FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1842.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 28, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, March 16th.
 Wednesday, April 13th.
 Wednesday, May 4th.
 Wednesday, June 1st.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations ; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons, having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come ; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty ; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 28, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application, by or on the behalf of "the Governor and Company of the British Plate Glass Manufacturers," has been made to Her Majesty in Council to grant to the Shareholders of the said Company Her Majesty's royal charter of incorporation, for the purpose of carrying on the manufacture of plate glass, for the term of twenty-one years from the expiration of their existing corporation.

WHEREAS at the close of the last session of the last Parliament, a Bill was pending in the Honourable the House of Commons, intituled "A Bill to alter and amend the powers and provisions of the Acts relating to the making and maintaining of a pier and other works at Deptford, in the county of Kent;" and whereas, on the fourteenth day of February last, it was resolved by that House, that the Committee upon any private Bill do examine, in the first place, whether the said Bill be for the same purpose as any Bill which was presented in the last session of the last Parliament, and contain the same clauses and provisions as were contained in such former Bill in the last stage of its proceeding, and whereupon any proceedings were pending on the dissolution of the last Parliament; and it was also resolved, that after the introduction of such Bill, previously to the second reading thereof, the parties promoting the same should give notice once in the London, Edinburgh, or Dublin Gazette, as the case may be, and once in some newspaper usually circulated in the district or districts to which the Bill specially relates; that it is their intention to proceed with the Bill; and that the Committee on the Bill do examine how far such resolution has been complied with, and do report the same to the House on the report of the Bill;

Now notice is hereby given, that a Bill for the same purpose as the Bill so pending as aforesaid, and containing the same clauses and provisions as were contained in such former Bill in the last stage of its proceeding, was introduced into the House of Commons, and read there a first time on the eighth day of March instant, and that it is the intention of the parties promoting the said Bill to proceed with the same.—Dated this tenth day of March 1842.

T. Tyrrell, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of two Acts, relating to the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, one thereof passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for making a Railway from Manchester to join the Grand Junction Railway, in the parish of Chebsey, in the county of Stafford, to be called the Manchester and Birmingham Railway, with certain branches therefrom; and the other thereof, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her said present Majesty, entitled "An Act to enable the Manchester and Birmingham Railway Company, to vary and extend the line of their railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto."

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power to enable the Manchester and Birmingham Railway Company, incorporated by the said first recited Act, to make an extension or new line of railway, principally by means of a tunnel, with proper works and conveniences connected therewith, from or near their present railway, commencing at a point under their present station or terminus, at Sheffield-street, near Store-street, in the township of Manchester, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and terminating at or near the intended station of the Manchester and Leeds Railway, near Great Ducie-street, Hunt's-bank, in the said township; and which said extension, or new line of railway, will pass from, in, through, or into the said township of Manchester only, in the parish of Manchester.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for power to deviate in the construction of the said extension or new line of railway, from the line thereof, as laid down on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter-mentioned, to the extent which will be defined on such plans.

And powers will also be applied for, to levy tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the said extension or new line of railway.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections, describing the line and levels of the said extension, or new line of railway, and the lands under or over which the same is proposed to pass, or which may be required to be taken or used for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, will be, or will have been, deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office in Preston; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Manchester, at his office in Manchester, on or before the first day of March next; and that on or before the first day of April next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of the said parish of Manchester.—Dated the eighth day of February, in the year of our Lord, 1842.

Stater and Heelis, Solicitors to the said Company.

Hayle Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from Hayle, in the parish of Saint Erth, in the county of Cornwall, to Tresavean mine, in the parish of Gwenap, in the said county, with several branches therefrom;" and also of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the same reign, intituled "An Act to enable the Hayle Railway Company to make certain alterations in the line of such railway, and for other purposes relating thereto;" and in which Bill powers will be contained to authorize the said company to make an extension of the present railway from, or from near Turnawin, in the parish of Gwinear, or from, or from near Riviere Quay, in the parish of Phillack, to the borough or town of Penzance; and also to make a deviation from the present line of the said railway, commencing at or near Trevaskus, in the said parish of Guinear, and terminating at or near Riviere, in the parish of Phillack, together with all proper and convenient stations, warehouses, bridges, communications, conveniences, and other works; which said proposed extension, deviation, and works, are intended to be made in, or to pass from, through, or into the parishes, townships, or extra-parochial places of Gwinear, Gwithian, Phillack, Saint Erth, Saint Hilary, Marazion, Ludgvan, Gulval, Madron, and the borough and town of Penzance, in the said county of Cornwall; and in such Bill powers will also be inserted, to divert or alter all such turnpike roads, parish roads, and other highways, canals, navigations, and railways, within the said parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places aforesaid, as may require to be diverted or altered for the purposes of such proposed extension, deviation, and works.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the said proposed extension and deviation, with a book of reference thereto, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which the same are intended to be made, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March next, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office at Saint Austell, in the said county; and also with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Penzance, at his office at Penzance aforesaid.

And, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each parish in or through which the said extension and deviation, or any part of them, are intended to be made, with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish.

And notice is hereby given, that it is intended to apply for powers to levy tolls, rates, and duties, on or in respect of the said proposed extension, deviation, and works, and also to increase or alter the tolls, rates, and duties, granted by the before-mentioned Acts, or one of them, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, or duties, or other rights and privileges.—Dated this seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

Grylls and Hill, Solicitors, Helston.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for an Act or Acts to alter, amend, and enlarge, or to consolidate, the powers and provisions of the several Acts relating to the South Eastern Railway; that is to say, one thereof, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the London and Croydon Railway to Dover, to be called the South Eastern Railway;" another, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and extend the line of the South Eastern Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto;" another thereof, passed in the second year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the South Eastern Railway;" another thereof, passed in the last-mentioned year of Her said present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and divert the line of the South Eastern Railway from a point thereon, in the parish of Chiddingstone, in the county of Kent, so as to join the London and Brighton Railway at or near Redstonehill, in the parish of Reigate, in the county of Surrey;" and another thereof, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and divert a portion of the line of the South Eastern Railway, in the county of Kent;" and to empower the company, incorporated by the said first-mentioned Act, to make a new line of railway, with a depôt at the termination thereof, and all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, commencing by a junction with the line of the South Eastern Railway, as at present authorised to be made, at or near a certain property, in the parish of Hougham, numbered 22 on the parliamentary plan, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, according to which the said South Eastern Railway is at present authorized to be made through the said parish, and referred to in the second Act above recited, passing thence in or through the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial and other places, of Hougham, Saint James the Apostle, and Saint Mary the Virgin, or some of them, in the town and port and borough of Dover, and county of Kent, terminating at or near Strand-street, in the town and port and borough of Dover aforesaid, at or near the back of the Custom-house, in the several parishes of Saint Mary the Virgin and Saint James the Apostle aforesaid, or in both or one of them; and it is further intended, by the Act or Acts so to be applied for, to take a power of deviating in the construction of the said new line of railway, to the extent to be defined on the plans thereof, deposited, or to be deposited as hereafter mentioned, and of levying tolls for or in respect of the use of the said new line of railway, and the conveniences connected therewith.

And notice is hereby further given, that powers will also be applied for in the said Act or Acts to enable the said company to make certain roads or approaches to the intended station of the said South Eastern Railway Company, at or near the junction of their railway with the London and Brighton Railway, in the parish of Reigate, and county of Surrey; or of such roads or approaches commencing at or near to the junction of the three roads near to Scot's Forge, in Lingfield-street, in the said parish of Reigate, and passing solely in or through the same parish; another thereof branching out of the road leading from Nutfield, in the said county of Surrey, to Red Hill, in the same county, at or near to an occupation road leading to Copyhold Farm House in the said parish of Reigate, and passing also solely in or through the same parish of Reigate; and another thereof branching out of the before-mentioned road leading from Nutfield to Red Hill, at or near a certain cottage called Byes, in the said parish of Nutfield, in the county of Surrey aforesaid, and passing in or through the said last-mentioned parish, and the parish of Reigate aforesaid, and all of them terminating at or near the said intended station in the said parish of Reigate.

And notice is hereby also given, that plans and sections, describing the line and levels or situation of the said intended new line of railway and depôt, and the lands to be taken for the purposes of the same, together with books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be or will have been deposited for public inspection, on or before the first day of March in this present year, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Kent, at his office in Maidstone, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Dover, at his office in Dover, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Surrey, at his office in Lambeth, and that plans and sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended approaches, and the lands required to be taken for the purposes thereof, with books of reference to such plans, will be, or will have been, deposited, on or before the said first day of March, with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Surrey, at his office in Lambeth; and that, on or before the first day of April next, a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference respectively, as relates to the several parishes in or through which the said new line of railway, depôt, and approaches respectively are proposed to pass or be situate, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the parish clerk of each such parish.

John P. Fearon, Inner Temple.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to make, carry, and maintain a railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences, and also with carriages properly constructed, to be propelled thereon by locomotive steam engines, or other sufficient power, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, horses, cattle, and passengers, commencing at the sixteen and a quarter mile post, of, in, or upon the Stockton and Darlington Railway, in the township of Great Aycliffe, in the parish of Aycliffe, in the county of Durham, and extending from thence to, and terminating at, or in, and forming a junction with the line, or intended line of the Great North of England Railway, authorized to be made by an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, in a field or close, part of a farm called Coldshides, belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Eldon, situate in the township of Woodham, in the said parish of Aycliffe, in the occupation of Thomas Burdon and distinguished by the number 8 on the plan of the line of the said Great North of England Railway, deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, which said railway or railways, works, conveniences, appendages, and appurtenances thereto, as aforesaid, is and are intended to be made, carried, and maintained, in, through, to, from, and out of the said parish of Aycliffe, and the several parishes of Heighington and St. Andrew Auckland, in the said county of Durham, and also, in, through, to, from, and out of the said township of Great Aycliffe, and the several townships, hamlets, constaberies, and places following (that is to say), Heighington, Middridge, Middridge Grange, Heworth, Nun Stainton, Copelaw, Preston-le-Skerne, and Woodham, all in the said county of Durham; and also to make, carry, and maintain another railway or railways, with all proper works and conveniences, and also with carriages properly constructed, to be propelled thereon by locomotive steam engines, or other sufficient power for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, horses, cattle, and passengers, commencing at the sixteen and a quarter mile post of the Stockton and Darlington Railway, in the township of Great Aycliffe, in the parish of Aycliffe, in the county of Durham, and extending from thence to, and terminating at, or in the Clarence Railway, at a point one hundred and fifty-four yards north west of the fifteen and a quarter mile post of the city of Durham branch of the said Clarence Railway, in the township of Chilton, otherwise Great Chilton, and in the parish of Merrington, in the said county of Durham, which said last-mentioned railway or railways, works, conveniences, appendages, and appurtenances thereto as aforesaid, is, and are intended to be made, carried, and maintained, in, through, to, from, and out of the said parish of Aycliffe, and the several parishes of Heighington, Saint Andrew Auckland, Merrington, Bishop Middleham, and Sedgfield; and also in, through, to, from, and out of the said township of Aycliffe, and the several townships, hamlets, constaberies, or places following, that is to say, Heighington, School Aycliffe, Heworth, Woodham, Nun Stainton, Copelaw, Preston-le-Skerne, Bradbury, Bradbury with the Isle, Morden, Morden-Carrs, Chilton, Great Chilton, Little Chilton, Mainsforth, Sedgfield, and Bishop Middleham, all in the said county of Durham; in which said Act provisions are intended to be made for incorporating a company, for the purpose of making, maintaining, working, and using the said railways and works, and for other purposes, and with powers for levying, collecting, and taking certain tolls and duties for passing along the said several railways, and for the use of the warehouses and conveniences to be erected on or near thereto respectively; and powers will be obtained for altering or diverting the course of the several roads, railways, streams, brooks, and rivulets in the line or lines of the said several railways, to the extent shewn upon the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that maps or plans, and sections, describing the respective lines and levels of the said two intended railways and works, and the lands which may be required to be taken for the purposes thereof respectively, together with books of reference to such maps or plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands respectively, will be deposited, on or before the first day of March 1842, at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Durham, situate in the city of Durham; and that a copy of so much of the said maps or plans, and sections, as relates to such parishes in or through which the said two railways and works are intended to be made, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited, on or before the first day of April next, with the parish clerk of each of such parishes, at their respective residences; and that power will also be applied for to deviate, in the construction of the said respective railways and works, from the line or lines thereof respectively, as delineated upon the said plans, to such extent as shall be defined on such plans. Dated this twelfth day of February 1842.
