A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing a Peer of Scotland.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Thomas Earl of Elgin was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-house, at Edinburgh, on Wednesday the nineteenth day of January next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers in this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said Thomas Earl of Elgin, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principals Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and, immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain; and We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the tenth day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and in the fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of "Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Chester, at a general quarter session of the peace, holden at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on Monday the eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying that Audlem, Tarporley, and Frodsham, severally situate in the said southern division, may henceforth be polling places for the southern division of the said county:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Audlem, Tarporley, and Frodsham, shall be polling places for the southern division of the said county of Chester; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Chester, assembled at the general quarter session or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division of the said county of Chester into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend

" the laws relating to the Customs," it was, amongs other things, enacted, that the several duties set forth in figures in the table in the said Act contained should, in respect of such goods as are mentioned therein, be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, in the manner in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas the duties set forth in the said table, in respect of olive oil, are set forth as follows, that is to say:

OLIVE OIL, - - - the tun,	4	4	0
the produce of, or imported from, any part of the do- minions of the King of the Two Sicilies, after thirty-first of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, the tun,	-	8	8 0
imported in a ship belonging to any of the subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies, after thirty-first of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty- four, the tun,	-	-	10 10 0

And whereas, in and by the said Act, after a recital that, whereas in the table of duties thereinbefore contained, duties, higher than in other cases, are imposed upon olive oil, being the produce of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, or being imported from those dominions, and that it may become expedient to reduce the said duties, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, to reduce the said duties to any sum, not being less than the duty payable upon olive oil, the produce of, or imported from, other places:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in that behalf vested in Her Majesty by the said recited Act, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said higher duties on olive oil shall be reduced, in the cases and in manner hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

From and after the publication of this Order, the duty which shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in respect of olive oil, the produce of, and imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, in British ships, shall be four pounds four shillings the tun; and the duty which shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in respect of olive oil, the produce of, and imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, in ships belonging to any of the subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies, shall be six pounds six shillings the tun:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

A T the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal," divers provisions were made respecting the duties payable, and the bounties and allowances to be granted, upon the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandize into or from the United Kingdom, in vessels of the United States, and in Portuguese vessels, and respecting the repayment of certain corporations, bodies politic and corporate, and sundry other persons, of the amount of the sums of money of which they would be deprived by means of the Act now in recital; and it was, by the said Act now in recital, enacted, that the said Act now in recital should continue in force so long as the Convention, therein recited, between His said Majesty and the United States of America, and the Treaty, therein recited, between His said Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, and so long as any treaty to be made with any foreign power, with the similar provisions thereinbefore recited, should respectively continue in force; and whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second year of Her present Majesty, intituled " An Act to amend the laws of the Customs," after reciting, as herein-before is recited, and also that, subsequently to the enactment of the herein-before recited Act, Her Majesty and Her Royal Predecessors had made and concluded, with divers foreign powers, treaties, containing provisions similar to those recited in the said recited Act, and that doubts had arisen whether, according to the true construction thereof, the said recited Act did apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such other foreign powers, and that it was expedient that such doubts should be removed, it is thereby enacted and declared, that, from and after the ratification of any treaty theretofore made by Her Majesty or any of Her Royal Predecessors, subsequently to the enactment of the said recited Act, or of any treaty which might thereafter be made by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, with any such foreign power, in which treaty had been, or should be, contained provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act, all and every the provisions, clauses, matters, and things, in the said recited Act contained, did and should apply and extend to the trade and shipping of such foreign powers respectively as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as to the trade and shipping of the said United States, and of the said kingdom of Portugal :

And, for the prevention of uncertainty therein, it is enacted, by the said Act now in recital, that it should and might be lawful for Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, by any Order or Orders to be by Her or them made, with the advice of Her or their Privy Council, and published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to declare what are the foreign powers with which any such treaty or treaties as aforesaid is or are subsisting, and that the Act now in recital, and the said recited Act, should apply and should be deemed, from the time of the ratification of any such treaties, to have been applicable to the trade and shipping of such foreign countries as should be so mentioned in any such Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, so long as any such Order or Orders should continue unrevoked, and no longer :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the power and authority in Her vested by the Act so passed as aforesaid in the session of Parliament held in the first and second year of Her reign, declare, that such a treaty as aforesaid, that is to say, a treaty, containing provisions similar to those contained in the said recited Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, is now subsisting with His Majesty the King of Sardinia, being a Treaty of Navigation between Her Majesty and the King of Sardinia, signed on the sixth of September last, and ratified on the sixth of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-one :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, January 7, 1842.

Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse; the Right Honourable J. Nicholl, Judge Advocate General; George Carr Glyn, Esq.; and John Shaw Lefevre, Esq. to be Commissioners to conduct a strict investigation, with a view to ascertain in what manner Exchequer Bills have been made out and issued since the remodelling of the Exchequer by the Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, and to point out whether any and what defects are to be found in the existing system, and what additional checks or regulations can be established, with a view to guard in future against the forgery of Exchequer Bills, or against the fraudulent or unauthorised issue of them.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Drogheda-Harbour Light-Houses, East Coast of Ireland.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, December 9, 1841.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin hereby give notice, that three Light-houses have been erected at the entrance of Drogheda-harbour, from which lights will be shown on the evening of the 1st of March 1842, and thenceforth will continued to be lighted every night from sun-set to sun-rise.

Specification given of the Position and Appearance of the Buildings, by Mr. Halpin, Inspector of Light-houses:

Three light-houses, erected on timber framings, coloured brown, have been placed on the Sand-hills, at the entrance of the River Boyne or Drogheda-harbour. The East and West Lights, kept in line, will lead in the deepest water over Bar. The North Light will lead vessels, when within the Bar, to the Long Deep, which extends from abreast of the Maiden Tower towards the South Crook Point.

1. The Drogheda East Light is a fixed white light, open to seaward from E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. to S. E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. it is elevated thirty feet above the level of the high water of spring tides, and bears from the Helly Hunter Rock, off the entrance of Carlingford Lough, S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W distant 19 sea miles; Rock-a-Bill, N. N. W. distant $11\frac{1}{2}$ sea miles.

2. The Drogheda West Light is a fixed white light, open to seaward from E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. to S. E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. it is elevated forty feet above the level of the high water of spring tides, and bears from the East Light-house, W. by N. distant 300 feet.

The relative bearings of the East and West Lights will, whenever necessary, be changed as alterations may take place, either from the shifting of the sand banks or from the operations in progress for the improvement of the harbour.

3. The Drogheda North Light is a fixed light of red colour, open to Channel from within the Bar, it is elevated twenty-eight feet over the level of the high water of spring tides, and bears from the Bar Perch, N. W. distant 1588 yards; East Light-house, N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. distant 780 yards; Maiden Tower, N. N. W. distant 280 yards.

Vessels having passed to within the Bar, in the line of the East and West Lights, should, on opening the North Light, alter their course.

The bearings stated are magnetic.

By order,
H. Vereker, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter and amend some of the provisions of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from Sheffield, in the west riding of the county of York, to Manchester, in the county of Lancaster;" and that it is intended by the Act so to be applied for to enable the Sheffield, Ashton-under-Lyne, and Manchester Railway Company forthwith to borrow money on the credit of their undertaking, and to pay interest on monies already paid, or hereafter to be paid, by shareholders in the said undertaking, until the completion thereof; and also to facilitate the disposal of shares which have been, or may hereafter be, forfeited under the provisions of the said recited Act.

CONTRACTS FOR SUGAR, COCOA, TOBACCO, BISCUIT BAGS, AND CANVAS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, January 4, 1842.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th January instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the under-mentioned articles, viz.

Sugar (the produce of the British possessions), 100 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Cocoa, 70 tons; half to be delivered in three weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards.

Tobacco, 20 tons; half to be delivered in a fortnight, and the remainder in a fortnight afterwards.

Biscuit Bags large, 100,000 No.; one third to be delivered by the 30th April, another third by the 30th June, and the remainder by the 31st August next.

Biscuit Bags, small, 5000 No.; one third to be delivered by the 30th April, another third by the 30th June, and the remainder by the 31st August next.

Canvas for Pudding Bags, 3000 ells; to be delivered within two months.

Samples of the cocoa (not less than two pounds), and of the sugar intended to be supplied, must be produced by the parties tendering, and a sample of the tobacco, biscuit bags, and canvas, and of the description of sugar admissible, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and the tenders for sugar, cocoa, and biscuit bags must be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.
