NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Baptist Chapel, situated in the parish of Melbourn, in the county of Cambridge, and in the district of Royston and Buntingford, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 9th day of October 1841, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 12th day of October 1841,
Henny Thurnall, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

MAIDENS ROCKS LIGHT-HOUSES, NORTH EAST COAST OF IRELAND.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, September 9, 1841.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin hereby give notice, that an alteration is now in progress of being made in the appearance of the towers of the Maidens Rocks Light-houses; which, on and from the 1st of November next, will be marked with broad belts or zones.

Specification given of the Appearance of the Towers; by Mr. Halpin, the Inspector of Light-houses.

Those towers have been hitherto coloured white; the lower spaces will be still continued white—the central belts red—and, above these, white to the projecting galleries.

The red belts or zones will be nearly one third of the heights of the towers from their bases to the outside galleries; the belt being 18 feet in height on the North Light-house; the belt being 19 feet in height on the South Light-house.

Note.—No change will take place in the appearance of the lights.

By order,

H. Vereker, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to extend, alter, or amend the powers, provisions, and authorities given by, and contained in, the Deed of Settlement made on the establishment of the Imperial Fire Insurance Company, or to enable the said Company so to do; and also to give other powers and authorities to the said Company.

Le Blancs and Cook, Solicitors, New Bridge-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, or in the session to be held in the year 1842, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for lighting with Gas the town and county of the town of Nottingham;" or to repeal the said Act, and to grant further, better, and more effectual powers instead thereof.

And it is intended to apply for power in the said Bill to supply with gas the several parishes of Lenton, Radford, Basford, and Sneinton, in the county of Nottingham, and the several extra parochial places within the liberties of the Castle of Nottingham, and the Shire-hall and the premises belonging thereto, as well as the town and county of the town of Nottingham; and provision will be made for the collection of rents or rates for such supply.—Dated this first day of October 1841.

William Hurst, Nottingham, Solicitor for the Bill.

Saint Mary-le-Bone Parish,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in one or more Bill or Bills to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned or referred to, that is to say; an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing several Acts made in the eighth, tenth, thirteenth, and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" another Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act made in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for watching, paving, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof;" another Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable the vestrymen of the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, to build a new parish church and two or more chapels, and for other purposes relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two several Acts of the thirty-fifth and forty-sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving and improving the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in
