Estate of EDMUND BECHIN and JOHN TAYLER.

April 19, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a further dividend of ten pence in the pound will be payable on the estate of Edmund Bechin, Esquire, deceased, surviving partner of the late firm of Bechin and Tayler, at Mr. Muspratt's Counting-house, No. 33, Abchurch-lane, London, on Saturday the 23d instant, or on any succeeding Monday or Saturday, between the hours of twelve and three.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Nairn versus Marjoribanks, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, in the Gray's-inn Coffee-house, Holborn, London, on Thursday the 28th day of April 1842, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, in one lot;

A leasehold dwelling-house, held direct from the Crown, situate No. 20, formerly No. 19, in Bury-street, St. James's, in the county of Middlesex.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Mr. Jeremiah Simpson, No. 7, King's-bench-walk, Temple; and of Mr. William Paxon, No. 9, Terrace, Gray's-inn-lane.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Greenhow v. Etheridge, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-room of the said Court, at Gray's-inn Coffee-house, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 11th day of May 1842, at two o'clock in the afternoon, in one lot;

A small leasehold estate, situate in Southampton-street, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, late the property of Sally Clark, deceased.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; at Mr. Feake Sanfords, Solicitor, No. 20, John-street, Adelphi; Messrs. Bolton and Co. Solicitors, Austin-friars; Messrs. Chester and Son, Solicitors, Parsonage-row, Newington Butts; and Messrs. Derby and Raven, Solicitors, No. 2, Harcourt-buildings, Temple.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Upjohn v. Penruddocke, it was, amongst other things, referred to Andrew Henry Lynch, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court who is or are the personal representative or personal representatives of the Reverend Clement Tookie, formerly of Chippenham, in the county of Cambridge, deceased (who died on the 30th day of April 1794), one of the testators in the pleadings of this cause named; and who is or are the personal representative or personal representatives of William Tookie, the son of the said Clement Tookie, and another of the testators in the pleadings of this cause named (and who died on the 14th day of May 1796), and also who were the next of kin of the said William Tookie, living at the time of his decease, and whether he left any widow him surviving, and whether such next of kin and widow respectively are living or dead, and, if they or any of them are dead, who is or are his, her, or their personal representative or personal representatives respectively; and also to enquire whether the late plaintiff, Catherine Mary Upjohn, late of Gorleston, in the county of Norfolk (who died on the 13th day of September 1840), ever had any and what child or children by any and what husband or husbands, and whether such children respectively are living or dead, and, if they or any of them are dead, when they respectively died, and who is or are their respective personal representative or personal representatives; and also to enquire whether Catherine Ann Isabella Page, in the pleadings of the said cause mentioned, afterwards Catherine Ann Isabella Johnson, and afterwards Catherine Ann Isabella Bankes (who died on the 8th day of November 1823), ever had any and what child or children by any husband or husbands, and whom respectively, and whether such children are respectively living or dead, and, if they or any of them are dead, when they died respectively, and at what age or respective ages, and who are their respective personal representatives; any person or persons claiming to be the next of kin of the said William Tookie, or the representatives of such next of kin, or to be the representatives of the said Clement Tookie, or of the said William Tookie, or the representatives of any deceased children of the said Catherine Mary Upjohn and Catherine Ann Isabella Page, afterwards Catherine Ann Isabella Johnson, and afterwards Catherine Ann Isabella Bankes, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 23d day of May 1842, to come in before the said Master, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and make out his, her, or their respective claim or claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Upjohn v. Upjohn, it was (amongst other things) referred to Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who is the heir at law, and who is or are the personal representative or personal representatives of Ann Tookie, formerly of Soham, in the county of Cambridge, widow (who died on the 13th day of August 1798), the testatrix in the pleadings of the said cause named, and who were her next of kin living at her death, and whether such next of kin are respectively living or dead, and, if they or any of them are dead, who are their respective personal representatives; and who is or are the personal representative or personal representatives of William Burlton, formerly of Baverstock-house, in the county of Wilts, Esq. (who died on the 1st of April 1805), the nephew of the said testatrix, in her will and in the pleadings of the said cause named; and to inquire and state to the Court whether Catherine Mary Upjohn, late of Gorleston, in the county of Norfolk (who died on the 13th of September 1840), the plaintiff in the said cause, ever had any and what child or children by any and what husband or husbands, and whe-
