

Specification given of the Appearance of the Tower, &c. by Mr. Halpin, the Inspector of Light-houses.

The light at present shewn on the Kingstown East Pier Head is a revolving white light, shewing once in each minute. That to be exhibited on the 1st of October next will also be a revolving light, presenting white and red lights alternately, attaining their greatest brilliancy at equal intervals of 30 seconds.

The light will be shewn from the present timber building (which is coloured brown), and will be open to the harbour, and to seaward, as heretofore. It is elevated 34 feet above the level of high water springs, and 40 feet above the mean level of the sea.

A small fixed red light will, at same time, be shewn from the Kingstown West Pier Head.

The Kingstown East Pier Light-house bears from the Kish Bank Floating Light, W. by N.  $\frac{1}{4}$  N. distant  $6\frac{1}{2}$  nautic miles; from the Poolbeg Light, South, distant  $2\frac{1}{2}$  nautic miles.

The bearings given are magnetic.—Var.  $26^{\circ} 30'$  W.

By order,

H. Vereker, Secretary.

Shoreham-Bridge Tolls or Life Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship, granted pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for building a Bridge over the River Adur, at or near Old Shoreham, in the County of Sussex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Subscribers to the said bridge may receive their dividends arising from the annuity of £1200, received from his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, up to May last, by applying to us, the undersigned, at our offices, No. 5, Ship-street, Brighton, on or after the 29th day of September instant.

A certificate of the life of the nominee must be produced at the time of receiving the dividend, unless the nominees appear in person.

The Subscribers are desired to take notice, that if any person, entitled to receive any share of the said dividends, neglects to demand the same, for three years or more next after it shall become due, every such person forfeits the arrears of the share so neglected to be demanded, and the same is to be divided amongst the persons entitled to the dividends of the same class.

By order of the Trustees,

Attree, Clarke, and M'Whinnie.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 6, 1841.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 23d September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 15,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 16,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, three fourth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one fourth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

Beef, two thirds on or before the 31st March 1842; and one third on or before the 31st May 1842.

Pork, one third on or before the 31st March 1842; and two thirds on or before the 31st May 1842; and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantities beyond those specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
