

forty, it was ordered, that the duties so imposed by the hereinbefore-mentioned Order in Council, of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, as aforesaid, should cease and be no longer payable, and that, in lieu thereof, there should be levied the several duties set forth in the table in the said Order now in recital contained :

And whereas by an Order in Council, of the eighth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the said Order in Council, of the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty, was revoked, so far as it imposed certain duties, in the Order now in recital mentioned, on wood manufactured, and certain duties were imposed on unmanufactured wood as in the Order now in recital is mentioned :

And whereas by an Order in Council, also bearing date the said eighth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, it was ordered, that the duties then levied at the Cape of Good Hope and other colonies therein named, upon articles, the produce and manufacture of the British possessions in India, should be reduced or altered to the same rates as were then imposed upon similar articles, the produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom or of other British possessions :

And whereas it is expedient, that certain of the duties to which goods, wares, and merchandizes imported into the Cape of Good Hope are liable under the said recited Orders should be altered :

Her Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in Her as aforesaid by the Act of Parliament so passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth as aforesaid, order, and it is hereby ordered, that upon goods, wares, and merchandize, imported into the Cape of Good Hope, the duties respectively imposed by the hereinbefore recited Orders in Council, of the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and the tenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, shall cease and be no longer payable, and that, in lieu of the same, there shall be levied and paid the several duties set forth in the table hereinafter contained :
