“ And we further recommend and propose, that the treasurer, for the time being, of each of the said cathedral churches shall apply, towards the efficient performance of the duties of his church, and the maintenance of the fabric thereof, so much at least, of the sum of money so to be received from us as aforesaid in respect of any year, as, together with the monies already applicable in the same year to such purposes respectively according to the custom of such church, will amount to two fifth parts of the whole annual revenues of such church for the same year, in such manner and proportions as shall be ordered by the chapter of such church, but so as to secure to the minor canons and the several officers and servants of such church, at the least, the incomes hereinbefore and by the statutes and rules of such church allotted to them respectively; and shall, out of the other three fifth parts, pay to the dean and canons of such church, any stipends payable to them respectively according to any statute custom or regulation of such church, and shall divide the residue of such three fifth parts among the dean and canons, so as to give to the dean a sum of money (including any such stipend) double in amount to that payable to each canon, and no more: provided that every such division shall be subject to any statute or regulation of such church, concerning the income of any member of chapter as affected by non-residence or otherwise; and provided also, that until the chapter of the said cathedral church of Ripon shall consist of a dean and four canons only, the treasurer of such church shall divide such residue, in the like proportion, among so many of the members of chapter as, during the year then last past, shall have duly kept residence in the said church, but subject to any such statute, custom, or regulation as aforesaid.

SCHEDULE.

“ We, the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon, do, in pursuance of an Act, passed

“ And whereas, in addition to the only house of residence heretofore belonging to the said church, which has been and now is in the sole occupation of the dean, we have recently procured a house of residence for the canons, nearly adjoining to the said church;
