

to Wardell Wenn, of Downham Market aforesaid, Coal Merchant, and me, the undersigned, Henry Baxter Branwhite Mason, of Wreham, near Stoke Ferry, in the same county, Gentleman, both creditors of the said Edward Glenton Blackburn, in trust, to defray, in the first place, the expences attending the said assignment, and, after defraying the same, upon trust, for the equal benefit of all such creditors of the said Edward Glenton Blackburn as shall execute the same, or signify their assent thereto, within two months from the date thereof; and which said indenture was duly executed in the presence of Thomas Lancelot Reed, of Downham Market aforesaid, Attorney at Law; and notice is hereby also given, that the said indenture is now lying at the premises formerly in the occupation of the said Edward Glenton Blackburn, at Downham Market aforesaid, for the inspection and signature of such creditors as may, within the time thereby limited, execute the same.—Wreham, May 4th, 1842. HY. B. B. MASON, Attorney at Law.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Swift, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Tailor and Draper, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 27th day of May instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Guildhall Coffee-house, in the city of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the payment, out of the assets of the said estate, of certain costs and expences incurred by the said assignees, and other the creditors of the said bankrupt, as well before as after the date of the said Fiat, in investigating the affairs of the said bankrupt, and endeavouring to effect a compromise between him and his creditors, and afterwards in adopting measures for obtaining an impartial choice of assignees, and otherwise in relation to the same several matters; and upon other special affairs, which will then and there be submitted.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Webber, of the city of Lincoln, Tailor and Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 11th day of May instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the City Arms Inn, in the city of Lincoln, to assent to or dissent from the allowance to the said assignees of certain expences incurred by them as assignees under a deed of assignment for the benefit of creditors executed by the said bankrupt prior to the date and issuing forth of the said fiat; and also to sanction and confirm the acts of the assignees under such deed of assignment from the date of such assignment to the opening of such fiat, and to ratify and allow the statement to be produced at such meeting, of the moneys received and expended by such assignees; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt by private contract, or by valuation or appraisement, or otherwise, as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing actions at law against debtors to the said bankrupt's estate, and to the assignees discontinuing and settling such actions, or any of them, upon such terms as the assignees may think fit; and to their compounding and taking less than the whole, in full satisfaction and discharge of any doubtful or bad debt owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and referring or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling, agreeing, and arranging any such action, suit, proceeding, dispute, or difference now or at any time hereafter existing or arising respecting the said bankrupt's personal estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling, by public auction or by private contract, all or any of the debts due and owing to the bankrupt's estate.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Henshall, of Witton, near Northwick, in the county of Chester, Ironmonger, Panmaker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Friday the 27th day of May instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Crown Inn, in Northwick aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying the costs, charges, and expences incurred by the provisional assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and also by the said assignees, in carrying on the businesses of the said bankrupt, or either of them, up to the time of the said meeting; and to approve and confirm what the said provisional assignee, and the said assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, shall have done and transacted in carrying on the said businesses, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees carrying on, for the benefit and at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, the businesses of the said bankrupt for an unlimited period, or for such other time as the meeting shall determine; and also employing in the said business such manager, clerks, workmen, or other servants (and particularly, if the said assignees shall think fit, the said bankrupt himself), with such salaries and allowances as the said assignees shall think fit; and also from time to time purchasing, either for ready money or on credit, all such iron, steel, materials, goods, wares, and merchandize, as the said assignees shall think expedient for carrying on the said business; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, either immediately or at such times or times as they or the creditors present at the said meeting shall determine, selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, or by tender or at a valuation, and at such price or prices, and subject to such terms, stipulations, and conditions, and either for ready money or on credit, and with or without and upon such security as they may think fit, of all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, debts, estate and effects, as well real as personal, of the said bankrupt; or otherwise to ratify and confirm any contract which the said assignees may in the meantime enter into for the sale thereof, or any part thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing an accountant, or some other fit and proper person or persons, to make up, adjust, and settle the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to collect, receive, and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to their making, as well to such accountant, or other person or persons as any accountant, or other persons employed by them previously to the said meeting, such fair remuneration and allowance for his and their time and trouble as the said assignees shall think just and proper; and to the said assignees paying all such other necessary costs and charges as they incur or sustain therein or thereabouts; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law, which they may deem necessary or advisable for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging any debt, claim, dispute, matter or thing whatsoever, relating to the said estate and effects; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures, and make all such arrangements as they shall deem most to the advantage of the estate of the said bankrupt; and on other special matters.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall
