Whitehall, December 4, 1841.

THE Queen has been pleased to order letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, for creating His Royal Highness the Prince of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (Duke of Saxony, Duke of Cornwall and Rothsay, Earl of Carrick, Baron of Renfrew, Lord of the Isles, and Great Steward of Scotland), Prince of Wales and Earl of Chester.

Whitehall, December 7, 1841.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the demise of George late Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, which took place in or about the month of August 1826, the dignities of Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham devolved upon George-William now Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, as cousin and next heir male of the said George late Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the younger brother and sisters of the said George-William now Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their late father, George Finch-Hatton, of Eastwell-park, in the county of Kent, Esq. deceased, had survived the said George late Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and had thereby succeeded to the titles and dignities of Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that the Reverend Daniel-Heneage Finch-Hatton, Clerk, Master of Arts, Rector of Great Weldon, in the county of Northampton; Louisa-Anne, widow and relict of the late Honourable Charles Hope, a General in the Army, deceased; and Emily-Mary, wife of the Reverend Alfred-Charles Lawrence,

Clerk, Rector of Sandhurst, in the said county of Kent, the younger brother and only surviving sisters of the said George-William now Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, shall henceforth have, hold, use, and enjoy the same titles, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, the said George Finch-Hatton, had survived the said George late Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and had succeeded to the titles and dignities of Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham:

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 6, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Sir Robert-Henry Sale, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 13th (the 1st Somersetshire) Regiment of Foot, and serving with the rank of Major-General in Afghanistan, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia, of the first class, of the Order of the Dooranee empire, which His Majesty Shah Shooja-ool-Moolk, King of Afghanistan, hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of His Majesty's approbation of the services, from time to time, rendered by him during the campaign in Afghanistan; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 7, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Leonard-Lawrie Campbell, of Middleton-lodge, in
