FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1842.

Buckingham-Palace, February 3, 1842.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Deputy Garter King of Arms, and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, and the cap of maintenance by the Earl of Shaftesbury, in the absence of the Marquess of Winchester.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness Prince Albert on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left; Sir Augustus Clifford, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod; was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I CANNOT meet you in Parliament assembled, without making a public acknowledgement of my gratitude to Almighty God on account of the birth of the Prince, my son; an event which has completed the measure of my domestic happiness, and has been hailed with every demonstration of affectionate attachment to my Person and Government by my faithful and loyal people.

I am confident that you will participate in the satisfaction which I have derived from the presence, in this country, of my good Brother and Ally, the King of Prussia, who, at my request, undertook in person the office of Sponsor at the christening of the Prince of Wales.

I receive from all Princes and States the continued assurance of their earnest desire to maintain the most friendly relations with this country.

It is with great satisfaction that I inform you, that I have concluded, with the Emperor of Austria, the King of the French, the King of Prussia, and the Emperor of Russia, a Treaty for the more effectual suppression of the slave trade, which, when the ratifications shall have been exchanged, will be communicated to Parliament.

There shall also be laid before you a Treaty which I have concluded with the same Powers, together with the Sultan, having for its object the security of the Turkish empire, and the maintenance of the general tranquillity.

The restoration of my diplomatic and friendly intercourse with the Court of Tehran has been followed by the completion of a Commercial Treaty with the King of Persia, which I have directed to be laid before you.

I am engaged in negotiations with several Powers, which, I trust, by leading to Conventions founded on the just principle of mutual advantage, may extend the trade and commerce of the country.

I regret that I am not enabled to announce to you the re-establishment of peaceful relations with the Government of China.

The uniform success which has attended the hostile operations directed against that Power, and my confidence in the skill and gallantry of my naval and military forces, encourage the hope, on my part, that our differences with the Government of China will be brought to an early termination, and our commercial relations with that country placed on a satisfactory basis.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates for the year have been prepared, and will be laid before you.

I rely with entire confidence on your disposition, while you enforce the principles of a wise economy, to make that provision for the service of the country which the public exigencies require.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I recommend to your immediate attention the state of the finances and of the expenditure of the country.

You will have seen with regret that, for several years past, the annual income has been inadequate to bear the public charges; and I feel confident, that, fully sensible of the evil which must result from a continued deficiency of this nature during peace, you will carefully consider the best means of averting it.

I recommend also to your consideration the state of the laws which affect the import of corn, and of other articles, the produce of foreign countries.

Measures will be submitted for your consideration for the amendment of the Law of Bankruptcy, and for the improvement of the jurisdiction exercised by the Ecclesiastical Courts in England and Wales.

It will also be desirable that you should consider, with a view to their revision, the laws which regulate the registration of electors of Members to serve in Parliament.

I have observed, with deep regret, the continued distress in the manufacturing districts of the country.

The sufferings and privations which have resulted from it have been borne with exemplary patience and fortitude.

I feel assured that your deliberations on the various important matters which will occupy your attention will be directed by a comprehensive regard for the interests and permanent welfare of all classes of my subjects; and I fervently pray that they may tend in their result to improve the national resources, and to encourage the industry and promote the happiness of my people.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of February 1842.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in the Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy of the Church of England, provision is made for such alterations in the Prayers for the Royal Family as, from time to time, shall become necessary; it is, therefore, this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council that, in the Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Litany, and in all other parts of the Public Service, as well in the Occasional Offices as in the Book of Common Prayer, where the Royal Family is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following form and order shall be observed, viz.

Adelaide the Queen Dowager, the Prince Albert, Albert Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family.

And Her Majesty doth strictly charge and command, that no edition of the Common Prayer be henceforth printed, but in the form aforementioned; and that, in the meantime, and until copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates within this realm do (for the preventing of mistakes), with the pen, correct and amend all such Prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing direction: and, for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of February 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Most Noble Walter Francis Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased to deliver the custody of the Privy Seal to the Most Noble Walter Francis Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this day administered to him, and his Grace took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Most Noble James Brownlow William Marquess of Salisbury to be Lord Lieutenant of the county of Middlesex, and the Most Noble Brownlow Marquess of Exeter to be Lord Lieutenant of the county of Northampton, their Lordships this day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of February 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 15th day of January 1842.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is probable that the laws now in force in British India, for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's colonial possessions, will be shortly repealed, so far as respects emigration to the island of Mauritius; and that such last-mentioned emigration will be sanctioned by laws to be for that purpose enacted in India, subject to various provisions to be in such laws made for the protection of such emigrants, and for the prevention of abuses: and whereas it is probable that, amongst the provisions so to be made as last aforesaid, will be a provision for enabling the Governor General of India to appoint, at ports or places in India, officers charged with the care, protection, and superintendence of all persons proposing to emigrate as Labourers from India to Mauritius: and whereas it is probable that provision will be made by law, at Mauritius, for defraying, from the public revenue of that island, the expence of introducing immigrants thither from British India: and whereas it is necessary that effectual provision should be made by law, at Mauritius, for regulating any such expenditure, and for the prevention of abuses in the introduction of immigrants from British India into that island:

It is, therefore, hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, that, in the event of any law being made in British India authorizing the immigration to Mauritius of the natives of India, and repealing the restrictions now in force there in regard to such immigration; and in the event of any such law containing provisions enabling the Governor General of India to appoint, at the several ports of embarkation in India, officers charged with the protection of persons emigrating from such ports to Mauritius, the various rules and regulations comprized and set forth in the schedule to this present Order subjoined shall, within the island of Mauritius, have the force and effect of law, and shall be observed and carried into effect by all Her Majesty's officers, civil and military, in Mauritius, and by all Her Majesty's subjects within the said island, as to them may respectively appertain.

And the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

The SCHEDULE referred to in the preceding Order, comprising the Rules and Regulations to be observed at Mauritius, in regard to Emigrants from British India resorting to, and arriving at, that Island.

1st. The Governor of Mauritius may, from time to time, nominate such persons as he shall see fit to act as emigration agents at any port or place in India, which the Governor General of India may designate as a port or place for the embarkation of emigrants to Mauritius, and may also, from time to time, nominate a proper person to act as protector of immigrants at Mauritius.

2d. The remuneration to be given to any such agent in India, shall not depend upon, or be regulated by, the number of the emigrants sent to Mauritius by him, but shall be in the nature of an annual salary.

3d. Every such emigration agent shall ascertain, by personal communication with every emigrant, previously to his or her embarkation from the port or place for which such agent shall be appointed, that such emigrant has not been induced to emigrate by any fraud or false or unreasonable representation, and is aware of the distance of Mauritius from the place where he or she is about to emigrate; and such agent shall explain the real advantages likely to be derived by such emigrant from a removal to Mauritius, at the same time cautioning such emigrant against unreasonable and unwarranted expectations; and such agent shall also ascertain that every such emigrant is in good health, and not incapacitated for labour by old age, bodily infirmity, or disease.

4th. It shall not be lawful to ship on board of any ship or vessel carrying any emigrants from India to Mauritius, any number of passengers exceeding the proportion of one person for every two tons of the registered burden of such ship or vessel; and no such ship or vessel carrying emigrants, and having more than one deck, shall have less than the height of six feet at the least, between decks; and in case such ship or vessel shall have only one deck, a platform shall be laid beneath such deck in such manner as to afford a space of the height of six feet at the least; and that such platform shall not be so laid as that the lower beams shall project above the same; and that no such ship or vessel shall have more than two tiers of berths, and that no such ship or vessel shall carry passengers on any such voyage to Mauritius unless there shall be an interval of six inches, at the least, between the deck or platform and the floor of the lower tier, throughout the whole extent thereof; and, whatever may be the tonnage of the ship or vessel, no greater number of passengers shall be taken on board of such ship or vessel than shall be after the rate of one such person for every twelve superficial feet of the lower deck or platform unoccupied by goods or stores, not being the personal baggage of such persons.

5th. In the computation of the number of passengers within the meaning of these regulations, two children, under the age of ten years, shall be considered as equal to, and shall be reckoned as, one person only.

6th. There shall be actually laden and on board of every ship or vessel bringing emigrants into Mauritius, at the time of the departure of such ship or vessel from the port or place at which such labourers shall be embarked, good and wholesome provisions for the use and consumption of the said passengers, over and above the victualling of the crew, to the amount or in the proportion following, that is to say, a supply of water to the amount of five gallons to every week of the computed voyage for every passenger on board such ship or vessel, such water being carried in tanks or sweet casks; and a supply of rice, bread, biscuit, flour, oatmeal, or bread stuffs, to the amount of seven pounds weight to every week of the computed voyage for every such passenger; provided always, that when any such ship or vessel shall be destined to call at a port or place in the course of her voyage, for the purpose of filling up her water casks, a supply of water, at the rate before mentioned, for every week of an average voyage to such port or place of calling, shall be deemed to be a compliance with this regulation; and provided that the preceding regulations regarding food shall be deemed to have been complied with in any case where it shall be made to appear that, by the special authority of the Governor General of India, any other articles of food were substituted for the articles above enumerated as being in his judgment equivalent thereto.

7th. The number of weeks which shall be deemed necessary for the voyage to Mauritius from any port or ports in India, shall be such as shall, from time to time, be determined by any law or ordinance to be promulgated for that purpose by the Governor General of India in Council, and according to any such law or ordinance, shall and may be further determined whether, at different periods of the year, different estimations are to be made of the probable length of any such voyage; and, if by any such law or ordinance, the removal of emigrants should, during any particular period of the year, be prohibited altogether, then any such removal, during such prohibited period, shall, in Mauritius, be regarded, dealt with, and punished as an infringement of these present regulations.

8th. Before any such ship or vessel shall be cleared out on any such voyage, the agent, appointed under this Ordinance, for the port or place from which such ship or vessel shall be cleared out, shall survey, or cause to be surveyed by some competent person, the provisions and water hereinbefore required to be on board for the consumption of the passengers, and shall ascertain that the same are in good and sweet condition; and also that, over and above the same, there is on board an ample supply of water and stores for the victualling of the crew of the ship or vessel; and shall also ascertain that such ship or vessel is generally reputed seaworthy, and that the directions hereinbefore contained for ensuring the health and safety of the passengers have been complied with; and shall grant a certificate thereof under his hand to the master of such ship or vessel.

9th. The master of every ship or vessel bringing emigrants to Mauritius, shall be bound to provide for, and furnish to, every such emigrant and his wife and children, a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome provisions, for his, her, and their daily maintenance, during such voyage, and during the space of forty-eight hours next after the arrival of such ship or vessel in Mauritius.

10th. Two copies of these regulations, authenticated by the signature of the agent at the port or place from which such emigrants shall come, shall be delivered to the master, by such agent, on demand, at the time of clearance, and shall be kept on board of every ship or vessel carrying such emigrants as aforesaid, and one of such copies shall, upon request made at seasonable times to the master of the ship or vessel, be produced to any passenger for his perusal.

11th. The master of every ship or vessel carrying emigrants from India to Mauritius shall, before clearing out such ship or vessel, deliver to such agent, at the port or place from which such ship or vessel shall be cleared out, a list in writing, together with a duplicate of the same, specifying, as accurately as may be, the names, ages, and occupations of all and every the emigrants on board such ship or vessel; and such agent shall thereupon deliver to the said master a counterpart of such list signed by such agent; and the said master shall, on the arrival of such ship or vessel at Mauritius, and previous to the disembarkation of any such emigrants, give notice of the arrival of such ship or vessel, and deliver the said counterpart of such list to the protector of immigrants hereinbefore mentioned; and such protector of immigrants shall forthwith proceed on board of such ship or vessel, and shall ascertain, as far as possible, by personal inspection of the ship or vessel and passengers, whether the directions hereinbefore contained, with regard to the situation of the berth of such ship or vessel, the proportion of the passengers to the burthens and measurement of such ship or vessel, and the maintenance of the emigrants during such passage, have been complied with; and such protector of immigrants shall personally muster such emigrants, and compare the numbers and names of such emigrants with the said counterpart of such lists, and shall certify in writing under his hand, upon such counterpart, the total number of emigrants then living and being on board of such vessel; and in case any such emigrant shall have died during the passage, or the number of names of the emigrants shall differ from the number or names stated in such counterpart, the protector of immigrants shall note such death or difference upon such counterpart, and thereupon shall grant a licence under his hand for the disembarkation and landing of such emigrants.

12th. If the protector of immigrants, on such personal inspection of the ship or vessel and emigrants, shall be satisfied that the preceding regulations have been complied with, he shall grant a certificate, under his hand, of the arrival in Mauritius of such emigrants respectively, and the place from which, and the ship or vessel in which, such emigrants shall have arrived.

13th. No money shall be payable by the Colonial Treasurer of Mauritius, in respect of any such emigrants as aforesaid, except on the warrant of the Governor of that island, which warrant shall not be issued except on such certificate as aforesaid, of the said protector of immigrants.

14th. The protector of immigrants shall keep a register of all persons in respect of whom any such certificate as aforesaid shall be granted, and of the ship or vessel in which, the port from which, and the time at which, such person shall have arrived in this colony; a copy of which registry shall be laid before the Council of Government on the thirty-first day of March, the thirtieth day of June, the thirtieth day of September, and the thirty-first day of December in each year.

15th. If any ship or vessel, bringing emigrants from India to Mauritius, shall carry any number of passengers exceeding the proportion authorized and allowed by these regulations, a penalty of five pounds per head shall be payable in respect of each passenger so carried in excess of such proportion, or if such ship or vessel shall not be of the height between decks hereinbefore required; or if such a platform as hereinbefore directed, shall not be laid and continued throughout the whole duration of any such voyage, in such manner as is hereinbefore required; or if there shall be more than two tiers of berths; or if there shall not be, throughout the whole duration of any such voyage, such an interval as is hereinbefore prescribed, between the deck and the floor of the lower tier of berths; or if any such ship or vessel shall clear out and put to sea not having on board such water and provisions as aforesaid, for the use and consumption of the passengers, of the kind, and to the amount, and in the proportion, hereinbefore directed; or if any such ship or vessel shall be cleared out before such lists of emigrants shall have been delivered in manner and form aforesaid ; or if any such list shall be wilfully false ; or if the copy of these regulations be not produced as hereinbefore required ; or if any emigrant shall not be maintained during such voyage, and for forty-eight hours after his arrival ; the master of any such ship or vessel shall, for and in respect of each and every such offence, be liable, on summary conviction before any stipendiary magistrate, at any time within the space of twelve calendar months next after the arrival of such master within the colony of Mauritius, to the payment of a fine, not less than five pounds, nor more than twenty pounds, British sterling ; and in default of payment of the fines above mentioned, either immediately or at the time fixed by such stipendiary magistrate, at the time of making such conviction, to imprisonment for any time not less than one, nor more than three, calendar months.

16th. Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall take away or abridge any right of suit or action which may accrue to any emigrant in any such ship or vessel, or to any other person, in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made or entered into between or on the behalf of any such emigrant or other person and the master, owner or owners of any such ship or vessel.

17th. Provided always, that nothing in these regulations contained shall apply to any ship or vessel in the service of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or to any of Her Majesty's ships of war.

18th. No emigrant, arriving from India at Mauritius, shall be capable of entering into any contract of service to be performed in that island, until he shall have been, at least, forty-eight hours on shore there ; and every such contract of service, made before that time, shall be null and void to all intents and purposes.

19th. No emigrant, arriving from India at Mauritius, and engaging to labour in that island, shall, within Mauritius, be liable to any action, suit, or demand, for or in respect of any debt contracted, or any contract made by such emigrant, before his arrival in the said island.

20th. No emigrant, arriving from India at Mauritius, shall, in Mauritius, be capable of entering into any contract for service, except for the period, in the manner, and under the superintendence which, by a law in force there, is required in the case of contracts for service made by other labourers in agriculture or manufactures within the said island.

21st. No payment shall be made from the treasury of the said island in respect of any emigrants introduced there from India, unless, on proof to the satisfaction of the Governor of Mauritius, that all rules and regulations which may be established by law in India, for the advantage and protection of such emigrants, have been duly complied with ; such rules and regulations not being repugnant to any thing in these regulations contained.

22d. In every case in which the penalties hereby denounced against offences are imposed by the use of words in the masculine gender, or in the singular person, such words shall be understood as extending to the feminine gender also, and to any number of persons, unless when the opposite construction is required in order to meet the object, and to accomplish the ends, with a view to which these regulations are established and made.
