

OLIVE OIL, imported in a ship belonging to any of the subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies, after thirty-first of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, the tun, - - 10 10 0

And whereas, in and by the said Act, after a recital that, whereas in the table of duties thereinbefore contained, duties, higher than in other cases, are imposed upon olive oil, being the produce of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, or being imported from those dominions, and that it may become expedient to reduce the said duties, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, to reduce the said duties to any sum, not being less than the duty payable upon olive oil, the produce of, or imported from, other places :

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in that behalf vested in Her Majesty by the said recited Act, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said higher duties on olive oil shall be reduced, in the cases and in manner hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

From and after the publication of this Order, the duty which shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in respect of olive oil, the produce of, and imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, in British ships, shall be four pounds four shillings the tun ; and the duty which shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in respect of olive oil, the produce of, and imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, in ships belonging to any of the subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies, shall be six pounds six shillings the tun :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

A 2

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division ; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Chester, at a general quarter session of the peace, holden at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on Monday the eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying that Audlem, Tarporley, and Frodsham, severally situate in the said southern division, may henceforth be polling places for the southern division of the said county :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Audlem, Tarporley, and Frodsham, shall be polling
