TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1842.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d day of February 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act, and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port, under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to appoint the ports of Saint John, in the island of Antigua, and Plymouth, in the island of Montserrat, free warehousing ports under the said Act, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said ports of Saint John, in the island of Antigua, and Plymouth, in the island of Montserrat, shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act:

Provided always, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall exempt any goods, wares, or merchandize imported from the said ports of Saint John and Plymouth, respectively, into any of the British possessions in the West Indies, or on the Continent of South America, or into the Bahama Islands, from the payment of the duties now chargeable thereon in such places under the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 15th day of January 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is probable that the laws now in force in British India, for preventing the emigration of the inhabitants thereof to Her Majesty's colonial possessions, will be shortly repealed, so far as respects emigration to the island of Mauritius; and that such last-mentioned emigration will be
