

pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Stowe otherwise St. Chad, but in lieu of and in full satisfaction for the said annual payment of forty-two pounds, the fixed annual sum of fifty-four pounds; and to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston, but only for the time hereinafter limited, the fixed annual sum of one hundred and twenty-six pounds; by equal half-yearly payments in each case, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but in the case of the said perpetual curacy of Wolviston not after the first day of May in the said year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine; and that the first of such payments shall in each case be made on the first day of May next; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said perpetual curacies shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall in each such case be apportioned, between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the perpetual curacy so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and the proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said perpetual curacies, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Durham, Lichfield, and Worcester.
