TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1842.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 28, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, May 4th.

Wednesday, June 1st.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations ; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons, having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come ; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty ; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 28, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Drawing-Rooms at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Thursday, April 28th.

Thursday, May 19th, { to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

Thursday, June 16th.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room on Thursday the 19th of May next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty :

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

THE creditors who have signed the deed may receive a dividend of two shillings in the pound, on application at Messrs. Gurney and Company's Bank, Swaffham.
ROBERT MARRIOTT, JOHN JAMES HEYHOE, Trustees.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. English and Son, by order of the Commissioners named in a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Johnson Phillott, late of the city of Bath, Banker, subject to such conditions as will be then produced, on Friday the 29th of April instant, at two o'clock precisely, on the premises;

Lot 1. All that freehold house and premises, No. 2, Lansdown-place West, with its garden and premises, comprising as complete and compact a residence, and, for its size, considered to be as convenient and well arranged as any house in Bath; in point of repair, nothing is required, nor has any thing been omitted that could add to its comfort or utility.

It consists of a handsome stone staircase with sky-light, entrance hall with screen doors, lobby and patent water-closet, dining parlour, with recess for sideboard, about 17 feet 8 by 15 feet 4, breakfast room 15 feet by 14 feet 6, elegant drawing-room 21 feet 3 by 17 feet 9, library 18 feet 9 by 16 feet 2.

On the attic story are three chambers; above are four good sized rooms.

The domestic offices are exceedingly complete, and provide an excellent light kitchen, scullery and larder adjoining, with large cisterns for hard and soft water, house-keeper's-room, butler's pantry, knife-house, dry arches for coal, &c. area steps, and all necessary offices.

On the basement is a large brewhouse, light and dry, and two capital wine-cellar, equal to about 300 dozen.

The fixtures are valuable and numerous, the painting and decorations particularly neat, great abundance of water, and the property is free of ground rent.

The flower garden is well stocked.

Lot 2. All that coach-house with loft and stable at the rear of the said messuage and dwelling-house.

The stable is fitted up with two loose boxes, with racks, &c. on the most approved plan.

For further particulars apply at the office of John English, Esq. No. 1, Kingston-square, Bath; W. L. Barnwell, Esq. Gray's-inn-lane; at the Auctioneer's, Milson-street, or at the offices of Messrs. T. M. Cruttwell and Sons, Solicitors, No. 5, Westgate-buildings, Bath.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Routledge, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Wine and Spirit Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 10th day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the office of Messrs. Duncan and Radcliffe, Solicitors, Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, compromising a claim against a person, who will be named at the meeting, in respect of two puncheons of whiskey; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees compromising certain claims and matters in difference with another person, who will be named at the meeting, relating to certain stock, debts, moneys, and effects at Wigan and Liverpool, claimed as part of the said bankrupt's estate, but which claim is disputed by such last-mentioned person.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Alvaro da Camara and Julio da Camara, of Old Broad-street, in the city of London, and of Madeira, in the kingdom of Portugal, Madeira Wine Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen, partners with one John Rego, trading under the firm of Messrs. Da Camara, Rego, and Company, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 11th day of May next, at two of the clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding or arranging, without suit, a claim made by the assignees to the shares of the bankrupts, as next of kin to and uncle (whose name will be mentioned at such meeting), who has died intestate, leaving property in this country and also in the island of Madeira; and the creditors present at such meeting will be further required to assent to or dissent from the payment by the said assignees, out of the funds of the said bankrupts' estate, of the costs, charges, and expences of their Solicitor, incident to or arising out of an attempted arrangement, sanctioned by the said assignees and the creditors, for superseding the bankruptcy, on certain terms then agreed upon, but which supersedeas was not completed by reason of the non-surrender and absence abroad of one of the bankrupts.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Isaac Worthington, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, dated the 16th day of June 1825, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Thursday the 12th day of May next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees agreeing not further to prosecute a certain suit in the Court of Chancery wherein they are plaintiffs, and Joseph Wood and others are defendants, and to their taking or concurring in all further proceedings under the decrees made therein; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees consenting to the bills filed against them and others by Isaac Wood, and others being dismissed or not further proceeded with; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees agreeing to execute and executing all such releases, conveyances, and assurances as may be deemed necessary and advisable by the plaintiffs named in the said last-mentioned bill, or any of them, for the purpose of releasing, assigning, conveying, or otherwise assuring all their estate, title, and interest, as such assignees of, in, and to the hereditaments and premises in the pleadings mentioned, to the said last-named plaintiffs, or as they or any of them may direct, upon the said assignees being released from all claim by the said plaintiffs, and receiving £200, and their costs, of the said respective suits not already taxed and paid, and their costs of and occasioned by such releases, conveyances, or other assurances, such costs to be taxed by the proper officer, as between solicitor and client.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Bushell, of the borough of Evesham, in the county of Worcester, Innkeeper, Wine Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 11th day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the White Hart Inn, in Evesham aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees defraying out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, not only the amount of a certain bill of costs and charges incurred in and about the preparation of a deed of assignment for the benefit of creditors, executed by the said bankrupt prior to the date and issuing forth of the said fiat, but also certain expences incurred in the taking and making an inventory and valuation of the effects of the said bankrupt under such assignment; and also to sanction and confirm the acts of the assignee under such assignment in carrying on the trade or business of the said bankrupt from the date of such assignment to the opening of the said fiat; and to ratify and allow the statement to be produced at such meeting of the moneys received and expended by such assignee during the time of his so carrying on such trade or business; also to sanction and confirm not only the acts of the provisional assignee appointed under the said fiat in the carrying on the trade or business of the said bankrupt from the opening of the said fiat to the appointment of assignees thereunder, but also the acts of such last-mentioned assignees from the date of such their appointment; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of any part or parts of the personal estate and effects of the said bankrupt by private contract, at the risk of the bankrupt's estate, at or for the amount of a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees abandoning any tenant right or interest they may have as such in and to the Star Inn and Northwick Arms Hotel, under any lease, or agreement for lease, of both or either of those establishments entered into by the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing actions at law against debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and to the assignees discontinuing and settling such actions or any of them, upon such terms as the assignees may think fit; and to their compounding and taking less than the whole in full satisfaction and discharge of any doubtful or bad debt owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and referring or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling, agreeing, and arranging any such action, suit, proceeding, dispute, or difference now or at any time hereafter existing or arising respecting the said bankrupt's personal estate; also to sanction and confirm the employment of an accountant by the said assignees; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to employ such accountant to manage and investigate, arrange and settle, the business, affairs, books, and accounts of and relating to the said bankrupt's personal estate, and to pay the accountant such remuneration as the said assignees shall consider reasonable; and on other special matters.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if “ any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:”—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 15th day of April 1842, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
