H. W. Hackney,	Walter M'Leod,

all late of this county, deceased, to appear at the Roll Court of Civil Justice for this county, at its session, to be holden at the Court-house, in New Amsterdam, on Monday the 4th day of April 1842, and following days, at ten o'clock A. M. in order then and there to render their respective claims properly attested and in due form.

Whereas in default of which perpetuum silentium will be decreed against the non-appeareers according to law.

Marshal's Office, Berbice, this 11th day of December 1841.

K. FRANCKEN, Marshal.

TO be sold by private tender, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes wherein Margaret Whitehead, now deceased, was plaintiff, and John North the younger and others are defendants, and wherein Charles Whitehead and others are plaintiffs, and John North the younger and others are defendants, with the approbation of Nassau William Senior, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, in twenty-one lots;

Three several pieces or parcels of copyhold building land, situate on the north side of Roscommon-street, in Everton, near Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster; four several pieces or parcels of valuable building land, on the south side of Sheridan-street, in Everton aforesaid; and thirteen several pieces or parcels of valuable building land, on the west and east sides of Clifton-street, leading to Sheridan-street, in Everton aforesaid; together with a seat or pew in Trinity Church, Liverpool aforesaid.

Printed particulars, describing the mode of making the tenders, and the place where, and the time within which the same are to be left, may be had (gratis) at the chambers of the said Master, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. North and Orred, Solicitors, Liverpool; of Messrs. Lowe, Garey, and Sweeting, Solicitors, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; Mr. Richard Comyn, Solicitor, 24, Queen-street, Cheapside, London; and of Mr. John Simpson, Solicitor, Furnival's-inn, London.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the Little Peatling Charity Land, it was referred to William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire, among other things, whether the said charity land became vested in George Fawnt, formerly of Foston, in the county of Leicester, Esq. as the surviving trustee thereof, and whether the said George Fawnt was dead; and if the said Master should find that the said charity land became vested in the said George Fawnt as the surviving trustee thereof, and that the said George Fawnt was dead, then it was ordered that he should cause two successive advertisements to be published, as therein-mentioned, giving notice that the heirs
