

the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act; passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that when the last census was taken, the parish of Downton, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Salisbury, contained a population of 3652 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1100 persons, there are two chapels in the said parish, one at Minton, which affords accommodation to 250 persons, and one, recently erected, at Red Lynch, called Saint Mary's, Red Lynch, which affords accommodation to 420 persons, including 370 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said last-mentioned chapel, called St. Mary's Church, Red Lynch, has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, called St. Mary's Church, Red Lynch, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named "The District of Saint Mary's Church, Red Lynch," with boundaries as follows:

"It is bounded on the north and north east by the parish of White Parish, in the county of Wilts, in which parish Langley-wood (extra-parochial) is locally situate; on the east by the parish of Landford, in the said county of Wilts, and the extra-parochial hamlet of Nomansland; on the south east by the parish of Bramshaw, in the New Forest, Hants; on the south by the parish of Hale, in the county of Hants; on the west by portions of the tythings of East Downton and Church Tything, in the parish of Downton, and by the parish of Stand Lynch, in the county of Wilts, that is to say, proceeding north, along the centre of the road from Hale to Red Lynch (commencing at the point where that road enters the parish of Downton), as far as Red Lynch House; then west, along the centre of the road to the Downton, as far as Salt-lane; then north, along that lane and the Down road to Breckworth to the point where that road enters the parish of White Parish, as the same is more particularly delineated in the accompanying plan, and thereon tinted pink:

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Salisbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; and in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

KINGSTOWN HARBOUR LIGHTS.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, August, 1841.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin hereby give notice, that, on the evening of the 1st of October next, the appearance of the light hitherto shewn from the East Pier Head of Kingstown Harbour will be altered from the present revolving white light to a revolving light shewing white and red lights alternately, and seen at shorter intervals of time. A small fixed red light will also be exhibited from the West Pier Head. The lights so to be shewn will thenceforth be continued from sun-set to sun-rise.
