

is enacted, by the said Act now in recital, that it should and might be lawful for Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or them made, with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to declare what are the foreign powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting, and that the Act now in recital, and the said recited Act, should apply and should be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as should be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders should continue unrevoked, and no longer:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid in the session of Parliament held in the first and second year of Her reign, declare, that such a treaty as aforesaid, that is to say, a treaty, containing provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, is now subsisting with His Majesty the King of Sardinia, being a Treaty of Navigation between Her Majesty and the King of Sardinia, signed on the sixth of September last and ratified on the sixth of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-one:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for the assignment of chapelry districts to the chapels of St. Barnabas, King-square, and St. Paul, Finsbury, both in the parish of St. Luke, in the county of Middlesex, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, on the 21st day of October 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal; to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of tithes, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the pur-
