

the time of his petitioning for the benefit of the said Act; and for the purpose of determining the course in future to be pursued by the assignee, in respect of the said real estate.—Dated August 31, 1841.

James Powell's, of Newtown, Insolvency.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the creditors of James Powell, late of Newtown, in the county of Montgomery, Currier, an insolvent debtor, who was lately discharged from Her Majesty's Gaol of Montgomery, in the county of Montgomery aforesaid, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria the First, intituled "An Act for abolishing arrest on mesne process in civil actions, except in certain cases; for extending the remedies of creditors against the property of debtors; and for amending the laws for the relief of insolvent debtors in England," will be held on Tuesday the 21st day of September instant, at four of the clock in the afternoon precisely, at the house of Richard

Jones, known by the sign of the Angel Inn, situate at Newtown, in the county of Montgomery aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the assignee of the said insolvent's estate commencing or prosecuting any suit or suits in equity, or any action or actions at law, for the recovery of certain real estates and hereditaments, situate in the several parishes of Llanlligan and Manafon, in the county of Montgomery aforesaid; and also to consider and determine whether it will be advisable to incur the expence of offering for sale, by public auction, the interest or claim (if any) which the said insolvent might have in or to the said real estates and hereditaments, and in case it may be thought advisable to offer the same for sale by public auction, then to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the same shall be offered for sale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding certain debts stated in the said insolvent's schedule to be due to him; and also to consider and determine whether it will be advisable to continue, commence, or prosecute any action or actions at law, for the recovery of any other of the debts mentioned in the said insolvent's schedule.
