LIVERPOOL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of April 1842.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled. "An Act to carry

"into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for uniting the two mediety of the rectory of Claypole, in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, that, with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan or plans may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron or patrons, and so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, or for consolidating two or more of such portions into one benefice to be held by one incumbent, or for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parishes; and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority hereinafter provided;

"And whereas the Right Rev. John Bishop of Lincoln, by virtue of the said recited provisions, has duly prepared and submitted to us a plan in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," it is enacted, that with respect to any parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge are divided between two or more incumbents, each having a mediety or portion of the benefice, a plan or plans may be framed by the bishop of the diocese, with the consent of the patron or patrons, and so as not to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent for constituting any of such portions separate benefices, or for consolidating two or more of such portions into one benefice to be held by one incumbent, or for making such other arrangements as he may judge likely to promote the efficient discharge of pastoral duties in such parishes, and any such plan may be carried into effect by the authority therein provided; and whereas the parish of Claypole, in the diocese and archdeaconry of Lincoln, is a rectory with cure of souls, and consists of two mediety, one called the

North Mediety, and the other called the South Mediety, both of which are in the patronage of John Pemberton Plumpré, of Tredville, in the county of Kent, Esquire, and have hitherto usually been held by different incumbents, and are now so held; and whereas it appears to me to be expedient, and likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties in the said parish of Claypole, that the said medieties should be united and form one benefice; I, John Bishop, of Lincoln, with the consent of the said John Pemberton Plumpré, testified by his having signed and sealed this plan, do hereby recommend and propose, that when either of the said two medieties shall become vacant, if the rector of the other mediety shall be presented and inducted thereto, the said two medieties shall forthwith, after such induction, become and be permanently united, and shall form one benefice to all intents and purposes, and shall for ever thereafter be held by one incumbent, but if the spiritual person presented to the mediety so first becoming vacant, shall be other than the then rector of the other mediety, he shall take the same, subject to the provision hereinafter contained, and every future incumbent thereof shall take the same subject to the same provision, that is to say; that upon the vacancy of the second mediety, the then rector of the first mediety shall forthwith, without any presentation, institution, induction or other proceeding whatsoever, become and be rector of both the said two medieties, and the same shall forthwith become and be permanently united, and shall form one benefice to all intents and purposes, and shall for ever thereafter be held by one incumbent.

J. Lincoln. (L.S.)

“ And whereas the arrangement proposed in the said plan appears to us likely to promote the efficient discharge of the pastoral duties of the said parish of Claypole; we, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the said plan be carried into effect accordingly.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of April 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the perpetual curacies of Christ Church, in Birmingham, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester; of Stowe, otherwise St. Chad, in the city and diocese of Lichfield; and of Wolviston, in the county and diocese of Durham:

“ Whereas by the first-recited Act it is (amongst other things) enacted, that out of the endowments belonging to the suspended prebends in the cathedral church of Lichfield, such provision as shall be deemed fit shall, by the authority therein provided, be made for the perpetual curate of Christ Church in Birmingham for the time being; and it is by the secondly-recited Act declared and enacted, that the last-recited provisions apply to all the lands and tenements, tithes, and other hereditaments and endowments, vested or to be vested in us by or under the provisions of the said first recited Act, by reason of the vacancy of any canonry residentiary, or of any prebend dignity or office not residentiary, in the said Church :

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, in Birmingham, was heretofore, in part, endowed with the prebend of Tachbrooke, in the said cathedral church of Lichfield; and the whole property of the said prebend is now vested in us, but the present proceeds thereof are of very small amount; and whereas certain lands tenements and hereditaments, lately belonging to the prebend of Wolvey, in the same church, were, by reason of the vacancy of the said prebend, vested in us by the first-recited Act, and the rents and profits thereof exceed the annual sum required in our opinion as an additional provision for the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church; and, after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves that it is fit and proper, that the said perpetual curacy should be augmented as herein-after specified :

“ And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, issued under the authority of the first-recited Act, we were authorised and directed to make a fixed annual payment of forty-two pounds to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, in Lichfield :

“ And whereas the Honourable and Very Reverend Henry Edward John Howard, dean of Lichfield, being seised, in right of his deanery, of certain tithes arising within the township of Elmhurst, in the parish of Stowe, otherwise St. Chad, in Lichfield, of the annual value of twenty-five pounds or thereabouts, together with John Haworth of the city of Lichfield esquire, then lessee of the said tithes, did, on the twenty-eighth day of January last, with our consent under the said Acts, join in granting and releasing the said tithes, in immediate augmentation of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe; in consideration of our undertaking to recommend and propose a further augmentation, under the said Acts, of such an amount as, together with our reversionary interest in the said tithes, would be equal to their united then subsisting interest therein; and it appears to us, after due consideration and calculation, to be just and proper, that a further annual grant of twelve pounds should accordingly be made to the said perpetual curacy of Stowe :

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston is situate within the parish of Billingham, in the county of Durham, and is in the patronage of the dean and chapter of Durham; and the said dean and chapter did, previously to the passing of the said first-recited Act, grant and assign, in augmentation of the said perpetual curacy, certain lands, tenements and hereditaments, of the annual value of one hundred and twenty-six pounds or thereabouts, subject however to a lease thereof, which will expire in the month of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine :

“ And whereas the tithes of the said parish of Billingham are now vested in us, under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and the proceeds thereof exceed the last-mentioned annual value; and it appears to us, after due consideration of the wants and circumstances of the said parish, to be expedient, that a temporary annual grant should be made to the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, of equal amount to the prospective augmentation aforesaid :

“ And whereas by a Scheme, bearing even date herewith, we have, under the authority of the said recited Act, recommended and proposed to your Majesty in Council, that grants, in augmentation of benefices, should be made in certain classes, and subject to certain limitations therein mentioned; and the grants herein recommended and proposed fall within the provisions of the said Scheme :

“ We, therefore, recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the monies and revenues, rents, and profits, from time to time, applicable to the purposes of the said recited Acts, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Christ Church, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, but in lieu of and in full satisfaction for the said annual payment of forty-two pounds, the fixed annual sum of fifty-four pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, but only for the time hereinafter limited, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and twenty-six pounds; by equal half-yearly payments in each case, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but in the case of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston not after the first day of May in the said year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine; and that the first of such payments shall in each case be made on the first day of May next; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said perpetual curacies shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall in each such case be apportioned, between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the perpetual curacy so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and the proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said perpetual curacies, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Durham, Lichfield, and Worcester.
