AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of April 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth

"report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making additional provision for the cure of souls, in certain parishes where such assistance is most required.

"Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of the same Act, together with all accumulations of interest produced by and arising therefrom, shall be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund, and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or, if in any case it be deemed more expedient, by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision shall be made, by the authority therein provided, for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required, in such manner as shall, by the like authority, be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church: provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes, or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes, so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration shall be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes now arise or have heretofore arisen:

"And whereas, by virtue of the said recited Acts, and for the purposes thereof, certain lands, tithes, and other hereditaments have become vested in us, and divers monies and revenues, rents, and profits have been received by us; and other lands, tithes, and other hereditaments will become vested in us, and other monies and revenues, rents and profits will be yearly and every year receivable by us:

"And whereas, after having carefully considered how provision may best be made for the cure of souls, in conformity with the intent and meaning of the said Acts, it appears to us to be fit and proper, that grants should be made, either in augmentation of the incomes of, or towards providing fit houses of residence for, the incumbents of certain benefices and churches, with cure of souls, that is to say, being either parish churches, or churches or chapels with districts legally belonging or assigned thereto; in certain classes; subject to such limitations, as are herein-after mentioned, or as may from time to time be determined on: and we are of opinion,

"That the first class should consist of grants, made unconditionally, to benefices or churches with cure of souls as aforesaid, being in public patronage, namely, in the patronage of your Majesty, either in right of the Crown or of the Duchy of Lancaster, of the Duke of Cornwall, of any archbishop or bishop, of any dean and chapter, dean, archdeacon, prebendary, or other dignitary or officer in any cathedral or collegiate church, or of any rector, vicar, or perpetual curate, as such;

"That the second class should consist of grants, made to benefices or churches with cure of souls as aforesaid; whether in public patronage as aforesaid, or in private patronage, namely, any patronage whatsoever other than as aforesaid; upon condition of such grants being met by benefactions from other sources, either paid to us, on account of the same benefices or churches, or secured in perpetuity to the incumbents thereof; and

"That the third class should consist of grants, made to benefices or churches with cure of souls as aforesaid, in consideration of their being situate within the places in which any of the tithes vested in us now arise, or in which the tithes in lieu of which any of the lands or other hereditaments vested in us were allotted or assigned have heretofore arisen:

"And whereas it also appears to us, upon considering the amount of the funds now applicable to the purposes of the said recited Acts, to be expedient, that such grants as aforesaid should, at present, be respectively limited in the manner following, that is to say;

"In the first class,—To benefices and churches

having a population of two thousand at the least, and an average annual net income below one hundred and fifty pounds; and to the raising of such income as nearly as may be to that amount :

“ In the second class,—To benefices and churches having a like amount of population, and an average annual net income below two hundred pounds; and

“ In the third class,—So that such grants shall not, in any case, exceed the actual value of the tithes, or of the lauds or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes, in respect of which the same shall be made :

“ And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, issued under the authority of the first-recited Act, and bearing date the sixth day of October last, grants have already been made, in augmentation of the incomes of certain benefices and churches therein mentioned, falling within the said first class, subject to the aforesaid limitations in that behalf; and we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry, that the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A. fall within the same class, subject to the same limitations, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the respective amounts stated in the last column of the said schedule :

“ And whereas there has been paid to us, on account of the benefice described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked B., from the source set opposite to the name thereof in the sixth column, the benefaction stated in the seventh column, and we have satisfied ourselves that the said benefice falls within the said second class, subject to the aforesaid limitations in that behalf, and is fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the amount stated in the last column of the same schedule :

“ And whereas the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked C. are situate within the places set opposite to the names thereof respectively in the fifth column of the said schedule; and certain of the tithes so vested in us now arise in such places respectively; and after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves, that the same benefices and churches fall within the said third class, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the respective amounts stated in the last column of the same schedule, and may be so augmented consistently with the aforesaid limitation in that behalf :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year out of the monies and revenues, rents and profits aforesaid, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices and churches so described in the said three several schedules, the fixed annual sum, which we have set opposite to the name thereof in the last column of the said schedules respectively; by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of May next; and that whenever a vacancy, in any of the said benefices or churches, shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall, in every such case, be apportioned between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the benefice or church so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive; and the proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

“ And we recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation of any of such benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in a course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution; provided that no such change shall take effect before the then next vacancy of the benefice affected thereby, without the written consent of the then existing incumbent.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures for making better provision for the cure of souls, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them; or from declining to recommend a grant, in any case in which from special circumstances we shall be of opinion that such grant is not expedient.”

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of April 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect; with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the perpetual curacies of Christ Church, in Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester; of Stowe, otherwise St. Chad, in the city and diocese of Lichfield; and of Wolviston, in the county and diocese of Durham:

"Whereas by the first-recited Act it is (amongst other things) enacted, that out of the endowments belonging to the suspended prebends in the cathedral church of Lichfield, such provision as shall be deemed fit shall, by the authority therein provided, be made for the perpetual curate of Christ Church in Birmingham for the time being; and it is by the secondly-recited Act declared and enacted, that the last-recited provisions apply to all the lands and tenements, tithes, and other hereditaments and endowments, vested or to be vested in us by or under the provisions of the said first recited Act, by reason of the vacancy of any canonry residentiary, or of any prebend dignity or office not residentiary, in the said Church:

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, in Birmingham, was heretofore, in part, endowed with the prebend of Tachbrooke, in the said cathedral church of Lichfield; and the whole property of the said prebend is now vested in us, but the present proceeds thereof are of very small amount; and whereas certain lands tenements and hereditaments, lately belonging to the prebend of Wolvey, in the same church, were, by reason of the vacancy of the said prebend, vested in us by the first-recited Act, and the rents and profits thereof exceed the annual sum required in our opinion as an additional provision for the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church; and, after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that it is fit and proper, that the said perpetual curacy should be augmented as herein-after specified :

“ And whereas by an order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, issued under the authority of the first-recited Act, we were authorised and directed to make a fixed annual payment of forty-two pounds to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, in Lichfield :

“ And whereas the Honourable and Very Reverend Henry Edward John Howard, dean of Lichfield, being seised, in right of his deanery, of certain tithes arising within the township of Elmhurst, in the parish of Stowe, otherwise St. Chad, in Lichfield, of the annual value of twenty-five pounds or thereabouts, together with John Haworth of the city of Lichfield esquire, then lessee of the said tithes, did, on the twenty-eighth day of January last, with our consent under the said Acts, join in granting and releasing the said tithes, in immediate augmentation of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe; in consideration of our undertaking to recommend and propose a further augmentation, under the said Acts, of such an amount as, together with our reversionary interest in the said tithes, would be equal to their united then subsisting interest therein; and it appears to us, after due consideration and calculation, to be just and proper, that a further annual grant of twelve pounds should accordingly be made to the said perpetual curacy of Stowe :

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston is situate within the parish of Billingham, in the county of Durham, and is in the patronage of the dean and chapter of Durham; and the said dean and chapter did, previously to the passing of the said first-recited Act, grant and assign, in augmentation of the said perpetual curacy, certain lands tenements and hereditaments, of the annual value of one hundred and twenty-six pounds or thereabouts, subject however to a lease thereof, which will expire in the month of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine :

“ And whereas the tithes of the said parish of Billingham are now vested in us, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and the proceeds thereof exceed the last-mentioned annual value; and it appears to us, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish, to be expedient, that a temporary annual grant should be made to the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, of equal amount to the prospective augmentation aforesaid :

“ And whereas by a Scheme, bearing even date herewith, we have, under the authority of the said recited Act, recommended and proposed to your Majesty in Council, that grants, in augmentation of benefices, should be made in certain classes, and subject to certain limitations therein mentioned; and the grants herein recommended and proposed fall within the provisions of the said Scheme :

“ We therefore recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the monies and revenues, rents, and profits, from time to time, applicable to the purposes of the said recited Acts, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, but in lieu of and in full satisfaction for the said annual payment of forty-two pounds, the fixed annual sum of fifty-four pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, but only for the time hereinafter limited, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and twenty-six pounds; by equal half-yearly payments in each case, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but in the case of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston not after the first day of May in the said year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine; and that the first of such payments shall in each case be made on the first day of May next; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said perpetual curacies shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall in each such case be apportioned, between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the perpetual curacy so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and the proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said perpetual curacies, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Durham, Lichfield, and Worcester.
