NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Drogheda-Harbour Light-Houses, East Coast of Ireland.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, December 9, 1841.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the port of Dublin hereby give notice, that three Light-houses have been erected at the entrance of Drogheda-harbour, from which lights will be shown on the evening of the 1st of March 1842, and thenceforth will continued to be lighted every night from sun-set to sun-rise.

Specification given of the Position and Appearance of the Buildings, by Mr. Halpin, Inspector of Light-houses:

Three light-houses, erected on timber framings, coloured brown, have been placed on the Sand-hills, at the entrance of the River Boyne or Drogheda-harbour. The East and West Lights, kept in line, will lead in the deepest water over Bar. The North Light will lead vessels, when within the Bar, to the Long Deep, which extends from abreast of the Maiden Tower towards the South Crook Point.

1. The Drogheda East Light is a fixed white light, open to seaward from E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. to S. E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. it is elevated thirty feet above the level of the high water of spring tides, and bears from the Helly Hunter Rock, off the entrance of Carlingford Lough, S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant 19 sea miles; Rock-a-bill, N. N. W. distant 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ sea miles.

2. The Drogheda West Light is a fixed white light, open to seaward from E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. to S. E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. it is elevated forty feet above the level of the high water of spring tides, and bears from the East Light-house, W. by N. distant 300 feet.

The relative bearings of the East and West Lights will, whenever necessary, be changed as alterations may take place, either from the shifting of the sand banks or from the operations in progress for the improvement of the harbour.

3. The Drogheda North Light is a fixed light of red colour, open to Channel from within the Bar, it is elevated twenty-eight feet over the level of the high water of spring tides, and bears from the Bar

Perch, N. W. distant 1583 yards; East Light-house, N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. distant 780 yards; Maiden Tower, N. N. W. distant 280 yards.

Vessels having passed to within the Bar, in the line of the East and West Lights, should, on opening the North Light, alter their course.

The bearings stated are magnetic.

By order,

H. Vereker, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill, or for leave to introduce clauses into any Bill that may be pending in Parliament in the ensuing session relating to the property of the Dean and Chapter of York, to enable the canons of the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter of York, to purchase of the said dean and chapter, the residence house of the said canons, situate in the close of the said cathedral church, called the Minster Yard, in the city of York, and to appropriate certain funds now standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, and to borrow money for that purpose; also to authorise and sanction the exchange of certain property in the Minster Yard, and in the parishes of Saint Michael-le-Belfrey, and Saint John Delpike, in the said city, between the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral and metropolitan church and the said Dean. Also to authorise and sanction the purchase and appropriation by the said Dean and Chapter, of certain property in the said Minster Yard, and in the parishes aforesaid, for the use of the grammar school, founded in the said city by King Phillip and Queen Mary, and now called Saint Peter's Grammar School. Also to alter and amend, with reference to the objects aforesaid, the powers and provisions of the Acts following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the Minster Yard of the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter, in York, and other places adjacent thereto;" and of another Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for extending and rendering more effectual an Act of His late Majesty, for enlarging and improving the Minster Yard of the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter, in York;" and of another Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for vesting an estate belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter, in York, in trustees, for sale, and for laying out the monies arising from such sales, in the purchase of other estates to be settled to the same uses, subject, nevertheless, to making compensation to the Dean and Chapter, for the time being, for certain fines payable on renewal of the leases of the said first mentioned estate, and also for payment of certain debts due on account of the said cathedral church." Dated this twenty-first day of December 1841.

By order of Chapter,

Charles A. Thiselton, Registrar.
