Imperialists in their Winter-quarters, who are, it's said, in a very ill condition through want of provisions and other necessaries.

Venice, December 30. The Great Council met the 26th Instant and confirmed the resolution taken by the Senate to encrease the number of the Procurators of St. Marke (as was done during the War of Candia) upon condition that those upon whom this Dignity is conferred, shall pay each 25000 Ducats. In pursuance whereof the Senate have named Signior Francisco Corinari, formerly Ambassador from this State in Spain, to be one of the new Procurators, and he has accepted of it and received the usual Complements thereupon. The Baron Degenfeldt, who was at the raising the Siege of Vienna, General of the Elector of Bavaria's Troops, is received into the Service of the Republick, and the Senate have given him a Commission to raise 3000 Germans. Signior Andrea Navagier, one of the four Nobles named by the Senate to assist Captain-General Morofini with their advice is made Captain Extraordinary of the Galeasses in the place of Signior Giacomo, who has the Government of the three Islands. The Patriarch of Venice has promised to give 3000 Ducats yearly to be employed in the present War. The Sieur Amelot the French Ambassador has taken his leave of the Senate, and will part from hence the next week. The last Letters from Dalmatia gave an account that the Provéditeur-General Valier hath put the Troops of the Republick into Winter-quarters; but that the Morlaques continue their Incursions into the Turkish Territories, from whence they return for the most part with good store of Plunder. By a Vessel arrived here this week we are informed, that General Morofini continues at Prevesa; and that for the greater strength of that place he had resolved to bring the Water round it. Our advices from the Levant say the Grand Signior was resolved to remain at Adrianople, but that the Grand Visier would pass the Winter at Belgrade to hasten the preparations for the next Campaign, which they say the Turks intend to begin very early.

Vienna, January 9. The Letters from Hungary bring us the following particulars of the late defeat of the Rebels. Count Teckelej had had a Conference with the Bassa of Agria at Rimasombz, in which they resolved to attempt the relief of Nembusel, pursuant to the Orders the said Bassa had received from the Serafquier before he left Hungary: Count Teckelej accordingly drew his Horse together and marched with them to joyn the Bassa of Agria, who had likewise assembled what Troops he could out of the Neighboring Garisons; But General Schultz having notice of it, parted the 15th past with his Cavalry from Prezowitz, within two miles of Zeben, and having marched all night, fell upon Count Teckelej the next morning early near Tglo, before he could put his Troops into a posture of defence; About 300 of them were killed upon the place and the rest fled; And Count Teckelej and the Count de Nadass who was with him, escaped very narrowly, their Baggage and even their private Papers and Letters being taken. The last week we had an account that the Imperialists had taken a considerable quantity of Corn which the Country People were carrying in 25 Wagons drawn each with six Oxen to Nembusel; but we hear since that 300 Wagons laden with all sorts of Provisions are got into the place under the Convoy of 3000 Horse. They write from Gran that the Turks continued their design of laying a Bridge over the Danube between Buda and that place, and that they have provided a great many Boats for that purpose; These Letters add, that the Husars of that Garison were frequently abroad in Parties, and that they had taken several prisoners from under the Cannon of Buda. The Count de Daun, we are told, has succeeded very well in his Negotiations with several Princes of the Empire. The Elector of Cologne has promised to assist the Emperor with 6000 men at his own charge, and has besides put a Regiment of Horse and another of Dragoons into the Emperor's Service, which are to be paid by his Imperial Majesty, and disposed of as he thinks fit. The City of Cologne is to send 600, and the Elector of Mentz 1000 men to the Emperor's assistance. The Sieur Dièden is come hither from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel to offer the Emperor several Regiments, and Commissioners are appointed to confer with him thereupon. Some Troops

Troops are likewise expected from the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburg. The Count de Hohenlohe, Envoy Extraordinary from the States of Franconia, had yesterday a Conference with the Count de Comingssecque to adjust matters concerning the march and subsistence of the Troops which that Circle is to furnish. We do not hear that the Treaty with the Princes of Lunenburg is yet concluded. The Duke of Lorraine is gone to meet the Queen Dowager of Poland his Wife, who is coming hither from Insprucke.

Vienna, January 10. The News of the Turks having put a supply of Provisions into Newbenfels is confirmed, but with this difference, that some Letters say, it was not brought in Wagons, but by 3900 Horsemen, who had each a Sack of Corn behind him, of whom there got about 300 into the Town. It is not yet publicly known what Business the Armeaican, we mentioned in our last, is sent hither upon.

Ratisbonne, January 11. The Imperial Commissioners have acquainted the Dyct that the Emperor will for this time allow that the States assembled here shall depute some persons to be joined with his Commissioners, for settling the Limits between the Empire and the Crown of France, but upon condition that it be of no consequence for the future, and that the method lately observed at Francfort between the Imperial Ministers and the Deputies of the Empire be likewise practised in this occasion.

Brussels, January 19. The Count de Bergeycke returned hither on Tuesday last from visiting the Gaissons in Brabant, who have all received a months Pay; and this morning he parted again from hence to Muster the Troops in the Province of Haynault. And that the Soldiers may be punctually paid, the Marquis de Grana has stopt the Penions of the several Councils and of the Chamber of Accounts, resolving to apply all the publick Moneys for the payment of the Army, till supplies come from Spain. On Wednesday last was kept the Annual Feast of St. Anthony, at which the Marquis de Grana and all the Nobility were present; The Entertainment, which was very magnificent, was given by Don Antonio d'Agurto Maître de Camp General of the Forces in these Countries, the Prevost, and the Prince de la Tour was chosen Prevost for the next year. The Letters from Vienna of the 7th Instant tell us, that the Turks have put a Convoy of Provisions into Newbenfels.

Brussels, January 23. We are told that the intended Reform of the Troops will now be very suddenly put in execution. The English Regiment is removed from Gaunt to Damme, and the Irish from Audenarde to Newport. Our Spanish Letters inform us of the Prince de Chim's arrival at Madryd, and that he was in nomination to be General of the Horse in Catalonia; And that 2000 men were raising in that Kingdom for the service of Milan.

La Hague, January 23. The States of Holland were from their meeting on Wednesday last till Saturday, when they adjourned again for three or four days, almost wholly taken up with the Business depending between the Court of Justice and the Town of Dort; And agreed, it's said, at last upon this Expedient, That the Proceedings on both sides should be annulled and made void, as if they had never been, but without any consequence or prejudice to the Rights or Priviledges of either; And that this being done, the Town of Dort should make the Nomination of their Magistrates as they have been used to do; Hereupon the Deputies which we told you in our last were come hither from that City returned home again on Saturday; and since we are informed that the several Companies or Trades of Dort have made a new Nomination of persons to be presented to the Prince of Orange, who is to choose out of them the Magistrates for that City; and the Commissioners of the Court of Justice that were sent thither, are expected back to morrow.

Paris, January 27. The King has named the Count de Cheverny, at present his Envoy Extraordinary at Vienna, to go in quality of his Ambassador to the Court of Denmark. The Courier which the Popes Nuncio sent to Genoua, upon his obtaining a prolongation of the Term which his Most Christian Majesty had given that Republick, is expected back here to morrow or next day. The march of the Guards is fixed for the first of the next month. The Mandarims of Siam parted from hence on Tuesday last for Brest, whither they will in few days be followed by the Chevalier de Chaumont, and the Abbot de Choisy, Ambassadors to the King of Siam, in order to their embarking and taking that Voyage together.

Advertisements.

☞ An Exact Relation of the Imperial Expedition in Hungaria in the year 1684. wherein is contained an Impartial account of the Siege and defence of the City of Buda from day to day; with a Delineation of the Imperial Camp and of the Town. By a Chief Military Officer who served in the Siege. Translated into English, and Printed for R. Taylor near Stationers-Hall.

☞ A Musical Entertainment, both Vocal and Instrumental, Performed at the Annual Feast upon St. Ciccily's-day November 22. 1683. Composed by Mr. Henry Purcell Composer in Ordinary to His Majesty, and Organist of His Royal Chapel. A Musical Entertainment both Vocal and Instrumental, Performed at the Annual Feast upon St. Ciccily's-day November 22. 1684. Composed by Dr. John Blow Organist of His Majesty's Royal Chapel, and Master of the Children of the same Chapel. The Division Violin containing several choice Divisions for the Treble Violin to a Ground Bass, Fairly Engraven on Copper Plates, being the first of this sort of Musick ever published. Price 2 s. 6 d. Which three Books are sold by J. Playford near the Temple Church, and by J. Carr at the Middle Temple Gate.

These are to give notice, That there is to be sold at the House of Mrs. le Vasseur in Denmark Court over against Beaufort-street in the Strand, a very good Library of Books of all Sciences, curiously Bound, and several Household Goods; The Sale will begin on Tuesday the 27th Instant.

Stolen or strayed out of Gamlingay Park in Cambridge-shire, a New England tame Fawn about two years old, with Knobs instead of Horns, and white streaks on each side of her Nose, soft brown Skin, and a Coller about her Neck with Sir George Downings name. Whoever gives notice of her to John Suttle at Gamlingay Park aforesaid, or to Sir George Downing at Hamstead, shall have Five Guineas reward.

Lost between London and Stratford upon Avon in Warwickshire, the 22. of October last, a Parcel directed to Mr. William Hunt, 33 Yards of Black Tiffency for Mourning Staves, two half Pieces of Figured Ribbon 4 d. broad, half a Piece of 20 d. Pink Colour Taffiny Ribbon, a Groce of Gimp Lacc mixt with Tincy, a Groce of Silk Buttons, a Dozen of Jet Necklaces, three Remnants of Hair Shag all of them containing 17 Yards 3 quarters. About Nov. 21. 2 Pieces of Stript Silk Norwich Crape, and two Pieces of mixt Norwich Sick Crape not Stript, directed to Mr. Will. Hunt aforesaid; Whoever gives notice of the Goods to Mr. Richard Newcomb at his Warehouse at the Ram Inn in West-Smithfield London, shall have 40 s. reward.

Lost about Cornhill or left in some Coffee-house theseabouts, a Pocket-Book, having an Old Almanack in it of the Date of the Year 80 or 81. with a Parchment Cover with several Notes and Papers in it. Whoever leaves it at Kemps Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley, they shall have Ten shillings reward.